Chapter 26: Heaven-sent Robber

“When you are lucky, you can get everything you want easily. Money will come to you like water in the river, beauties will never stop chasing you, and people will keep offering food and drink for you. When your luck is gone, money will fly away from you, no matter how hard you try to catch it, you won’t be able to get it. Not saying beauties, even ugly bitches will act like a high angel looking at you like a cockroach. Even the food which is already in your mouth would be hard to swallow. Even if you eat it, you will vomit more than what you just put in your mouth.”

Jaime felt the same. Just one month ago he had millions of spiritual stones, now after one week of begging, he couldn’t even get one spiritual stone. Life is so hard to predict.

Before leaving double moon sect a month ago...

“Elder Meng,” Jaime patted his shoulder. “I have money from selling pills and taking from Elder Hu and Elder Fan. It is more than two million spiritual stones. All of this will be Double Moon Sect’s money; I hope you can use it wisely for raising this sect. There’s also some left over pills and Patriarch Realm Demonic beast’s meat and blood. I will leave it for you and this sect.”

Jaime took out one green jade information. “Inside this jade there are the original 21 chapters of Double Moon Sect’s cultivation. But this cultivation is known as a defected cultivation, so I modified that cultivation into Ying Yang Double Moon Cultivation. Yang Double Moon Cultivation is for men and Ying Double Moon Cultivation is for women cultivators. It has 30 chapters which including how to reach Ancestor Realm.” Jaime took some information from Dragon and Phoenix’s cultivation and refined it into Ying Yang Double Moon Cultivation.

“Patriarch Jaime!” Elder Meng quickly knelt. “With that much money and new cultivation method, we will surely raise our sect. I will take it to the peak in 5 years! You are the greatest!”

“Yeah, it is all my money.” Jaime left with only one hundred spiritual stones for himself.

As of how he had gone from all of his disciples.... it was for the sake of being cool. Like a hero closing the curtain. He took out three spiritual stones and used them for boosting his speed to the maximum. It would be funny if he wanted to disappear from the others, putting on the act of a super hero, only to have them all suddenly catch up with him, so lame.

Moving out from Double Moon Sect, Jaime walked to the nearest and biggest city and cultivated with spiritual stones on the road, from level 5 he rose to level 12. It was White Eagle City, third biggest city in the continent, located in the central west continent. In that place, there were sect branches, military generals, gangsters, bandits and all sorts of things.

“I need to see what kind of place this continent is before I make it mine.” Nearing White Eagle city, he was suddenly stopped by twenty ugly people.

“I opened this road, I planted this tree, I picked the stone and I cleaned the road every day so people can travel comfortably. If you want to pass this road you have to pay toll fees!”

“Then I won’t use this road,” said Jaime turning around.

“Too late, you are already on the road, we the Band of Eagle Bandits must be paid or you will regret it!”

“You dare!” shouted Jaime angry. This lowly people dare to rob him, the Patriarch of Double Moon Sect. “Let us fight!”

After a few great fights, which Jaime said, as the greatest fight he ever fought, exchanged thousands of hits and ten thousand of kicks, Jaime left black and blue with nothing in his pocket.

“I fought with twenty people in the Elder Realm, level 50, in my Elementary Realm, level 12! I accept my lost!”

***

“Brothers do you remember when we rob a young guy? Which turn out to be a rich kid with a space storage pouch and seventy spiritual stones inside it?” Asked one bandit felt nostalgic.

“Yeah the one we let off because we thought he was a kid of some powerful family and didn’t like to attract his family to kill us. Why?”

The bandit smiled, “It is just funny remembering how arrogant he was at first but after one brother hit him once, he quickly gave everything he had to all of us.”

“Yeah.... only one hit. He is smart.”

“Now I am the poorest person in whole Great White Eagle city and focusing on being a happy beggar.” Jaime sat beside one building.

White Eagle city was surely an awesome big city with millions of people living there. People built their houses with stone and mostly wood. Rich people used stone houses, poor people had no house. This White Eagle city had a width of two hundred fifty kilometers, there were four walls surrounding the city. One of the walls was connected with the high mountain, which created a natural defense against enemies.

“This place truly is beautiful, but without money wherever you go will be same, full of hardship. Brothers,” said Jaime to one beggar right beside him. “I think after looking at so many beggars in this city, we are supposed to do something big like creating beggar sect. You know, once there was a famous beggar sect with a king of beggar and their treasure hitting dog stick.”

“What good is that sect for?” asked the beggar.

Jaime smiled. “When we have brothers of beggars, they can share their food and money with us. It will make us rich!”

“I am your brother, when I share my food to you; I will get poorer and maybe will die of hunger because of you. Useless sect.” The beggar sneered. “You are trying to rob me!”

“That useless sect is one of the four biggest sects in the story of condor heroes and return of condor heroes.” Jaime protested.

“Well it just story! I too have a story, one big world, with trillions of people live thousand of years without working and food came from heaven.”

“Bullshit story.”

“Yeah like your story.”

As the sky was getting dark, Jaime stood, “Looks like we didn’t get anything today.” He walked across the street, at one corner, he knelt and took a ring. Staring at the ring he smiled. Walking about three blocks, he knocked on the small door gate.

“Who is it?”

“I found your ring and want to return it.”

A guy showed up and hit Jaime face. “So you are the little thief, who stole my wife wedding ring!” He forcefully grabbed Jaime’s hand and took the ring “This time I’ll let you go, don’t show your face to me anymore.”

He closed the gate.

“No, thank you after I found it?” asked Jaime in perplex.

“See what you get by being nice person?”

When you are unlucky, even doing good thing will turn into disaster!

“I want a demonic beast ink and demon beast skin for free.” Jaime operated the Book of Karma and got information about where he could get demonic beast ink. He quickly followed the information. In this one month Jaime learned how to use the Book of Karma to its maximum. The Book of Karma was full of information; he could get anything he wanted as long as he asked the right question.

Jaime was amazed by this book. It knew everything in the universe. Fallen money on the street, ring on the beach, dead body in the river, which house was empty, even which girl just had broken her heart, so he can take the opportunity.

With the Book of Karma, he was the king of information. King of everything!

In the back of the biggest academy of White Eagle City, Academy of White Lion, Jaime carried out a thorough search in the hill of garbage. This academy was the biggest and the richest academy which was only attended by rich family’s kids, highly talented disciples, successors of big sects, noble kids, or successors of a small lord. They were loaded and always looked down on everyone.

At the garbage hill, Jaime found five bottles of demonic ink which smelled like they had already turned bad, but they were still useable. It seemed like their owner threw them out as soon as the smell turned bad. After moving some garbage, he also got some low-grade demonic beast's skins. "F**k it is almost fifty sheets of demonic beast's skin, still new and packed!" Those beast skins were sent to one arrogant guy as a gift and he threw them away the second he knew the quality.

"I had enough with living poor!"

The next morning, Jaime stepped on thirty stairs into the biggest auction house in the city, Thousand Treasures Pavilion.

"Wait, where are you going to?" One entrance guard stopped Jaime at the entrance hall. In his eyes, a person with dirty clothes and still young, was more likely to harm his position as entrance hall guard.

"I want to sell a space storage pouch."

"Really? Can I see it first? The item." The guardian was shocked a little, because a space storage pouch cost about ten thousands spiritual stones, for the lowest grade. One spiritual stone is equal 100 taels gold. One tael gold is equal to 100 taels silver. And one tael silver is equal to 100 bronze's coins. His monthly wage being a guard was only 3 taels of gold.

"Sure, why not." Jaime took out one space storage pouch.

“Do you mind waiting here while I take it to the store manager?” He showed respect to Jaime. People with real power could appear like a real freaks. The head guard always told him, pay respect to every kind of people. Especially the freaky ones, the more of a freak they are, the more respect you must show. Because most of them are crazy and you may be jinxed for seven generations. If they turn out to be fake, it won’t be too late to kick them out later with some bonuses.

“Please...”

“Guard, no need to do it!” A very fat guy grabbed the space storage pouch. “Lao Du, isn’t this my stolen space storage pouch?”

A thin and fox’s faces guy glanced at the pouch and to Jaime. “Young master, this is really your storage pouch. I remember this kid who stole it from you. He is the thief! I remember it!”

“Right, I remember it too.” The fat man took the pouch and shouted angrily. “What are all of you being paid for? Someone stole your young master’s pouch and you just stare at him! Go break his arms and his legs, what are you waiting for?”

Two people with buildup bodies quickly kicked Jaime out and threw him to the stairs. Not stopping there, they ganged up Jaime fiercely. The fat guy laughed happily and entered the entrance as his private bodyguards were having fun.

When people are in unlucky, even when they sell their own stuff, people will think them as thief!

“Guys please stop it. Your young master has entered the hall. Please let me take this little thief to the city lord’s prison.” The entrance guard offered his service. “Please quickly follow your young master, this little thief isn’t worth your time.”

One bodyguard kicked Jaime again and spit at his face. “You are lucky I don’t kill you. Don’t show me your face again, or I kill you.”

The entrance guard picked up Jaime’s body and moved away from the Thousand Treasure Pavilion. Jaime’s face was full of blood, black and blue all over his whole body.

“I know you didn’t steal that pouch. That fat guy is Long Yu, son of general Long Chang, one of the three great generals of this city. That Long Yu is already well-known for his worst attitude by stealing what he likes from other people. I, Xu Tie, am just a lowly guard of the auction house. Sorry I can’t help you much, if I dare to stand opposite of that Long Yu, I will be gone. I am just a small person trying to make living, please don’t have a grudge with me. Here, I have 10 taels silver please take it.” Xu Tie, the guard gave Jaime 10 taels silver and put him in the cheapest hotel.

In the small room, feeling the pain from his body, Jaime suddenly laughed. “If I can’t get money from doing good things, neither from selling stuff, then heaven has granted me the way to be a robber!”

Jaime eyes shone, he took out inks and beast skins. Working hard to create as many storage pouches as he could. “Tonight I am going to rob clean Long Yu and all his family’s belongings! You steal my pouch; I will steal your family and seven generation ancestor’s belongings.”

“Just try me!”

Chapter 27: Sweet Revenge

“Any man who drives safely while kissing a pretty girl, is not giving the pretty girl the attention she deserves. Well, it is a good saying. It only means that, when you are determined to be a robber, you need to rob everything clean and leave nothing attached, or you are not giving them the attention they deserve. You always need to keep and lift up your name as a robber too, or you will give it a bad name. Anyway, live to shorten others end of the stick, not to live with the short end of the stick.”

The storage pouch in Jaime's hand had a space of about 3 x 5 meters. He created about thirty of them and one was a very special storage pouch. That special pouch is named an animal storage pouch. Usually a storage pouch is only at a size of a palm of an adult human hand. This animal storage pouch, however, had a size of a 5 years old child. Inside the animal storage pouch was a space of about 100 x 50 meters. It was used in ancient times to move their beasts through continents. So the difference is, this animal storage pouch was specially made to be able to contain a living being. Not like other storage pouches, which rejected living beings.

Jaime was very patient in planning this robbery. Every night, he would use the book of karma to check the conditions of General Long Chang's residence. Well, he did want to rob that night as he promised himself. But, after using the book of karma to understand the General Long Chang's residence and what that general had, he knew he needed more storage pouches. He needed better preparation to break through the high defense wall—General Long residence was very big and was located near the city wall—and many other things.

Being a robber is easy, being killed as a robber or a dead robber is even easier. The hardest part is being a living robber who can enjoy his treasure without anyone knowing.

As a robber, he must complete three things before executing the robbery plan. First, it is having the information about the item he wants to steal, details about the guards, and the blueprints of the place. Second, is about how to enter the place, shake off the guards, and steal the item or items. Third, and the last one, is how to get out from that place and still live until the end of the day.

General Long Chang was in the General Realm or the same as the Patriarch realm. He had ten people in the Colonel Realm or same as the Elder Realm. Fifty in the Major Realm or same as the True Human Realm, one hundred in the Captain Realm or same as the Senior Realm, five hundred in the Lieutenant realm or same with the Junior realm, one thousand in the Second lieutenant Realm or same with the Elementary Realm. And five thousand as soldiers in the normal human realm.

Except the low ranks which stay in the barrack outside the city wall, most of high rankers stayed around General Long residence. While Jaime was still determined to rob General Long clean, he also knew that with General Long Chang's authorization and power, most likely the whole city will be turned into turmoil, after general finds out that he was robbed. His soldiers will pour throughout the city and start the search for the robber. He needed to find a safe place to stay out from the great turmoil.

So, he endured for a few days while hanging a big poster that said, "I will do any work for money, I can cook, I can clean and I can do anything." Jaime was already on his third day of handing out the papers in the street, which faced the back wall of White Lion Academy.

White Lion Academy was one of the places that General Long would not be able to touch, the others were the city lord hall and the other generals' residences. White Lion Academy was the easiest one to enter, since the generals' places already had a lot of soldiers to do any work they needed.

As to why Jaime stayed at the back wall of the Academy, is because everyone knew. The students and teachers always walk from the front gate, as for servants, workers and the chefs, all of them used the back door on the back wall.

"You!" One chef of the academy suddenly appeared in front of Jaime. "Can you do the butchering and clean the animals?"

"I can! I can, Sir! I can kill everything you want except humans. I can clean them really nicely. Just try me."

"Can you cook?" The chef gave disdained look at Jaime.

"I can cook everything; I worked at my family's restaurant since I was five. Please hire me, you won't regret it. If I do wrong, you don't need to pay me. Please help me; I am so hungry for these few days." Jaime begged and kneeled to show how pitiful he was.

The Chef was quite a fat guy with an oily face. His stomach bulged out like a nine months pregnant woman. "Well, I will try you out for a week. If you do great, I will pay you. You won't get paid for now but you will get food to fill your stomach."

“I accept it, Sir. Please take me as your servant. I plan to be the greatest chef in the three realms!”

“Stop chit chatting, you talk too much for a guy. Follow me.” The chef walked to the back door of White Lion Academy. One guard in the Senior Realm stopped him. “Who is this young boy? Chef Bai, You know White Lion can’t let unknown people enter.”

Chef Bai sneered at the guard. “This little boy will be my new helper.”

“What happened to little Yao, your helper?”

“That little brat got drunk four days ago and got into fight. He broke his hands and legs. What do you want me to do without a helper? Lessen your food?”

The guard frown. “Still I need to check his background.”

Chef Bai rolled his eyes. “It is not like you don’t know, this little boy already stood in front of you for three days. As for the other days, I dare to say you saw him collecting garbage from our place every day. He is just a beggar that turn out to be helper. If you want to check him, please go on.”

The guard looked at Jaime and didn’t know how to start. In front of him is just a little guy of 14 years old, dirty with tattered clothes, and his body was thin like a hungry ghost. Only his eyes look bright. “Alright, you can enter. Chef Bai you must keep him in the workers area and never let him out to the student and academy area.”

“I get it, to serve a thousand people in this academy; he will only find his time on his bed and in the butchering house. He won’t even have time to jerk off.” Chef Bai took Jaime to a smelly butchering house. It was truly smelly with blood, animal shit, some leftovers of animal intestines, animal fur and bones. All of this was scattered around the butcher’s house and inside of it. “This will be your work place, as for your hut, it will be that!”

Jaime stared at a small hut like a horse barn. “For real?”

“Hei! Be grateful, you usually sleep on the streets right? I am already doing my best to help you. Now, there is a cage with about two hundred chickens, you must clean them before lunch time. Do it now.”

Jaime quickly took a butchering knife and started killing the poor animals. Chef Bai checked Jaime’s cleaning work for a few minutes feeling satisfied and went away. “Someone will take those chickens and remember you can’t go anywhere except this place.”

“All right!” replied Jaime, thinking that he will need to clean this butcher house and the area around before he got sick.

Jaime stayed there a week more; he was waiting for the right wind to blow at General Long residence. That night, he secretly went out from White Lion Academy. His level was only 17, it was raised by butchering hundreds of animals every day. Because he was going to fight with General Realms that were around level 65, his blood boiled with excitement. “Today is the perfect day to do the robbery. For two weeks, as I started to check the general residence, this is the best day ever. All of the people staying in General Long’s residence, are not going out. The wind is blowing from the right angle and I can’t hope for more than this. I will fight till the end! One general realm and ten Elder realms!”

With Jaime’s wind movement speed, it will be hard to detect Jaime’s presence. The movement he used was from the self-proclaimed best thief under heaven. Even if it was just a first movement, it was more than enough to take care of the patriarch realm and below.

Jaime stood at the city wall, camouflaged by the darkness. He took out one small bag and burned it. That small bag let out the smoke, which was taken by the wind and blown to the General Long’s residence. Jaime moved to another wall and did the same. In his mind, he had a complete trajectory of the wind flow. He let the smoke completely surround General Long’s residence.

After an hour, he checked with the book of karma that almost 60% of the residence was already asleep by the smoke. After two hours, no one was still awake. Jaime smiled. “The sleeping poison this daddy created will even make a king realm sleep without knowing what just happened. Let alone a patriarch realm. Today I will take back what you took from me. Revenge sure is the sweetest thing.”

“This is my home!” said Jaime laughing as he walked inside General Long’s hall. In his mind, he already knew every stone in this place. He flashed to the treasury room. Easily undoing all of the traps and killing formations.

“This daddy is too cool to be stopped.” Jaime got inside the room; there were lots of cupboards filled with herbs, rare medicine and even pills. At the other side, there were wood cases filled with weapons, treasures, gold and spiritual stones. Jaime took everything completely, within the cupboards, wooden cases, and everything else.

Out from the treasure room, Jaime moved to the ancestor hall, the place where the ashes of Long’s nine generations of ancestors were kept. Jaime lit up the incense and bowed to the ancestor altar. “This greatest thief under heaven will take everything you collected for one thousand years. Please forgive me.”

Jaime put the incense, moved a few things at the altar, and caused a secret door behind the altar to open. It was the secret room where General Long and his ancestor kept their real treasures. He cleared a few traps and a formation which usually only the right successor knew.

Inside the secret room Jaime stared in awe. The things inside are real treasures that will put things in the treasury room to shame. The cupboard was filled with truly rare herbs, which even can make a dead one live. As for the treasures, there were swords, talismans, many other weapons used by Long Ancestors. All of them were rarely seen treasures.

“Everything is mine!” Jaime laughed and took them all. At one wall, Jaime used a knife to gouge out a few stones and suddenly there was a small wooden box. Inside the box, there were five storage rings. Every ring was filled with one million spiritual stones. These storage rings are Long Ancestors emergency funds. They were prepared. If one day a strong enemy successfully robs them clean without them being able to do much, those rings will have enough for them to raise the Long family back to its glory. Yet, they had never predicted, that one day a little thief with knowledge of everything will rob them clean and won't even let the emergency funds to stay in their place.

After everything was cleaned out, Jaime moved to Long Yu's room. Inside the room, Jaime found three women sleeping with him on the bed. They slept like dead bodies.

"Truly a lucky guy." Jaime moved Long Yu's cupboard, ward board, and even his bed into the storage pouch. Checking the empty room Jaime felt satisfied. "Wait, don't put a shame on the robber's name."

Jaime stole Long Yu's clothes and his women's clothes. Letting them be completely naked and sleep on the floor. "Their clothes are the high class ones, high price in the market!"

He left a writing on the wall. "You dare to steal my stuff, I steal your stuff."

He moved to the General Long Chang's room and cleaned it too. General Long had a storage ring which the contents were truly amazing. It was filled with all the good stuff like weapons, pills, armor, and so on. It also contained a lot of money for paying his soldier wages this month.

Jaime also left a writing on the wall. "Long Yu stole my stuff, Father must pay and his ancestors also have to pay."

After clearing every room, Jaime moved to the kitchen and took everything inside! Not leaving even one stone he could move. The things he didn't take were only things connected to the earth.

Jaime found his way to the guard residence and found the two people, who had attacked him. They were sleeping soundly.

“Good, it is time for both of you!”

Chapter 28: Robbing and Massacre

“Have you ever heard a story about the monkey and the gold fish? Once upon a time, there was a monkey and a gold fish, they were good friends. One time, on a rainy day, the monkey luckily found a cave to hide. The monkey thought, what a terrible friend I am, I found a cave and let my dear friend gold fish suffer outside in the rain. The monkey quickly rushed to the pond and called out the gold fish. As the gold fish appeared, the monkey grabbed the fish and rushed to the cave. ‘I am holding you, stop writhing.’ The monkey hugged his dearest friend. ‘I will keep you warm.’ The monkey hugged the fish for one day and night.”

“Believe me, sometimes your intentions are good but not always good for others. Like unrequited love, one sided love, ah... loving is truly full of sin.”

Jaime looked at the two guys who hit him. They were in an intimate position, you know, the legendary 69 position? And their mouths were on the each others... you know... balls, birds... whatever your imagination takes you to. Jaime robbed them till they were naked and gave them a great pose, so when they both awake....heehee. They will feel each other's deep unrequited love. Jaime also tied them up together, just to make sure they would enjoy each other more intimately after they awaken.

Jaime took all of the guard's armors, weapons, boots and even their beds. Letting about two hundred of them to sleep on the floor. He moved to the barn, found about two hundred horses, ten demonic beasts of Junior Realm, three demonic beasts of Senior Realm and one Golden Lion Hawk beast of True Beast Realm. It was a jackpot!

After cleaning all of the things and still having a few hours left before dawn, Jaime started to take the tables, chairs, stone figures at the garden, pretty marbles, toys of random kids. Even the poorest beggar still had his broken mug. Yet, Jaime left nothing to the General Long.

Suddenly he remembered something and wrote very big words on the ancestor hall. “I opened this road, I planted this tree, I picked the stones and I cleaned the road every day so people can travel comfortably. But your ancestors built houses on my road so you have to pay the taxes to the Band of Eagle Bandits”

They surely will pay a visit to my good friends.

General Long Chang was the first person to wake up from his sleep; he was not in the Patriarch/General Realms for nothing. The first thing appeared on his mind when he stared at his empty room was. “We have been robbed!”

As he got out from his room, the sun was already high in the sky, he quickly went to the ancestor altar and found the secret room was opened. He made his way inside and checked the empty room, his anger raised to his head. And as he looked at the small hole at the wall, he fainted.

***

Chef Bai went to the butchering house and became dumbstruck. He hadn't come for a week and this butchering house had transformed into a whole new house, so clean and so tidy. Jaime was butchering animals on one large stone tub.

"That is new." Chef Bai checked the stone tub.

"Yeah, it will keep the blood flow in the right basin and won't dirty the surroundings."

"These tubs?"

"That right one is for burning the furs and the left tubs for making the leftover into fertilizer. It will keep everything clean."

Chef Bai impressed. "You are doing great for a village boy."

"Yeah, you are doing great for a country boy too."

"I remember you can cook. Can you also do the deboning and cleaning for demonic beast? Young students want to go to the mountain for hunting and wanted to cook it there. I don't have time to serve these pampered students. What about if I send you there? Their tip will be good for you." Chef Bai suddenly remembered why he came here.

"I remember the guards won't like it if I leave this place." Jaime frowned. He really doesn't want to go out. Today the famous General Long Chang will turn the city upside down and there will be a lot of blood.

“Ahhh... don’t worry for this small matter.” Chef Bai rounded his hand on Jaime’s shoulder. “Since the request comes from the teacher; the guards only can follow it.”

Jaime was taken to the academy field. There were around two hundred young disciples gathering. Most of them were still in the Elementary Realm and Junior Realm. New fresh bloods who were looking for blood for their first time.

“Teacher Hua, I took one new guy to accompany your lovely students.” Chef talked to one pretty teacher. That teacher had long black hair and looked around thirty years old.

“Really? Thanks to you Chef Bai, this time I really trouble you for the ‘Bloody Hunting Scary Demonic Beast’ event.” Teacher Huo smiled very sweetly at Chef Bai.

“Oh, there’s no need to say, I am always happy to help you.” Chef Bai face turned really red. Jaime sighed. So he was a victim, as someone who is trying to kiss his idol’s ass.

A pig loving a goddess of the moon, it surely will end with a tragic tragedy ending. Even monkeys needed millions of years to became human and create rockets to the moon, how long will it be needed for a pig?

“What is your name?” Teacher Hua asked.

“Yeah what is your name?” Asked Chef Bai, he never asked before.

“This lowly one’s named A Niu, my mother named me as a cow, so I can be as healthy as cow and work hard as a cow. And die as a cow.” Jaime glanced at the Chef Bai. “Usually cow dies after being sold. It will be killed for its meat.”

“Typical village kids.” Chef Bai said to Teacher Huo.

Teacher Hou laughed, “Don’t worry you are not going to be sold. They are going to hunt demonic beast for twenty days in the mountain. It just a few groups that don’t have a servant to cook for them, so you will only need to follow them and cook for them. After this event is finished, I will give you 20 taels of gold.”

“Your safety will be guaranteed. Some teachers will be following by secret for the disciple’s safety. So don’t worry and don’t tell them. We are trying to put them in pressure. Anyway, the demonic beasts will be only around the elementary realm.”

Jaime rolled his eyes, this place was really amazing. Young students were going to hunt demonic beasts, there were teachers following them, they had a servant to cook for them... how much can these young masters and young mistresses be pampered? They were definitely just going to have happy camping with the title of Bloody Hunting Scary Demonic Beast. They even wore their best and latest models of clothes.

Do they seriously want to get through the mountain and forest with those kinds of super fluffy clothes?

“And you are on...,” Teacher Huo scanned Jaime. “You don’t even reach elementary realm. Don’t worry they will take care of you.”

Previously Jaime’s level was on 17. To hide himself from being targeted, Jaime used 5 levels to learn the way to conceal his level. So he will be appearing as a normal human around level 5.

Teacher Huo took Jaime to a group of ten people, girls and boy. “This is A Niu, he will be your cook for these twenty days of hunting. Please take care of him.”

There were six young girls around 15-16 years and four guys at the same age. Some of them still on elementary realm, but four of them were in the Junior Realm. Jaime hit his head. Even his lowly disciples that were on level 5 could easily gang up on one demonic beast!

Chef Bai threw to him a very big pack. “There are pots, a knife, water bottles, seasoning and everything you need to cook the demonic beast!”

Jaime carried it on his back and followed the group moving out from the academy. In the middle of their way to the north gate, which was closer to the mountain, Jaime could see a lot of soldiers flashing like a worker bees along the road. People panicking, their faces turned pale, and most tried to hide themselves.

“What’s going on here?” asked teacher Hua’s friend, named Teacher Kok. He stopped one soldier.

“General Long’s residence was robbed last night. The General asked for all of the gates to be closed and all of the soldiers will search every building and frisk everyone.” The soldier looked specifically at Teacher Huo and showed a perverted smile.

Teacher Kok kicked the soldier and said coldly. “Be careful or your eyes will cause your death.”

“How dare you do this to me! I am Ji An, the second lieutenant! I suspect that you are a friend of the robber. All of you must be frisked out. Show me everything you have!” The soldier named Ji An angrily called ten of his soldiers to encircle Teacher Kok.

Teacher Kok is a guy with a scholar look. He laughed hard. “So when you think I am robber then I am a robber? Have you never put your eyes on White Lion Academy?”

“I don’t care who you are, General said everyone must be frisked including all of you!” The soldier was totally like a deer struck into the big city or maybe a cow never knowing a tiger. Well, he was just a village young man, recruited by General Long’s barrack and got brainwashed that General Long was the almighty general under heaven.

Teacher Kok waited no more; he took out his sword and quickly killed the ten soldiers and let Ji An alive. Teacher Kok was in the Elder Realm, level 51, but the soldier was just a normal human, level 6. Even before Ji An finished one word, all his soldiers have dead. “Any last words?”

Ji An legs shaken. Today he really kicked a hot iron plate.

“Halt there!” One soldier in the Captain Realm with fifty soldiers quickly moved to Teacher Kok. “All of you! How dare you kill General Long’s soldiers. Put down your weapons and surrender or all of you will be killed on the spot!” At that time, more soldiers in the Captain Realm appeared with their soldiers. In a minute four hundreds soldier encircle Teacher Kok, Teacher Huo and all of the students of White Lion Academy.

“Truly General Long put no face on White Lion Academy.” Teacher Kok hit Ji An’s meridian spot and cause half of his body to be paralyze. Teacher Kok threw that poor soldier in the middle of the students.

“What are you doing!” shouted the Captain.

“He will be a witness that he was the first one to started this trouble.” Instead of being scared, Teacher Kok laughed really hard. “Today, we thought of giving our dear students an experience of killing. Our target is demonic beast, but who ever thought that there are hundreds of low level humans that want to sacrifices themselves as stepping stone for them! All students hear me out, if you kill one soldier, you will get one point, second lieutenant or Elementary Realm will give 5 points, lieutenant or Senior Realm will give 10 points, Captain 50 points, Major 100 points, Colonel 500 points and General Long will be 1000 points!”

“Teacher Huo! We will start the killing! Tell everyone in the academy to start the killing too. The target this time is all soldiers of General Long. Before General Long and his entire soldiers wipe out from this city, don’t stop the killing.”

Teacher Huo smiled she took out two spiritual stones and put it into one talisman then launched it into the sky. Suddenly the talisman exploded in the sky and big red words appeared in the wide sky.

“Soldiers of General Long disrespected the White Lion Academy. All White Lion Academy’s people and students will start massacring all General Long soldiers in the city!”

All of the students of Teacher Huo and Teacher Kok took out their swords. Their levels were mostly around 15 to 25, facing soldiers that are only at 5-10 level would only be a fun fight for most of them.

Jaime hid himself in the middle of the students and squat. He found Ji An paralyzed and put his hand on Ji An shoulder. “Brother you are really amazing and very awesome. Your one glance at Teacher Huo could cause the death of all five thousand soldiers, let thousands of wives become widows, thousands of sons and daughters losing their father and thousands of lovers crying. You really are the man of this year, I salute you in respect.”

Ji An face turned ugly, he didn’t know what just happened. Last night he dreamed of having a lot of feces. In his village, there is a saying; dream about having feces means that there will be a lot of fortune soon. This morning he checked his feces that looked so solid and beautiful. He knew today would be his lucky day. Suddenly the general gave the command to search buildings and frisk all the citizens. All of the soldiers turned really happy and high spirited. They knew once they do the search and frisk, there will be a lot of items that they could take by force and a lot of women they could touch. It truly was a happy time to them. Now he can only cry without tears.

General Long also read those sentences in the sky and his face turned really pale. Today seem like a day when all his power will be rooted.

“Who caused this to happen? After being rob, White Lion Academy announces war with us. What just happened? Does heaven really wish for our Long family to cease? How did all of this start?!”

Chapter 29: Great soldier

“Imagine you discover your friend has a secret, will you confront him? Will you stay silent? Either way, you know, nothing will be the same anymore. Once, there was a guy, a friend, he caught a girl stealing his laptop. Well, he turned that girl in to the police. I said to that guy, he must have forgiveness, never to ruin anyone’s life by sending them to the police.”

“You are supposed to let her go after having s*x with her. She will choose to make you happy than face the cops. So next time when you find your friends secret, make out a good bargain. Never ruin their lives by sending them to jail.”

In this place, people sure love to kill each other. Jaime saw soldiers getting killed like dogs. Their movements were simply too slow for the academy students. The students were more spirited after they knew how easy it was to kill them. They were simply born to bully.

“Stop all of this!” General Long Chang flew and landed on one building roof. “Why have you, Academy of White Lion, started a war with my soldiers?”

Teacher Kok laughed. “It is your soldier who started war with us. He said that I am the robber and wanted to process me. Don’t you think that you are giving no face to us?” He caught Ji An and threw it to General Long. “Ask your own subordinate.”

“You started this war?” General Long Chang eyes coldly asked Ji An.

“General, it wasn’t like that. They just appeared and killed the soldiers without saying anything. They started the war first.” Ji An scared.

Teacher Kok laughed loudly. “So? I appeared and started the killing? It is okay too. I started the war, so what!”

“Good! Good! Good!” One loud voice came and caused all of the people to feel shocked. “I, General Guan, truly like the spirit of White Lion Academy. My daughter is one of the students of the academy; today I will protect my daughter and lend her my entire five thousands soldier to clean up this city from General Long soldiers.” One general with twenty of his subordinates stepped on the building roof looking at General Long.

Suddenly another voice came. “I, General Song, will also lend my soldiers for the academy to clean up that scum. General Long Chang son, Long Yu stole my thirty sixth son’s weapon. It was my birthday present for him. Now, it is good time to pay back an old debt!” One more general with his ten subordinates landed on the building roof.

Ji An face turned so white, he knew today, all of his brothers will die because of him. But will he admitted his fault and let the academy take his own head and stop the massacre?

“General,” said Ji An knelt. “This academy teacher was looking down on General Long, so I asked them politely to give face to General. Instead of taking our good will, they spit on me and killed ten of my brothers. All I ask from them is to just give face to General Long who I love. I am willing to die to protect the dignity of General Long.”

“Well said.” Teacher Kok nodded his head.

“Well spoken.” General Song agreed.

General Long almost vomited blood. He was so angry, by knowing his lowly soldier truly caused this big trouble for such a simple reason. With the biggest academy and two generals willing to have war with him, he won't be able to smile even if he wanted. He didn't catch the thief, yet invited three tigers to his house.

General Long used his sword to cut Ji An hands fiercely. “You speak the truth or I will kill you. There is no way the biggest academy in this city will give no face to me. Who are you! Are you a spy who tried to cause us to fight each other?”

“Arrggh.... No, I am really your soldier.” Ji An never thought he would anger the general.

“Then tell me the truth what happened!” General Long Chang eyes became red.

Sacrifice yourself and stop the war Idiot! And you will be the only one needed to die today.

“No! Don't tell him,” said the Teacher Kok. “Our students need more killing experience.”

“Soldier, have faith in what you believe!” General Guan spoke.

“Soldier, tell your general. You were not the first to start the war, or all of your families will be hanged under military law. Don’t put your ancestors to shame.” General Song also spoke his mind. “Tell your general you are not wrong!”

Ji An was scared that his family would be killed too. “General Long, it was White Lion Academy who started the war! Believe me!”

“Good!” Teacher Kok shouted. “Don’t stop! Start the massacre of General Long’s soldiers!”

“Give command to all soldiers to start killing General Long’s soldiers.” General Guan eyes locked on General Long. “They rampage through the city and cause trouble!”

“All troops, move out!” said General Song and smiled.

Well, General Long was never the favorite between all of the generals. But he was not the worst one. It is just when a wild wolf is being injured, his friends won’t let go of the chance to take a chunk out and eat his meat, and leave only the bones. The Long family has a few good places for earning money; like the merchants hall, transportation business, and owns a big place in the city. Killing General Long will let the other generals take his business area and cut their competitor.

If it can profit them, they will even put their nose in the fire. Then why not show their nose in ganging up on a weak general while the Academy of White Lion will take all the blame.

General Long wanted to cry but he couldn't. He didn't know how all of this could happen.

He stood there and let all of the soldiers fight. General Guan and General Song were both in the Patriarch realm. As long as General Long doesn't move, neither would they.

"How can these all happen!" cried General Long in anguish and agony.

Suddenly a voice transmission entered his ear.

"Long Yu stole everything of mine two weeks ago. One empty storage pouch, so I take his everything. About this war, Ji An started it, not me. Don't blame it on me. I am innocent."

General Long quickly searched the surrounding, trying to find who sent him the voice transmission. That time a black thing suddenly appeared and shot at him. General Long caught the black wooden box. It is a box to hide five storage rings for the Long's family emergency fund. Except it was empty now.

General Long hand shook, he shouted. "Thief I am going to kill you now!" He wanted to go on a rampage and turn everything upside down to find the thief. Never did he think, that as he started to move, General Song and General Guan launched their attack together and hit his chest hard.

General Long flew far away, vomited blood and quickly escaped, he couldn't win this fight. He speedily flew to his residence.

“Where is Long Yu!” Long Chang never felt so angry before and vomited more blood.

Long Yu appeared with a trembling body.

“Tell me have you ever stolen an empty storage pouch two weeks ago.”

Long Yu face hardens and knelt. “I have never stolen anything. I promise. Father always gave me enough money to buy everything I wanted. Why do I need to steal?”

“Call out Lao Du and Long Yu's two bodyguards!”

In no time, Lao Du and the two bodyguards appeared. Without saying anything General Long used his sword to remove Lao Du legs. “Two weeks ago, did Long Yu steal a storage pouch?!”

Lao Du was crying in pain and quickly said. “Yes, yes, young master stole an empty storage pouch from a young beggar at the Thousand Treasures Pavilion. Young master asked the bodyguards to gang up on the young beggar.”

General Long Chang trembled in anger. “I asked you to watch young master and you let him steal a thing and cause trouble for me!” The two bodyguards died on the spot, hit by General Long terrific aura. “And you Long Yu, have I ever not giving you enough money to buy everything you wanted? And still you stole that worthless storage pouch. And caused our Long Family to cease... tell me what I should do to you!”

“It can’t be because of me!” protest Long Yu. “That storage pouch, I stole was from a young beggar! He is at most on the elementary realm at that time. No way is he the robber.”

Long Chang kicked Long Yu very hard. “You should start using your head, why would a mere beggar have cultivation! He must be with a powerful sect; did you see how they cleaned out everything in one night? They, at least, needed forty storage pouches! How many sects do you think can have forty storage poaches in this continent?”

“And you, have you ever stolen General Song sixth son’s weapon!”

“No, I have not!”

General Long Chang looked at Lou Du.

Lou Du frightened. “There was a saber that young master brought. He told Master that he bought it from auction. The truth is he stole it from Song Ye, thirty sixth son of General Song.”

Long Yu could only be silent.

General Long Chang sat on his chair and his face suddenly ages, like he just passed twenty years in one day.

***

That night, there was no more General Long or Long Family in White Eagle City. General Long's residence was emptied. No one knew where General Long and all of his family went. The last news heard was General Long and some of his soldiers leaving from the north gate under heavy protection. They never came back again.

As for the demonic beast hunting, it was totally out of the question. The students of the academy were totally fine, just having a little scratches and they already swallowed ten healing pills.

How can these kind of people die?

The reason they cancelled the hunting beast is because their clothes were full of sweat and blood and they wanted hot water to take a bath.

***

The next day, Jaime followed ten young disciples walking through the forest. Same group from yesterday, four guys walked ahead and never stopped bragging about how they killed soldiers yesterday.

“I killed twelve!”

“I killed twenty!”

“No way! I just killed thirty and I am already so sad. I was supposed to kill hundreds of them.”

“Then why not kill them more?”

“It will cause me to sweat and be dirty, so I stopped at thirty.”

“Today, if I find a demonic beast, I will kill it alone. Please give me the honor.” One young master bowed politely.

“How can I, I will kill the beast first. My sword is already hungry for blood.” One young master swung his expensive sword.

“Me, I will take it down in one hit.” One young master hit the air a few times.

“This daddy will kill it!” One young master hit his chest with proud.

The young girl students also had nonstop chit chatting about who is the most handsome guy in academy, who is the coolest, and so on. Jaime sighed and could only follow them in silence.

“Yoo.. A Niu, don’t worry about your safety, we will protect you!” said one guy to Jaime. “Just make sure you cook our prey tastefully. We will surely pay you handsomely later!”

“Yeah we will protect you!” said another guy.

“Don’t worry, we are good people,” said one girl.

“Demonic Beast!” shouted one guy suddenly.

“My prey!” one guy’s eyes shone.

One Hundred Horn Rhino rushed at them angrily. It was surely big and appeared really scary with its hundred horns erected.

“Run!” Not knowing who shouted that word, the ten of them turned around and started to run.

“It is so scary!”

“Run, I don’t want to fight demonic beasts anymore!”

“It is so big!”

Jaime sighed. The same person who said he wanted to protect him turned out to be the first to run. The demonic beast rushed at him and the ten people were already gone from Jaime’s eyes.

“Seems like I need to show off my real power a little!”

Chapter 30: Dark Skinned Princess

“Life is so simple! We live, we die, we long for something, fight for what we believe in, and jump into fire for what we believe! And we die with a smile on our face, because we had done our best in that life.”

“For humans, killing people is easy. Killing your own heart is the hardest thing to do, because your heart won’t say logic to you and just betray you for no reason. Trust is something so fragile. For someone you love, you hide the truth from them, sometimes for a really selfish reason. And loyalty is something very delicate. You have to keep feeding loyalty till its fire dies, exhausted. But when it meets love, loyalty will just bend to it without reason and forget what it ate to grow up.”

Jaime looked at the demonic beast and took a deep breath to fill his lungs.

“Arrgghhhh help meeee!!!!!! Jaime screamed loudly and ran as fast as he could. “Help meee!!! Help meee!!! I am going to die!! Pleaseee help me anyone!!”

The demonic beast groaned. It ran faster and faster to chase Jaime.

As Jaime ran to his group, they kept shoo-ing him away.

“Go away! Don’t run here, find another way! If you come here, I am going to kill you. Take the beast away from us!” They swung their swords at him.

Jaime quickly turned the other way and kept running.

“Help! Help me!” shouted Jaime while running.

“Hei!” One young girl suddenly ran next to Jaime. She ran side by side with him. “Young man, need my help?”

“Who are you? You are just as young as me!” Jaime glanced at her. “Your skin is dark are you okay? You didn’t get burnt?”

“No, I was born like this.”

The two of them quickly jumped to overcome a fallen tree, the demonic beast just crushed it as it is passed.

“Do you need my help?”

“Sure.” Jaime nodded quickly.

“How much you are willing to pay?” ask the dark-skinned girl. “I can help you, with the right price!”

“Damn, you are extorting me! I am just a lowly servant. How can I have money?”

“Then, bye!” The girl gave the sweetest smile ever and ran ahead of Jaime.

“Damn you rich girl, you are a rich academy student. Yet you extort me!” The demonic beast’s horn touch Jaime butt. “I have no money but if you kill this demonic beast, I am going to cut its demonic core for you, I will cook for you, just keep me safe!”

The dark-skinned girl grinned and took out her two swords. She jumped back and threw her two swords at the beast, the swords pierce its skin a little bit. Using her body force, her foot stepped on the sword’s handle and pushed it deeper.

The sword sank into the demonic beast’s body. The Hundred Horns Rhino squeaked then fell miserably.

Jaime sat, exhausted and gave applause. “You are doing great. Really great, two thumbs for you.”

“Shut your mouth and no need to kiss my ass. Just quickly take out it’s core. I don’t have all day, my time is expensive, you won’t be able to afford it!” The girl forcefully pulled out her swords.

“Good, really good, this daddy is rich beyond your imagination!” Jaime was angry.

“Rich your shit, you are just a lowly servant backpacking kitchen ware. What you have, how can I not know. Keep your bullshit and pay me for helping you.” The girl glanced at Jaime angrily. “Move your ass now or I will kill you! It is already my bad luck meeting you.”

“Yes Ma’am!” Jaime ran to the demonic beast and quickly stabbed on its head. Quickly took out its core. “This is your core miss.”

“Hmm, I must approve of you, you really have the skill.” She didn’t believe that Jaime could take out the core so fast without seeing it.

“Are you okay?” Teacher Huo appeared before them. “I heard that you asked for help, turned out you are okay.”

“Teacher Huo, this lovely dark-skinned young woman, the most beautiful young girl ever, with the sexiest body I ever saw, she help me.” Jaime bowed to that young girl. “Teacher Huo, how is my group? Are they running back to academy?”

“No one is allowed back to academy before twenty days. They are waiting for you now.”

“Teacher Huo, you are as beautiful as a goddess of the moon which our villages always pray. Your kindness and your beauty shines like a sun.” Jaime eyes shone. “That group, I don’t want to be with again. I better choose to die than be with them. Once they promised to protect me from danger. Yet, they left me behind. When I ran to them, they chased me out. I don’t want to follow them again. My parents only have me for the clan successor. Please, just let me back to academy. I am really scared already.”

Teach Huo looked Jaime full of sympathy. “En, you can go back to the academy.”

“Yes!!!!!!”

“Teacher Huo, who is this young boy?” The dark-skinned women asked.

“Ah... Chu Mie, this boy is a helper of Chef Bai. He was helping the group without servants cook demonic beast.” Teach Huo looked around. “Where is your group?”

“I left them; they are simply too slow and dragged me back. I don’t have a helper to cook my demonic beasts, can he follow me?” Chu Mie eyes shone jovially.

“Yes!”

“No!” Jaime cut Teacher Huo speaking.

“A Niu, Chu Mie already helped you, she can protect you. I will talk to your master Chef Bai, just follow Chu Mie okay. Chu Mie will give you 20 tael of gold after this...”

“He is not my master...” Jaime spoke but Teacher Huo was already gone.

Chu Mie smiled smugly as the result was announced. “Be grateful, because you are going to work with the greatest, Chu Mie. Be honored, because I let you follow me, at the end of these hunting days, I will give you more than 20 tael of gold. I will let you have 20 tael of gold and 1 bronze coin. See how good this sister is to you?”

“You are super stingy!” cursed Jaime but kept following Chu Mie. One demonic beast core has a price of one spiritual stone which equals 100 tael of gold.

As they both walked together suddenly there was a shout, “Help me! Please help me!”

Chu Mie was grinning from ear to ear. “Money! Brat keep following me!”

“You keep calling me brat, our ages are the same little miss!” Jaime protested but Chu Mie had already jumped far away to the source of the voice. Her body was really light like a bird.

Who is that little young girl?

[Chu Mie, 14 years old, Level 19, an only successor of a small kingdom of Deserted Forest. It is a small kingdom created by five different tribes to support each other out from extinction, yet they can’t stop their kingdom from declining slowly. Kingdom of Liberty is their sworn enemy.]

Jaime scratched his head. In Dragon and Phoenix continent, there are three big kingdoms which were really powerful. They are White Lion Kingdom in the central continent, Wu Imperial in south continent, and Ice Wind Empire in North continent.

Yet there are almost one hundred small kingdoms that spread throughout the entire continent..... they are not actually kingdoms for sure. It's just that when big kingdoms appeared, small tribes began to join together and protect their own territories from being dismissed. They built a small kingdom. Small kingdoms are like a Lord of one province and they pay tribute to one of the three biggest kingdoms. As for the fight between small kingdoms, big countries usually didn't care about it. They only care when they don't pay the tribute.

“Give me one spiritual stone so I will help you kill the demonic beast,” shouted Chu Mie at one group which was fleeing from the demonic beast chase. “Do we have a deal?”

“Quickly, quickly kill the demonic beast. I will give you the spiritual stone!”

Chu Mie grinned with delight and quickly swung out her two swords. She handled the demonic beast on level 18 beautifully.

“A Niu! Quickly take the core!” Chu Mie shouted as she went to the other student to collect her money. Jaime took out his knife and got the beast core in 15 seconds.

“A Niu follow me, there is another scream. I must save them before they get hurt! I am the heroine saving the handsome!”

Jaime rolled his eyes. “You mean, quickly take the chance and the money before a teacher comes to help them!”

They did that heroine saving handsome till late at night.

At night, Jaime cooked some of the demonic beast's meat for dinner and was surprised as he glanced at Chu Mie. That girl was really a princess and her eating etiquette was so..... elegant.

She sat on the ground; raised one of her legs, used bare hands to grabbed the meat and ate like a hungry ghost. Her mouth was full yet her hand took another piece of meat and burped loudly.

"This stuff really s'good!" Chu Mie burped again.

"Ah, my eyes hurt. You really are a shame for a pretty woman." Jaime couldn't handle it again. He got the tent from his back pack and built it. Jaime entered the tent and felt comfy.

"Ahhh~~~ thanks for the food and my tent!" Chu Mie entered the tent and slept.

"Wait! Wait, whose tent do you think this is?" Jaime protested.

"My tent of course." Chu Mie grinned. "Ah, how about this is our tent, you know, our love nest."

Jaime eyes completely opened as big as a full moon. "We aren't married yet, we haven't even whispered to each other softly, or start kissing shyly. What do you think people will say if they found out we are inside the tent together, at night!" Jaime stood angrily. "What people will think about me and my virginity?"

He hastily exited the tent. “You are a crazy girl! You are beautiful like a goddess yet your attitude is like a barbarian girl!”

Jaime took out his storage pouch, and searched General Long’s items. Inside, there was a tent talisman. It was a small talisman as big as a small stone. As Jaime poured his spiritual energy into the talisman, the tent suddenly became bigger and bigger. Most high-ranking military servants have that talisman.

“Wow, it is truly good stuff.” Jaime was amazed by the stuff in the tent as well. From outside the tent it looked like a usual tent. Jaime then entered Chu Mie’s tent because he wanted to mock her. But then he saw Chu Mie crossing her legs and counting her spiritual stones and demonic beast’s cores on the floor. She was grinning nonstop and her eyes looked possessed.

Crazy girl!

Jaime was scared and chose not to bother that abnormal girl anymore. Jaime entered his own tent and quickly crossed his legs. He hadn’t counted his robbing spoils since he got them. He took out storage pouches and checked its sign. Every storage pouch had a sign of which room the stuff was taken from. One room, one storage pouch, there were thirty-six storage pouches.

Jaime grinned nonstop and his eyes looked possessed.

After fifteen days, thirty people encircle Chu Mie and Jaime.

“Chu Mie I think I let you break loose for too long already. It is time for you to give me your demonic beast’s cores.”

“Gou Jie!” Chu Mie saw a man, that moved to her. His face was full of arrogance and he thought, that the world revolved around him as the core.

“First prize for this year’s hunting demonic beast is a Golden Lion Hawk beast. That beast is mine to soar into the sky, so don’t ever think of taking it from me!” Gou Jie checked out Jaime while he spoke.

“Young master!” Jaime quickly bowed. “This lowly servant only follows Miss Chu Mie to get a little bit of money. If you throw me a little money I will quickly walk away. If you don’t throw me money, I will walk away too. See you...”

“Traitor!” shout Chu Mie to Jaime.

“Traitor with a longer life is better then dead body! Have a nice day facing thirty people; half of them are on a higher level than you!” Jaime ran away and Gou Jie’s people let him go. Since the beginning, they never put their eyes on Jaime who brought only a big backpack.

Chu Mie eyes redden. She wanted the first prize so she could go back to her kingdom quickly. Using a horse or demonic beast through land, she would need six months to reach her kingdom. Flying with a demonic beast; it will only take one week! She had been waiting for years and trained her body to the maximum without rest all for the first prize. How can she let it pass like this?

She was more than willing to die with Gou Jie then let that arrogant young master have it!

Chapter 31: Walk Over My Dead Body

Which would you choose if you had an option? Your body hurting, having a broken heart, a tooth ache, or a shattered dream? There was a saying, the worst ever torture for a human was a human chasing things that God would not allow him to have. Dreams sometimes are so powerful that they can change the future. Sometimes dreams also cause people to be in pain, hoping for something or someone they are not meant to be with.

Yet, this world never lacks in people who would like to die for their dreams.

“Gou Jie!” Chu Mie eyes reddened with anger. “Don’t you ever think because you are the successor of Gou Clan and that because our kingdom area is only one fifth of yours, that I will easily give you what you want!”

“You surely will!” Gou Jie smile broadly and moved one step closer to Chu Mie.

“Wait there, don’t move!” Chu Mie could sense thirty people also moving to block her way out. “I have fifty three demonic beast’s cores with me. If you dare to use force to take them, I will try to run and throw each of them in the forest, so you will have to search for them one by one. You know my body movement is the best at the academy.”

“Hahaha, you can run but you can’t hide from me girl!” Gou Jie smiled. “If you dare to do that, you will regret it for your whole life!”

“If you want these cores, you will have to walk over my dead body!” Chu

Mie made up her mind. She must protect these cores, it was her dream to the end. “When you kill me, Teacher will know and you will be out of the Academy!”

“No one will know you died at my hands. I have many brothers willing to take the blame, why must I be afraid of killing you?” Gou Jie smiled evilly.

Jaime hid his body in the bush and secretly checked Chu Mie’s condition. “Things will turn out ugly for sure. I have to help that little girl!” Jaime began to release his real level.

“Gou Jie!!!!” Chu Mie shouted angrily and immediately lowered her voice. She spoke in a soft mellifluous voice. “Master Gou Jie the great, if you pay me 160 spiritual stones, I am more than willing to be a dead body for you to step on for taking the demonic beasts. How is that?”

Gou Jie and his brothers became dumbstruck, Jaime too.

Gou Jie fixed his eyes on Chu Mie and laughed loudly. “I almost forgot who you were for a second. Good, good, I should have known facing a poor princess from a poor kingdom won’t be this hard. The only thing I never lacked in my life is money! Take these 200 spiritual stones, think of it as a bonus for me looking down on you and your entire kingdom.” He threw the pouch of money down casually at Chu Mie’s feet.

Chu Mie bowed, grabbed the pouch and threw the demonic beast’s cores at Gou Jie. “I accepted young master Gou Jie kindness.”

Gou Jie checked the cores and felt satisfied. “If you have any other cores, I am always willing to pay for it. Or if you have any other dreams you want to sell, I will take it too!”

“I will keep it in mind,” bowed Chu Mie.

As Gou Jie and his brothers disappeared from the sight of Chu Mie, she was still stuck in her place. She started to weep silent tears.

“You are a smart girl, when you knew you couldn’t get out from the situation, you searched for the best way out with some profit.” Jaime appeared behind her. “You are good. You did it right. Men have honor and dignity, girls need not to have them, so don’t be sad.”

“You are a man! And you have neither honor nor dignity! You are a traitor! Shame on you!” Chu Mie eyes burst into tears.

Jaime sighed. “I have honor and dignity, it just I have a bigger purpose for this life, before reaching it, I can’t die. I can’t put myself in danger nor get into a fight. I have to keep this life intact till I reach my dream, before that, I can swallow everything. I am just like an earth. Earth is stepped on, Earth is spit on, people pour shit on it and it takes everything. Yet, it is never shaken from its path. So does my heart, it can take anything and never shaken from its purpose.”

“Of course I am.” Jaime hit his chest. “You too, are a good woman, first I thought your skin is dark, so your heart will be dark too. Turns out, your heart is pure and pristine.”

“It is red stupid!” Chu Mie stomped her feet. “Why did you come back here?”

“You know, I saw you crying.” Jaime scratched his head and looked shyly. “I know it is not a good time, but can you pay me 15 taels of gold from what you have promised me of the 20 taels of gold for 20 days. I am scared that you are going to run away with my money.”

“What makes you think I am going to run away with your little money! Speak!” Chu Mie was really angry. “You look down on me too much! I am a princess! Even though I am from a poor kingdom, I will still keep my promise!”

“You know when women weep crocodile tears; men will surely suffer with losing money!”

“Are you sure we will do this?” Jaime glanced at Chu Mie face. Their faces were so close and they were hugging each other. “You know, my mentality isn’t ready yet. I am not ready to take the responsibility. My heart isn’t prepared. Please... treat me nicely.... Do it slowly.”

“Speak no more. I will take responsibility for you.” Chu Mie hastens her hug. “After this, your life will be my life. My life will be yours. I will be yours and you will be mine. No one can separate us again. You die, I die. You jump, I jump.”

“Wait, it’s hurting me. Slowly, please slowly!” Jaime was almost crying because of the pain. This is the first time he felt so much pain and so much joy at the same time. “It is so big!”

“I am going to enter it! Prepare yourself.” Chu Mie grinned widely.

“Nooo! Nooo!!! Pleasee... you will make me die!” Jaime was crying loudly. “I don’t want it! Let me go... please, I beg you. It is not that I don’t like you. It is just too fast for me, you haven’t told me that you love me and you already force me to do this stuff. I don’t mind it. It is just not the time and definitely not here.”

“Well, if it will make you happy, I am going to say it now. I love you. So there is no turning back. You are mine!” Chu Mie laughed evilly. “I am entering!”

“Argggggghhhhhh!!!!” shouted Jaime in pain. “I don’t want to die!!!!!”

Both of them jumped from the valley to the new hunting ground.

A few hours ago, Chu Mie decided to enter the area B hunting ground, so she can win the first prize. In this mountain, there are three areas for hunting. Area A, B and C. Area A is for new students around elementary and junior realms. As for area B, it is for senior realm and true human realm. Area C is for the upper elder realm. Area B has denser demonic beasts and is at a higher rank than area A.

Jaime totally refused the idea. But, Chu Mie quickly hugged him and forced him to follow her. “I need your skill in taking the core. We will only hunt low level demonic beasts. Don’t be a sissy. I will take care of you!”

Jaime was locked in by Chu Mie arms and his face was unintentionally on Chu Mie’s chest. Chu Mie tightened her hug and dragged Jaime to jump to the new hunting ground.

“You are a barbarian girl! You have no shame at all! I might get pregnant because of you!”

Jaime set a camp in the middle of the forest. “This time you have to listen to me Chu Mie! I don’t care if you are a princess or not. Since you dragged me here, I will do everything to protect myself and I will help you to take out the cores from demonic beasts you have killed.”

Jaime took out one jade bottle and showed it to Chu Mie. “Inside this bottle is the feces of a demonic beast in the patriarch realm. It is very expensive and my only inheritance from my family! I had spread it around our camp to avoid other demonic beast getting closer. This camp will be here till the end of the hunting day. You can go anywhere but have to be back here at night! Understood?!”

Chu Mie nodded her head.

“Good, I will stay here. Please just go anywhere you want and kill your demonic beasts. Just leave the carcass where you kill it. I have my ways of taking the core without your knowing.”

“Really?”

“If you don’t believe it, just take the core by yourself, it will be easier.”

“I believe!” said Chu Mie letting her tongue out. She doesn’t want to take the core by herself. Each demonic beast has their own core hidden in different places. Without proper knowledge of the demonic beast, one must check the whole demonic beast’s body to find its core. It will take time and it is not easy to cut the beast’s skin too.

As the sky darkened, Chu Mie came back to the camp. She smelled toasted meat and her stomach immediately made a sound.

“Welcome back heroine.” Jaime was sitting comfortably beside the fire. “Today you have killed six demonic beasts. Those are the cores.”

Chu Mie saw the six demonic beast’s cores and sighed. Today she only killed six demonic beasts, yet she almost got herself killed. It is not easy to find low level demonic beasts in the middle of medium level demonic beasts swarm. Today she was chased three times by medium level demonic beasts and barely escaped each time. Her skin suffered from the black and blue bruises. There were also scratches everywhere. She was exhausted beyond belief.

However, by the time she entered the camp, her skin felt like it was being nurtured by a soft and glowing energy. She started to feel rejuvenated. “Did you see that?”

“What?”

“The energy!” Chu Mie screamed joyfully. “It is surrounding me and entering my body. It is healing me!”

“Freak!” Jaime rolled his eyes. “You are just imagining things. Quickly eat and sleep. Tomorrow will be hard for you.”

“You truly didn’t see it?”

“No!” Jaime closed his eyes and tried to sleep.

Chu Mie didn’t bother with him anymore and started to eat as much as she could.

In the middle of the night Chu Mie suddenly let out a high pitched scream, shocking Jaime awake. He found Chu Mie crossing her legs beside him and started crying.

“What is happening?”

“A Niu. I just broke through junior realm!” She was crying out loud. “I am entering the early junior realm.”

“Don’t wake me for something so trivial.” Jaime yawned and went back to his sleep.

“Wait!” She held Jaime’s hand. “You don’t know how important it is to break through the Junior Realm! Usually people have to buy a breaking through pill for reaching junior realms. It cost about 1.000-1.500 spiritual stones for one pill. I was at the peak of Elementary Realm for two years, without money, I couldn’t breakthrough. Today, I suddenly broke through; you know what this means to me!? I am saving one thousand spiritual stones! Oh I can’t believe it. I’ve reached Junior Realm.”

“Whatever, I want to sleep don’t bother me.” Jaime yawned again and shooed Chu Mie away. Before Chu Mie came back, Jaime had set a formation in the camp for gathering spiritual energy and mixed it with a healing pill. As for the breaking through pill to junior realm, General Long had a lot of pills. Jaime grinded the pills and mixed it with the meat for Chu Mie. Naturally Chu Mie would have a breakthrough.

“A Niu! I am breaking through!!!!”

“Oh shut up, if you are that happy, then you can dance around the fire and sing. Do a happy dance. If you do it naked, I will watch it and be happy with you too. Maybe I will join too.”

“You are useless! You haven’t even reached elementary realm, how can you know how I feel!” Chu Mie kept talking for the whole night.

Days slowly passed and on the third day, in the middle of the night Jaime woke up. The Book of Karma gave him a shock. Jaime’s eyes started to shine brightly. In his mind, the Book of Karma gave him information that one demonic beast in the Patriarch Realm was getting closer to him.

Putting feces of a demonic beast on the Patriarch Realm could cause the low level demonic beast to run away. But it can also attract the Patriarch Realm demonic beast to fight for territory. Jaime got out from the tent and quickly flashed to the forest.

Following the information of the Book of Karma, he found an empty place in the middle of forest. “How can....?”

Without knowing how, Jaime suddenly got hit badly. His chest felt like being hit by a big boulder. His body flew to the tree and he vomited blood.

“Book of Karma what is it? Why can’t I see anything?”

[King Chameleon, Patriarch Realm, level 63. Has ability to be unseen and dissolve its skin color with the surroundings, rare demonic beast and hard to catch.]

“You are just what I really need right now.” Jaime released his real level. A wave of energy erupted and Jaime showed his real level, the Patriarch Realm. Level 65. Jaime grinned.

“Once in a while I will need to show off my power or people will laugh at me!”

Chapter 32: Legendary Beast's Core

When a man loves a woman, he is willing to do anything for her. Die for her, catch a grenade for her and yeah... hide his feelings. When a woman loves a man, she is willing to do everything for him except letting him add another woman. When a girl loves a girl, there will be a lot of tears and fluffy things. When a man loves a man, they are ready to kill whoever does the betrayal.

Love is strong if both parties hold it together, but will turn ugly if muddled with doubt. Love causes pain, and love causes happiness; but what is the real face of love—happiness, sweetness or pain?

“Love is when you give me everything and I don’t need to give you back anything. That is what people call True Love. Now who will give me true love.” Jaime smirked at the demonic beast. “I love you. So I will give you a lot of hits and you don’t need to return them. Just give me your life and I don’t need to give you anything in return.”

The beast was totally invisible, but Jaime still had a smile on his face. After absorbing spiritual energy from the war between the academy and General Long’s soldiers twenty days ago, Jaime had raised his level every day using spiritual stones. He consumed nearly one million spiritual stones to reach his current level. Were this method of cultivation made known to the public, nobody on the continent would have believed it. Consuming spiritual stones like that was a totally crazy and unthinkable method, akin to wasting money.

The unseen attack hit Jaime and the surrounding trees, hurling Jaime into the night sky.

“Chameleon beast! Do you think you are the king of this forest?” Jaime swallowed the blood in his mouth. Even though he had blocked it, the attack was just too powerful. “I’ve had your information since the first day I took a step in this place. I set a formation, a camp, and never moved out. You know what,” Jaime smirked, “all of this was preparation to catch you, the ‘Uncatchable Demonic Beast!’” He shifted his body quickly between the trees. “Your blood and bones are very expensive, of course, your core as well. With your body parts and core, people can create hidden weapons and hidden talismans. I can create a vanishing mat with your skin! I can even create an undetectable storage space!”

The Chameleon beast closely chased Jaime without knowing it had entered the trap’s zone. The beast tripped a single thread, triggering one hundred arrows to attack from every direction. The Chameleon beast was reputed to be the hardest beast to catch. Its movements are agile, it can hide its body, and its aura is undetectable.

The Chameleon lithely dodged the one hundred of arrows and started to attack with more fervor, its anger was ignited.

Jaime made his escape to one big tree and stood there waiting for the beast. He couldn’t see the beast nor feel its aura. “Good boy, keep coming and follow me to...” Immediately a sound of crushing could be heard. Behind Jaime a huge hole appeared. “Got you!”

“Your daddy worked so hard making a super big hole circling this tree, how can you escape from me! Except if you have wings, but I don’t think you do...” Checking the entire hole, Jaime realized the beast was already gone. There was nothing there anymore. Scratching his head, Jaime returned to his tent, he didn’t want to chase the beast out without any plan. “Having a big mouth once in a while sure will be good for one’s health.”

In the morning, there was a firework exploding in the sky. A sign to all disciples to assemble at the entering gate.

Chu Mie face frowned with sadness. “No matter how many times I counted them; there are only thirty-four demonic beast cores inside!”

“Be grateful with whatever you have young girl!” Jaime showed a priest’s face and gave his blessing. “You know, if you don’t feel gratitude towards little things, big things will never come to you.”

Chu Mie glanced angrily to him. “You know, I am supposed to win the first prize, with fifty cores before, and with thirty now, I would have had around eighty cores! I would be the winner!”

“Keep dreaming girl, it is free and it will only be painful when you fall or stop dreaming. So keep dreaming and you won’t get hurt.” Jaime swung a broken sword in his hand to cut the bushes. They walked through the forest.

“I only got thirty-four!”

“Oh shut up young girl, I am going crazy! Even if you keep counting them, the number won’t be added by its own. So stop it!”

“A Niu! Count them. Maybe I counted them wrong!” Chu Mie threw a pouch at him. Jaime grabbed the pouch and counted it.

“Thirty four, and none of them seem pregnant.” Jaime threw them back and started moving faster. The faster he got out, the faster he would separate from Chu Mie.

As they reached the way out, there were already two hundred disciples waiting for the counting.

Teacher Huo and Teacher Kok were busy counting each disciple's cores and wrote it on the big cloth banner. Gou Jie's name was positioned at the highest place, with 102 beast cores. The second is Hu Die with 38 beast cores and the third is Liu Ri with 36 beast cores.

“Well, your thirty-four beast cores will get you nowhere within the top three.” Jaime smirked. “It is not my concern but, can you pay me 20 taels of gold now?”

“You...you...you...” Chu Mie stared at him and her eyes burst into tears. “You really have no shame, a young pretty girl here is weeping sadly caused by injustice of this world, yet you don't show any attention to comfort her! You don't know this princess suffering day and night thinking about the condition of ten thousand of her people. How dare you show your shameless face to ask for money.”

“You also don't know this prince here also suffers a headache day and night thinking how to conquer whole universe!” Jaime protested. “And I have shame! My father didn't teach me honor but my mother made sure to teach me about shame!”

“My mother always said when I get 10 taels of silver and I think I can get 10 taels of gold, I should feel shame to myself. I should rob more than I can take. When I get something free to eat, if I eat little, I should feel ashamed of myself. I am supposed to eat more than my stomach can hold and fill all my hands and pockets before leaving. And you!” Jaime held his waist. “Don’t you ever think that your crocodile tears can soften my heart and give you a discount, I demand payment in full! Not one bronze less!”

“Shameless!” said Chu Mie.

“Pot calling the kettle black!” Jaime sneered. “Quickly give me the payment, so I can stay away from you and I don’t want to see your tears again. If you don’t pay right now I am going to take off my clothes and scream that you are raping my human rights!”

Chu Mie was annoyed and kicked Jaime buttocks. “When I finish the counting I will give your money!”

“You already counted it hundreds of times and every night! It is still thirty-four! I demand my payment now.” Jaime showed a disdainful face. “My mother taught me, hero can’t pass a beauty’s trap, women can’t pass money’s trap. Nine out of ten women won’t ever let go of their money once it enters their pockets! And never ask money when women are in a bad mood!”

“Do you think I am stupid? When the result is out and you lose, you will cry and be in a very bad mood. At that time, I have to say goodbye to my money. You will use my sympathy against me, which I have none for you. So I demand my payment now!”

Chu Mie stared at Jaime and wish she could eat him alive. “You think that you are almighty just because I owe you 20 taels of gold! You will regret it for sure! Even if you are begging me, I won’t accept you again. Here take your 20 taels of gold and return 80 taels of gold to me now!”

Chu Mie gave Jaime one spiritual stone, which equal to 100 taels of gold, “Return me 80 taels of gold now! If you can’t return it now, you have to wait until I have scrap money for you.”

“You look down on me too much girl!” Jaime sneered. “You will need to cultivate one thousand years more to mock me on the same level.” He took out one big pouch from his backpack and tossed it to Chu Mie.

“What is that?”

“80 taels of gold, equal to 8,000 taels of silver and equal to 800,000 bronze coins.” Jaime smiled evilly. “You can count 800,000 bronze coins inside that big pouch!”

“Where did you get all of these coins?”

“Once, I was a handsome and happy beggar. I collected many of them.”

“It is about 160 kilograms!” Chu Mie almost vomited blood. “How can I take it?”

“If you don’t want that scrap money, you can always give it to me.” Jaime walked away, he felt satisfied after cleaning all the bronze coins from his storage pouch. “Good luck with the first prize and take good care of your kingdom with your money.”

Chu Mie gazed at the big pouch. Even if it is bronze, the little children in her kingdom could exchange one bronze with bread. She grabbed it and walked to the counting counter and put down her beast cores.

“Thirty four demonic beasts for Chu Mie.” Teacher Huo went to write the record on cloth.

“No more?” asked Chu Mie.

“No more!”

Chu Mie stood there not wanting to move. She worked so hard for years and not even giving rest to her body all for one purpose, the first prize, a flying transportation, a Golden Lion Hawk beast. She had dreamed everyday of using the Lion Hawk to fly to her kingdom, give her father medicine, giving her people food and money so they can live better. Once she had a storage pouch, she could take more and give more.... and more...

Her tears brimmed over and fell on her cheek.

All she did was never enough to cover what she was burden with. And maybe she will never be able to, the gap was already far, farther and farthest away.

“Wait!” Teacher Kok was checking one small beast core. “Teacher Huo, please come here. What do you think about this core?”

Teacher Huo took the core and checked it, her face suddenly turned seriously. “It is impossible!”

“Do you think like what I think?” Teacher Kok’s look very serious.

“It is only a half core but I think it is!”

Chu Mie watched them excited without reason and grabbing one core like a treasure. “What it is teacher?”

“Did you get all of these demonic beast’s cores by yourself?”

“Yes.”

“Tell me where did you get this one?”

Chu Mie scratched her head. “I think it is one like the others, I got it from Hunting Ground B.”

Teacher Huo and Teacher Kok exchanged glances and concentrate on the core. “This must be that legendary core!”

Chapter 33: Don't Wake Me

If this is a dream I don't want to wake up. Please don't bother to wake me either. I am more than willing to die here, even if all of this is just an illusion. Reality and facts are good, but if it is hurting me, I don't want it.

The way you want to wake me up, by using the name of justice and truth, I don't want that either. I never hurt you and you should never hurt me too. You had already become a devil to me the moment you stuck your nose into my life. Just never bother me, or I will kill you.

Jaime grinned ear to ear. He was in heaven right now. Beautiful Teacher Huo glanced at him shyly, and spoke softly "Quickly open your clothes, I can't hold it anymore."

Jaime gulped his saliva, his adam's apple moving up and down. "All my clothes?"

Chu Mie glanced shyly to Jaime. "Totally naked, both of us, can't hold it anymore. Please do it quickly."

"Are you two serious?"

Teacher Huo's face reddened. "Don't make us repeat it, just do it. We can't hold it anymore, please, we beg you!"

"Heaven!" Jaime looked at the blue sky. "You have given me a harem!"

A few minutes ago.

“Chu Mie, do you know what is this?” asked Teacher Kok seriously.

“Just an usual demonic beast core?” Chu Mie checked the core and suddenly the core in Teacher Kok’s hand changed its color and disappears. “It is gone.”

“No, it changed its color to adapt to its surrounding.” Teacher Kok said seriously. “This is the core of a legendary beast, the King Chameleon Beast, and it’s also of the Patriarch Realm!”

“Are you kidding?” Chu Mie glimpsed at Teacher Huo and her face also appeared serious. “Okay, you are not kidding, then how much does it cost, you know, it is mine! According to the academy’s rule, the core which the disciple gets will be theirs.”

“Normal Patriarch Realm beast cores cost about ten thousand stones, but for this King Chameleon beast core, it may reach two hundred thousand spiritual stones, perhaps even more in an auction. There are a lot of rich people and kings that want this core.” Teacher Kok sighed. “This core is only half the normal, but still, its price won’t be lower than one hundred thousand spiritual stones.”

“No way!” Chu Mie said, surprised.

“Did you kill the beast?”

“I don’t know. If it’s in my pouch, then I must have killed the beast somehow. How about you describe the King Chameleon beast, maybe I’ll remember it.”

Teacher Huo answered. “Honestly, no one really knows what the beast looks like. It is invisible and very agile. No one has ever caught one before. Only a very old book dated a thousand years ago had a record of it. The book recorded that only someone of the Emperor Realm or Ancestor Realm could kill it.”

“Wait!” Chu Mie suddenly screamed in a high pitch voice. “One normal demonic beast core equates to one spiritual stone, and it usually costs about one hundred thousand spiritual stones. That means, I got one hundred thousand points for that core. So I am the first place winner of this hunting ground event!”

“Most likely.” Teacher Kok didn’t care, whoever the winner is was in no relation to them. “But, do you know where the other half is? I think this core was cut in half!”

“Another half?” Chu Mie exclaimed with a shocked expression, looking far away. “A Niu, maybe he has it. I will look for him, since he was the one taking demonic cores from all my beasts.” Chu Mie ran with all her might.

“I will go with you!” Teacher Huo followed her.

“Me too!” Teacher Kok was ready to make his move.

***

Jaime looks shy. “You two must understand, it may appear small, but with proper care it will turn really big and ... Ouchhh!!!!”

“Shameless!” Chu Mie kicked Jaime’s thing really hard.

Jaime’s face turned pale. He knelt, his hands covering his two golden balls, his face contorting in real pain. “You! You~~ You~~~”

“Cover your birdie before I go cut it and fry it!” Chu Mie faced away. “It was your mistake for really going naked!”

Chu Mie checked through Jaime’s back pack and his clothes, except one spiritual stone, Jaime owned nothing at all.

“What are you two doing? Not going to rape me? I almost...” Jaime sighed and wore his clothes slowly. What mattered most at this time was protecting his future generation.

“This core, do you remember?” Teacher Huo locked her gaze on Jaime, in her hand a half core starting to change its color. “Where did you get this one?”

“The changing color’s core!” Jaime’s eye shone brightly. “Give it back. It is mine! I got it from a demonic beast’s stomach which I cooked. That core is not Chu Mie’s it is mine. It was gone from my watch! Please give it back.”

“It is mine!” Chu Mie quickly answered. “I killed the demonic beast, so everything inside is mine!”

“It is mine! You promised the bodies were mine” protested Jaime. “If you want it, you must pay like anyone else! One spiritual stone for one core. That is half a core, so you must pay me 50 taels of gold!”

Chu Mie sneered and threw a big pouch with bronze coins inside. “Take your 500.000 bronze coins. I’ll buy that core from you!”

“I agree!” Jaime grinned ear to ear and starting to count the bronze coins one by one.

“A Niu, in the demonic beast’s stomach, was there only this half core?”

“Yeah, I already searched the whole body hoping to find the other beautiful core, but found nothing inside.”

“Where did you get it?”

“At the place where Chu Mie killed the demonic beast in the last three days.” Jaime replied, while showing a perverted face, counting every coin one by one. Looking at the Jaime’s behavior, Teacher Huo and Chu Mie exchanged a glance, as they reached one conclusion, this poor guy didn’t know at all about the core and its price. A legendary core may have been eaten by a demonic beast, falling into Jaime's hand by coincidence.

"How long you are going to count those bronze coins?" Chu Mie became impatience.

"Till I get exactly 500,000 bronze coins or you become impatient and give me all of this."

"You can have them all! But from today on, you must follow me everywhere I go!" Chu Mie didn't want Jaime away from her eyes.

Maybe that brat still keeping some other half!

Chu Mie threw her gaze to Teacher Huo, "Teacher, when entering White Lion Academy, a noble like me can bring one private servant with me. I've never had one before, this time I appointed A Niu as my private servant. Please allow him to enter the academy as a servant and study servant's course, under my academy payment!"

Teacher Huo checked Jaime. "Well, servant's course is free of charge for noble's servant. He can stay with you at your place."

Chu Mie looking so smug and proudly said. "From today on you are my private servant feel honored."

"I refuse!" Jaime quickly replied.

“Why? I am a princess of a kingdom!”

“You didn’t appear like a princess, your skin is rough, you reek of sweat, you are too masculine, and your kingdom is small and poor, while this one is still dreaming to be a servant of a pretty and beautiful princess with the smell of flowers who owns a big kingdom! So, no! Don’t think I am that low to be willing to be your servant.” Jaime stood high and hit his chest proudly. “I am still focusing my life to be the best nerd and NEET ever so please don’t bother my life!”

“What is a NEET?”

Jaime gave a smug wide smile. “Not In Education, Employment and Training Forever!”

Teacher Huo launched a sneaked attack against Jaime’s back and caused Jaime to faint. “This little guy has already walked a wrong path. If this continues, his soul will be sold to a devil. As a teacher I must take him back to the right path. He will be your servant and undergo education! Helping him is a must!”

***

Jaime had just woken up from a deep sleep as Chu Mie appeared in his eyes.

“Good, you awoke at just the right time.” Chu Mie tossed over some clothes. “Be grateful, this princess bought the best clothes for you. Quickly wear it, we must go to the auction house!”

Jaime checked the clothes and wore it. White and blue, making him look like a handsome guy. “Surely these clothes were expensive.”

“80 taels of gold, I used your bronze coins.”

“You used my money?” Jaime shocked.

“Your clothes, you wear it. Surely you must pay, just be grateful I had used my precious time to buy it for you!”

“I am not willing to be your servant!”

“Sure, you are not.” Chu Mie smiled. “I just want to help you out. You know, people who study at this academy have to pay 3.000 spiritual stones a year. And luckily I have an empty spot for servant. You can fill that spot, think of it as a goodwill gesture of mine since you already sold your half core to me. This is the housing for servants, it’s just behind my house. You can use it to your heart’s content.”

“So why must I follow you to the auction house?”

Chu Mie face’s became red. “I want to be your friend. If you think about it, I am a princess and am willing to be your friend, it’s already a great honor for you. You make me blush don’t ask me again, just follow me as a friend.”

Jaime rolled his eyes. “You’re blushing? Your skin is so dark, you can’t blush nor become red. A friend? Hmm... like I don't know what you are thinking. If I am your servant, you have to pay me monthly, as a friend, you don't need to pay me and you can ask me to pay for you! And you want me to cook for you for free!"

"Stop chit chatting! I want to buy some stuff from the auction house, follow me." Chu Mie walked out, with Jaime tailing.

Together they went to the field in front of the house where a Golden Lion Hawk beast was sleeping lazily.

"You won the first prize?"

Chu Mie smiled. "Thanks to that core."

Jaime remembered, after the King Chameleon fell into the hole and run away. He didn't chase after it. At the bottom of the hole, Jaime had put a lot of spears with a tranquilizing poison on the spear heads. When he checked, the spears were streaked with blood, and he knew that the poison had entered the King Chameleon's blood. After a few hours, using the Book of Karma, Jaime found the beast again and killed it without much problem.

"Chu Mie, have I not told you not to take my beast?" A Bunch of people suddenly encircled them quickly. There were about sixty people, at once glance Jaime felt that some of these people couldn't be made light of, their levels were about thirty to forty.

"Gou Jie! You dare to cause problem inside the academy?" Chu Mie hugged the Golden Lion Hawk beast tightly. “Da Xiu is mine! I will never give it to you.”

“Of course you will give it to me. Never in my life did I not get what I want!” Gou Jie couldn’t accept the current reality.

“If have a lot of money! Buy other Golden Lion Hawk Beast, leave Da Xiu Alone!”

Gou Jie laughed. “Yeah, I can always just buy whatever I want, but if I can’t have something, you can’t either! All of you attack her and take the beast! You can kill her without any problem. My father will take care of it.”=

Chapter 34: Thousand Treasures Pavilion

Every person hides something dark inside their heart; sometimes it is better to let it stay undisturbed and in the dark, because once it is out, nothing will remain the same. All happiness will be gone, and entire relationships will be severed. Love can turn into hate or hate can turn into love. Not many people have a wide heart, capable of accepting the ugly darkness in their hearts. If we find them, they will be worthy of being called true friends, brothers and sisters in fighting this life.

“Master Gou Jie!” Jaime bowed. “This lowly one is so happy to meet you, and won’t intervene with whatever you are going to do with this miss. Please let me out from this encirclement.”

Gou Jie sneered. “You little brat, this young master had shown you kindness the last time we met, but it seems you didn’t take it to heart. Today you will learn what it means to regret! Break all his teeth and cut his legs!”

Jaime glanced angrily at Gou Jie and shouted. “You are just a shitty human, and the lowliest kind at that. What right do you have, that you dare to touch your granddaddy here. Do you think that I don’t dare to break your legs and take all your teeth right now? I am going to rape all your wives and impregnate them in your presence! Try me if you dare!”

Chu Mie trembled from shock, unable to understand how A Niu would dare provoke Gou Jie.

“All of you! Kill him now!” Gou Jie gave the command, and sixty people made their move towards Jaime.

Immediately, the sixty of them suddenly felt a great aura burst towards them, causing them to hold their breaths, none of them daring to move. Their instincts told them something big and dangerous was preying on them, and caused their bodies to chill. It felt like as if they were facing a Patriarch Realm as an enemy.

“You have been offered with a good meal, but refused to eat it. This time you have occurred tragedy in your life. You will have all of your teeth broken and leg cut. Your parents will cry for you.” Jaime moved towards Gou Jie, slapped him softly and quickly ran to Da Xiu—the Golden Lion Hawk beast—and grabbed Chu Mie. “Da Xiu fly now, quickly they want to eat your meat!”

Gou Jie stopped for second and realized a step too late, “They are escaping! What are you people doing! Catch them now!”

All of them snapped out of their daze too late, Jaime and Chu Mie soared into the sky and left them. They couldn’t help but feel their hearts ease as they saw Jaime flying away. On their necks were slightly shallow cuts that started to bleed.

“Damn!” Gou Jie cursed. “We will find them, whatever it takes.” As he shouted, his teeth suddenly fell off one by one, his mouth full of blood. He suddenly fell, and couldn’t stand up. Both his legs were really painful, like they were broken.

Chu Mie laughed so hard. “You really have eaten a tiger’s heart! You dared to provoke Gou Jie, slapped him and escaped. He will chase you to the end of the world. The only thing I regret is you slapped him too softly”

“Not a big deal.” Jaime waved his hand. “Without provoking him, he would have killed me as well. From now on, I will slap him every time I meet that arrogant boy and quickly escape, hopefully that’ll cause him to die from anger.”

“How come they didn’t chase after us?”

“Maybe they were shocked by my daring actions.”

Both of them flew to the biggest auction house in the city, Thousand Treasures Pavilion.

“It is so big!” Chu Mie looked in awe at the front of the auction house. There are a few big pillars, a lot of stairs and luxury statues. “How can we enter it?”

“You haven’t ever come here before?” Jaime asked, a bit surprised.

“I never had the money, how could I dare step a foot in here?” Teacher Kok and Teacher Hou gave the King Chameleon beast’s core to the academy and they paid Chu Mie one hundred thousand spiritual stones.

“What makes you want to step in now?”

“I need to buy some storage pouches; I heard they can hold a lot of stuff inside.” Chu Mie checked around. “Do you know how to buy the stuff inside? The auction house is too big and too awesome.”

“I am just a lowly servant how could I... wait.” Jaime found someone and made his way to the entrance. “Brother Xu Tie, do you still remember me?”

One guard looked confused to Jaime. A young master with super expensive clothes. “I am sorry young master. May I ask who you are?”

“Ah, Brother Xu Tie, you helped me with 10 taels of silver that one time. This one hasn’t returned it yet. Please take this.”

Xu Tie still appeared confused and accepted one spiritual stone. “Isn’t this too much?”

“Don’t mention it.” Jaime laughed. “This time your little brother hugged a big tree and became a servant of a noble princess. You see that dark skinned young girl? She is a princess of a faraway country, a student of White Lion Academy. She is loaded and wants to buy some stuff at the auction house, could you help us?”

“Wait here a moment, I will be your guide through all your needs!” Xu Tie didn’t look like he remembered Jaime, but being a guide for a loaded princess; he has waiting for an opportunity like this since forever. There is a rule in the Thousand Treasure Pavilion regarding its workers: everyone who can bring a client will receive about 0.1 % of what the client spent as commission.

Xu Tie was already dying to be a guide for loaded people, he had long since learned everything required to be a perfect guide. He quickly informed his head guard to get permission for a day off.

“What happened?” The head guard asked, his voice tinged with annoyance.

“My long gone little brother suddenly appeared with his master, a princess of a kingdom. He is begging me to guide him around the auction.” Xu Tie quickly put one spiritual stone in the head guard’s hand. “Please let me off for today.”

The head guard checked the one spiritual stone and grinned ear to ear. “No problem, you are like my little brother as well. Don’t mind me just go, I will cover your back. Don’t let our little brother wait for too long.”

Xu Tie returned in his casual clothes and met Jaime and Chu Mie. “This one is called Xu Tie, I will be your trusted guide throughout the auction. Please follow me.”

Jaime exchanged glances with Chu Mie and followed Xu Tie through the entrance, and walked into the auction hall.

Xu Tie in, high spirits, explained. “There are three ways of purchasing merchandise in the pavilion: first is a direct purchase, all the merchandise on display have written prices and can be bought at a moment’s notice. Second is requesting a book containing the inventory list from the counter.”

“What is so special about the book? What is different about the book as opposed to the merchandise on display?” asked Jaime.

“Some people want to sell things that can’t be openly put on display because of some reason or another. They also don’t want to have their items in the auction and be sold at unpredictable prices. So they request that their item be sold at a fixed price. The Auction house records their items in the book.”

“The third is following the auction. This pavilion hold an auction every four days. Luckily for you, today is an auction day, and it will begin soon.” Xu Tie smiled. “So where will you start? I can guide you through the twelve display area pavilions, Weapon pavilion, armor pavilion, talisman pavilion, amulet pavilion...”

“How about we get the book first?” asked Jaime. “We can walk while reading the book.” The book with a lot of secret stuff in selling aroused Jaime interest. (/halp)

Xu Tie bowed down, “The request for the book will cost one spiritual stone. If you have ten thousand spiritual stones, you can deposit it at the counter and exchange it with a bank card, as a bonus, the book will be given for free. The bank card will record the amount of money you deposit, and can be taken back without any fee if you don’t use it.”

“Good!” Chu Mie quickly threw the big pack on his back towards Xu Tie. “You should have said that sooner, I was tired of lugging that bag around. There are one hundred thousand stones inside. Quickly exchange it for the card.”

Xu Tie was a lower level than Chu Mie, and had problems dragging the pack, yet on his face was a wide smile and a lot of beautiful dreams started flying around his head.

“0.1 % of one hundred thousand. One hundred spiritual stones commission, I can buy a house and land for my family!”

Jaime and Chu Mie were checking a display area when Xu Tie came back and gave Chu Mie one book, one bank card and one token. “This token represents one VIP room in the auction hall. People usually receive one if they deposit a minimum of one hundred thousand spiritual stones.”

Chu Mie nodded and checked the book.

Jaime didn't want to bother Chu Mie and walked around the display area. Xu Tie came to him and said, “Brother, this jade holds information about everything we sell in the auction house, including items from the display area and items from today's auction. This is exclusive information only for VIP clients.”

“Why are you giving this to me? I am just a lowly servant.”

Xu Tie shyly said, “Brother, after having been a guard for the auction entrance for many years, these eyes of mine have seen many kinds of people, both poor and rich, year after year. As for you, my brother, I think you are special. Perhaps I may be wrong, but I won't regret what I do. What I will regret, however, is what I don't do. I won't say anything to the Princess.”

Jaime laughed and checked the information inside the jade. Having money means you will have more impulses to wildly buy everything you don't need. Jaime's eyes suddenly shone brightly.

There were some talismans for calling rain, a talisman for deep water, talisman for gathering spiritual energy, natural energy and so on.

"Brother Xu Tie, come here." Jaime whispered to him. "The bank card, where can it be used?"

"The bank card issued by the Thousand Treasure Pavilion can be used in all auction houses in twenty four cities, and can also be used to do transaction with the lord of every city inside White Lion Kingdom."

"How about the safety of personal secrets?" Jaime smirked.

"Brother, in the auction house, we protect our clients carefully. We don't ask where the money is from, and we will protect anyone in possession of a bank card, even the king wouldn't dare to ask about in the auction house."

"Good, good, good, lucky for you I have things I would like to buy." Jaime took out one storage pouch. "Don't tell the princess or I will demand the 0.1 % that is your commission."

"No, no, no I will keep everything a secret." Xu Tie hastily took the storage pouch to the counter. Proudly, he said the girl on counter. "This storage pouch is my brother's, take care about it."

The girl showed no interest, she had seen all kinds of rich people. Not to say the brother of a lowly person with perverted eyes who only thinks of how to take her to the bed. Suddenly she screamed after checking the storage pouch.

“What happened?”

“Is it really your brother’s storage pouch?”

Xu Tie hit his chest proudly. “Of course, he is my real brother.”

“He’s the same type of lowly human like you. Tell him our auction house doesn’t accept scrap metal! Silver and gold are not allowed, spiritual stones only. Return to your brother and tell him we can’t issue him a bank card!”

Xu Tie frowned and returned back to Jaime. “Brother, you put me to shame, inside the storage pouch is only silver and gold. The auction house can’t give you the bank card.”

“That’s the only money I have.”

Xu Tie could only smile, a look of disappointment on his face.

“Wait, I have the other scrap money, you can try it this time.” Jaime threw another storage pouch.

Xu Tie bowed and took the storage pouch to the counter.

“You again. I have no time for you.” The counter girl said in unpleasant tone.

“Me too, I don’t have time for you too, just process this client’s storage pouch or I will report to the manager that you didn’t want to process a client’s space storage pouch.”

“After this one, please disappear from my face, and kick your brother out!”

Xu Tie said nothing and let the girl check the storage pouch.

“Kyaaaaa!” The girl screamed again.

“What is it this time?”

Chapter 35: Married in a Second

To see a world in a grain of sand
And a heaven in a wild flower
Hold infinity in the palm of your hand
And eternity in an hour
– William Blake ( 1757-1827 )

To see my world in your breasts
And a heaven in your innocent flower
Hold infinite babies in your womb
And eternity in my love for you
– Xu Tie to his future wife

The counter girl sighed. “Xu Tie, how long have you worked here for, and how long has it been since you started chasing me with your perverted eyes, impolite mouth, and rude behavior?”

Xu Tie scratched his head unable to understand what is going on. “I have worked here for seven years, and you came about three years ago.

Since that time, I started to love you till now.”

“This storage pouch, is it really your brother’s?”

“Of course! Once he acknowledged me as a brother, how could I deny it. Tell me what’s inside?” Xu Tie didn’t have enough cultivation to check things inside space storage pouch.

The counter girl looked sorrowful and dejected. “Xu Tie, you know. I kind of like you. But from now on, get away from my face and never come back again, I don’t want to see you anymore.”

Xu Tie face turned white “What is inside the storage pouch? How could it cause you to hate me?”

“It is no matter what is inside. You said you love me, but I am sorry. Just go away!” The girl turned her face around because she didn’t want to see Xu Tie anymore.

Xu Tie grabbed the storage pouch and walked away slowly.

Damn that fake brother, what he put inside the storage pouch! Damn that brother!

“Just.... that’s it?” A disbelief sound roared. “I can’t believe it!”

Xu Tie surprised and turn his face to the counter girl. “What!?”

“You say you love me, and you walked away after the first dejection? You truly make me disappointed.” The counter girl sneered. “It appears your love for me is only so tiny! Can’t even hold one dejection.”

Xu Tie wanted to cry. “Girl! You gave me the cold shoulder for three years! You refused me every time I tried to be close to you! Just tell me what do you want; I am going to be crazy because of you!”

“I was just testing you!” The counter girl shouted back.

Xu Tie became dumbstruck.

“You always want to peek inside my body and pull me to bed! No one in this world will let you do it before marriage! You are pig, dumbass, stupid, and a moron!”

“What do you mean?” Xu Tie felt like he is walking on the cloud and uncertain that will he fall or be taken to heaven.

“Dumbass, if you want me, you have to marry me! Do you understand it now?” The counter girl spoke softly and shyly.

“Really?”

The counter girl nodded shyly.

“I want to marry you.” Xu Tie grabbed her hand. “Please let me marry you!”

“Good.” The girl smiled widely and gave one paper to Xu Tie. “Fill it out, so you will be my husband and I will be your wife.”

“So soon?” Xu Tie checked the marriage papers, it was like the papers had been prepared by the counter girl for a long time.

“Don’t want it? Give it back!” The girl moved her hand, wanted to take back the paper!

“No, no, I’ll sign it, real fast.” As Xu Tie signed the paper, the girl grinned ear to ear.

“Good, give me your brother storage pouch, I will help him this time, because he is your brother, no, he is my brother-in-law.”

“Thanks to you my...” Xu Tie face turned red. “Wife...”

“I will put him as a VIP customer of the auction house. Being a VIP he will receive many advantages from the auction house and the top of it all, as his guide, you will earn commission from the VIP customer; not 0.1 % but 1 %.” The girl smiled real wide to Xu Tie and it drove him to heaven.

That pretty girl is my wife, I don’t know if I am still dreaming or this is reality.

“You know my husband, we have married, so your money will be my money, and my money will be my money too.”

Xu Tie nodded although he felt a little lost at the last sentence.

“This is his bank card and VIP token for auction private room, go serve him the best you can and make sure he uses everything on the card and earn a little commission for our family.”

“What about the empty storage pouch?” asked Xu Tie, he must return it to his brother.

“Just tell our brother-in-law, I will accept it as our wedding gift.”

Xu Tie was stunned for a while, one storage pouch had a priced about ten thousand spiritual stones, the number he never dare to believe and his wife just robbing it! Yet he didn't dare to say no to his wife.

“My wife.” Xu Tie held the bank card. “May I know how much is inside the bank card?”

“Oh, it is not much, just two millions of spiritual stones.” The counter girl smiled. “With 1% commission it will be about 20.000 spirituals stone. So work hard for me.”

Xu Tie gave the bank card and told Jaime with confusion in his face. “Brother, inside the bank card is two million spiritual stones. As for the empty storage pouch...” Xu Tie hesitated for a while. “You know I just got married a few minutes ago...”

“Really?” Jaime seemed surprised. “With the pretty counter girl?”

Xu Tie and Jaime looked at the counter and Xu Tie’s wife wave her hand to them.

“Yeah. Although, I don’t really understand if I just got married or was robbed.”

“Well, good for you brother. I have to give you a wedding gift.”

“Brother, my wife took a liking with your storage pouch...”

“Oh, please let her have it. I should give you something too.” Jaime took one more storage pouch and gave it to Xu Tie. “Please this is not much, inside the storage are some pills to help your cultivation and some spiritual stones. Next time you will be a dragon among man and make this brother of your to feel proud.”

Xu Tie burst in tears and hugged Jaime real tight. “Brother, I have never had a brother in this life. You will be my big brother, my life and my family life is for you. I will be loyal to you till I die!”

“Don’t say something like that! We are brothers.” Jaime smiled softly and inside his heart he was screaming with joy. Having money was easy with the help of the Book of Karma, but having one loyal servant to die for you was hard. The storage pouch, he can make it with his closed eyes without any problem.

Jaime eventually bought a complete set of high-grade armor. For him, protection was the most important; he didn't buy weapons, since he doesn't like to kill or hurt people. He also bought Boots of Wings which will help him run faster from his enemy. Deep water talismans which may help him to hold his breath under water and hide from his enemy. An amulet of the five elements, which function was to protect him from fire, thunder and others elements.

Jaime also bought a set of farming talisman. There were five balls and each ball could help call rain, to move the earth, killing insects, and help the plants grow stronger. He understood that when he wants to conquer the world, he will need a lot of troops and they need to eat. Having items for farming was a basic need. So he bought many more sets. He also bought a lot of other stuff which he thought he must have.

“Dear costumers, the doors to the auction hall have been opened, please take your seat and the auction will soon begin.” One beautiful girl announced the information to everyone.

Jaime had something he wanted to buy from an auction and made his way to the hall. He met Chu Mie and Xu Tie near the hall.

“Going to the Auction Hall?” asked Jaime to Chu Mie.

“I don't have anything I need from the auction hall, so I pass,” said Chu Mie holding his bank card. She bought five storage pouches from the auction house and was thinking to fill it with food, clothes and medicine from the market.

“Princess of Deserted Forest!” Five young men with black clothes walked to Chu Mie. “Never knew we would find you here!”

“Kingdom of Liberty!” Chu Mie’s eyes shone with anger for a second and took off her sword. She moved fast to attack the men in black. The men in black smirked and showed neither fear nor movement to protect themselves.

An old man from nowhere flashed to Chu Mie and grabbed her sword. “Little Miss, it is prohibited to attack customers inside the Thousand Treasure Pavilion, if you want to kill someone or cause commotion, please do it outside or I won’t be polite. Please leave if you don’t have anything to do anymore.”

Facing an old man on Elder Realm, Chu Mie moved back. “Let’s leave, I have nothing to do here anymore. I don’t want to breathe the same air with those filthy.”

One man in black giggled. “For your information, your kingdom will be sold in auction in few minutes. Don’t you want to know who will have your kingdom?” They entered the hall and let Chu Mie’s body trembled in shock.

Chu Mie rushed to the hall and stopped by guard. “Show me your token before you enter!”

Jaime held Chu Mie’s hand. “Easy girl, if you keep doing recklessly things, you won’t be able to stay here for long. Take a deep breath. We will handle this together, okay?”

Xu Tie showed a VIP token to the guard and they quickly bowed. “We are sorry for being rude, please go inside.”

Xu Tie leads Chu Mie and Jaime to VIP room, Chu Mie's room. It was like a VIP box in an opera house. From their place they can see the auction podium at the center and a lot of rooms encircle the podium. Some people also sat around the podium.

One pretty girl gave a short brief speech before starting the auction. Soon, one by one item that offered being sold, Jaime didn't put any attention since none of them interested him.

"Map of heaven!" The girl shouted for the next item. "This map is one of the legendary treasures. Thousands of years ago this map was used by an Emperor of the Dragon and Phoenix continent. This map was locked by an ancient formation and not many people knew how to open it. For all formation masters, this will be a good challenge. The starting price will be ten thousand spiritual stones."

"Fifty thousand."

"Eighty thousand."

"One hundred thousand."

"Two hundred thousand."

The price was rising quickly.

"Five hundred thousand!" A voice roared from a VIP room causing all of the audience to become silent. Jaime and Chu Mie also exchanged a glance.

“Seems like there is a truly rich person over there,” said Chu Mie.

After that, no one raised the price anymore, it was not worth to waste five hundred thousand spiritual stones, for something they did not know how to use.

“Next Item,” said a pretty girl on podium. “A sword of Mother Earth.”

Chu Mie stood hastily and ran to the balcony. She stood there, a look of horrified disbelief on her face.

The auction girl shouted loudly, “This is the sword from Kingdom of Deserted Forest. For whoever has this sword will inherit the Kingdom of Deserted Forest. All tribes of the kingdom will show respect and obedience to the people who have this sword!”

Chu Mie stared at Jaime in disbelief. “Impossible! That is our Kingdom’s treasure, my father’s weapon and throne of our kingdom. How come it is here!” Chu Mie’s eyes searched for the people in black in the audience. One of them looked back at Chu Mie and sent a transmission voice.

“Your kingdom does not exist anymore and your father has already died a long time ago! You can find all of your families, friends and your people on the slave market!”

Chapter 36: Kuang Li Yin

Born under blue sky

I take none

But my skin color

Black

Sow seed on earth,

Burn under sunlight

Lead honest life

Dream of reaching heaven in peace

Brothers of same red blood

Put hurdles along my way

Brothers of same heart

Took my father and mother away

Heaven asked me
To be priest or to be devil
I choose to be love
I choose for forgiveness

Live as a sweet inspiration
Die to save innocent life
Meet my Maker
With cleanest heart

– Chu Mie

“What the f**k! No way am I going to forgive them.” Chu Mie was furious. “I am going to torture them, kill them and their family. I am going to rape them! Revenge is the sweetest thing in this life!”

“Chu Mie, don’t follow the dark path! Please awake and follow the light path!” Jaime held her hand. “You can rape me any time you want! I won’t resist.”

“Keep dreaming!”

“The price is starting at ten thousand spiritual stones. Who wants to buy it!”

“Don’t buy it!” Chu Mie raised her voice. She must take back her kingdom’s throne, whatever it takes. “People of White Eagle City! The Kingdom of Deserted Forest is very far away from here, with land transportation, one must take at least a half years travel time. That place is so poor and has nothing valuable, simply won’t be profitable to all of you! That sword is my family’s treasure. It supposed to be mine but people from the kingdom of Liberty stole it by force, by sword and by blood! Don’t dirty your hands with that bloody thing.”

People begin to talk among themselves, because for them the inheritance of a faraway kingdom won’t be profitable.

“Come on, anyone want to buy this sword?” asked the auction girl try to calm the audiences.

People in black quickly stood. “People, I admit the kingdom of faraway is not profitable, but this sword is a treasure by itself. Its name is Sword of Mother Earth. The sword gives extra protection to the holder body and when the sword stabs to the earth, it will draw Earth Essence to restore the holder’s health slowly.”

Jaime drooled to buy that sword and Chu Mie glanced to him angrily.

“Twenty thousand.”

“Thirty thousand!”

“Fifty thousand!” shouted Chu Mie. She knew the selling was unstoppable. People were always driven by greed.

“Sixty thousand!”

Chu Mie hands trembled and tears fell. “I can’t accept it, my kingdom ripped by human greed!”

Jaime glanced at the Chu Mie and spoke softly, “Can I join the auction? I also want to get a share of your kingdom!”

“One hundred thousand spiritual stones!” Chu Mie yelled.

The beauty on the podium glanced at paper on her hand and made apologies. “Miss in the VIP room number 14, your bank card doesn’t have that much money. Please go to counter and update the nominal to follow the auction. The price back to sixty thousand, please, who wants it.”

“Seventy thousand!”

“One hundred thousand stones!” shouted voice from VIP box.

“One hundred ten thousand stones!” shouted the other.

“Two hundred thousand stones!” Voice from VIP box shocked the others again.

Another VIP box also shouted in a displeased voice. “Two hundred and fifty thousand stones.”

“Five hundred thousand stones!” The voice from an earlier VIP box replied causing everyone to be dumbstruck, it seemed like the VIP box person had a lot of money to throw.

“Five hundred thousand stones going once,” The beauty aroused others to bid again but no one dared. “Five hundred thousand stones going twice. Five hundred thousand stones thrice. Sold to the VIP box.”

The people in black jumped happily.

Chu Mie cried and rushed out from the VIP room. Jaime hastily tailed her. “Where do you want to go?”

“I have to go back to my kingdom, I wanted to see what happened to them.”

“Okay, good luck and have a nice trip.” Jaime replied happily. “Ah, you only have five empty storage pouches and if you want to buy foods, medicine and whatsoever, Brother Xu Tie would be more than willing to take you to the market and help you buy everything you need. If you are in hurry please just go!”

“I need food for my long journey! Where is Xu Tie”

Xu Tie appeared from nowhere, he secretly gave a sign to Jaime and followed Chu Mie quickly.

Jaime returned to the VIP room, he was waiting for the last item of the auction. The sacred and cheap item with high profit but never sold in the last two years.

The auction girl started, “Well, like all of us know, the City Lord believes in us and gave us the honor of selling the big place at the northeast of the city, a general Kuang’s resident. And like all of us know, a hundred years ago, general Kuang was the best general of White Lion Kingdom. He liberated this city from the Kingdom of Barbarian or Witch, I am sure all of us had forgotten its name. General Kuang killed the king and stayed their palace, making it his residence.”

“Like all people of White Eagle City knew, the General Kuang faced a lot of unfortunate accident after that. His wives died one by one, followed by his sons and daughters, and then all his soldiers and servants. Even animals around the place died, leaving only his granddaughter.”

The auction girl let one little girl with black clothes and black veil walk to the podium.

“This is Kuang Li Yin, the last generation of Kuang’s bloodline. Following the promise made by the King and the deceased General Kuang, his residence and his legacy will stay with the blood of Kuang. Only after the generation is gone, then the residence and his entire legacy will return to the king.”

“Whoever can provide Miss Kuang Li Yin with proper care and pay the debt of over twenty years of taxes to the City Lord, can have General Kuang legacy, which is a land about twenty-five kilometers wide and through a high mountain, where virgin land and forest lay.”

“How much it is?” asked one audience.

“Five hundred thousand spiritual stones for the owed taxes, that is all! No need to bid, just pay it and take it.”

One bald guy quickly raised his hand. “I’ll take it!”

Kuang Li Yin sat silently, like everything happened didn’t have connection to her.

“Good, seems like today we will have a buyer!” The auction girl happily announced yet she suddenly said. “Dear Sir, I checked that your bank card didn’t have enough nominal will you update it to the counter?”

“My servant will update it right now, I am the riches merchant from the Capital City, never lack of money, only land I don’t have at this city right now!” The bald guy laughed hard. “Servant takes my money from the caravan!”

One servant hurried along the corridor and went out.

Some audience started talking to each other. “Oh, I’m shocked when I hear there is a person who dares to buy Kuang’s legacy and take care Kuang Li Yin. It appears he is not from this city.”

“There will be a good show today.”

Not a few minutes pass, the servant came back with pale face. “Sir, Sir, Sir, our caravan’s gone.”

“What? How can that happen?” The bald guy shocked. “All my money is inside the caravan!” His breathing became heavy and grabbed his heart. His body fell and trembled wildly.

“Quickly help my master!” The servant tried to hold his master.

Some people hurried to help but it was too late. The bald guy died by heart attack.

“The Kuang family’s jinx seems to be growing more powerful day by day.” Most of the audience didn’t look shocked, they seemed like they already predicted the this bad thing would happen.

Jaime checked Kuang Li Yin status with the Book of Karma.

[Kuang Li Yin, 12 years old. The only successor of General Kuang’s bloodline. As General Kuang destroyed the Kingdom of White Cloud in white kingdom civil war, thousands of people including witches—in hate, angry, sadness, agony and ravening for revenge—sacrificed their soul to create the worst curse, to clean up General Kuang’s bloodline. Everyone who shows kindness to his bloodline or want to protect them will die miserably by the curse. As the last bloodline of Kuang’s family, Kuang Li Yin will die by the curse at age of 14, the minimum limit of age that allowed by universe's law for the curse to be worked effectively.]

Jaime shook his head, with this curse, Kuang Li Yin automatically became the worst human jinx alive. Everyone near her will suffer a lot of bad things.

“Brother in law!” The counter girl walked to the room and bowed politely. “I am Su An, wife of Xu Tie.”

“I know, Xu Tie told me, congratulation for a very fast marriage.” Jaime laughed.

“Please don't mention it. Nowadays, women must strike fast when they see a chance or they will regret it forever.” Su An laughed sly too. “Just too many hungry female wolves hunting for a scarce good man nowadays. Hard competition.”

“I agree too.” Jaime nodded. “I wished my mother stuck fast like you too, after my father died. Sadly she didn't.”

“What happened to her?”

“She wanted to be loyal to my father even after he died.”

“She was truly a good woman.”

“Yeah, she didn't strike but one guy appeared and struck her first. She ran away with him on the second day of my father death.”

“I am sorry,” said Su An.

“Why? They lived happily ever after and have ten more children. I am happy for her. What makes you come here?”

Su An gave a bank card and two items. “Following Xu Tie’s instruction, I already deducted the money for the payment of brother-in-law’s items.”

“What about the five people in black from the Kingdom of Liberty?”

Jaime smirked, “Where did they go?”

Su An bowed. “I am sorry it is our auction house rules not to tell about our customer. So I don’t know where they went. But as Xu Tie order me, I have given them an item that brother-in-law asked.”

“Good work!” Jaime quickly made his way out. Outside the Thousand Treasure Pavilion, Jaime jumped to one top building, seized one small jade ball and it initiated a small wave in one direction. “Good searching talisman, worth the money.”

Without covering his level any more, Jaime released his Patriarch Realm Aura and jumped into the air. He used all of his might to advance to that direction using the Walk of Wind. His body simply flew away through the air and skyrocket in to the blue sky. Not waiting too long, he had flown outside the city wall and chased the five people in black clothes riding their demonic beasts.

“Where do you want to go after taking my money?” Jaime smirked. Between the five of them, the highest cultivation was only in the Elder Realm at most, truly nothing to fear about them.

It feels like robbing a group of five years old babies.

Chapter 37: Curse for Money

---

To Infinity I reach my hand
Wishing a drop of happiness
Hungry soul meets tired heart
To where I lay my eyes

Severely broken by life
Slavery by will and emotion
Trapping in eternity of tears
To where I present my heart

Oh Almighty God
When this lonely soul will be free
When tired legs are allowed to rest
To where I slumber my breath

This life I don't want
This soul I don't need
This heart I return it to You

Just take me to where I born
Before the eternity and infinity embark
When I was still one with You

-Kuang Li Yin, tired of living

Kuang Li Yin was sitting on the stairs, looking at the street. No one care about her, no one needed her, and everyone was disgusted with her. Wishing for her to die, so she may stop bringing the jinx to her surroundings.

I am hungry...

A young man about 14-15 years old made his way to her.

Stay away from me or you will die...

“Are you hungry? Take this bread.” The young man gave bread to her.

Useless act...

A wild dog suddenly rushed out and bites the bread in the young man's hand. The young man stared in disbelief at the wild dog and cursed. “Damn, I didn't give that bread to you.”

He took out one more bread and gave it to Li Yin.

A wild flying demonic beast, as big as lamb, suddenly speedily dove down from high in the sky and grabbed the bread. Kuang Li Yin smiled sadly and touched her stomach. She was only able to eat food from the garbage and road. When she walked to restaurants, even only for begging or searching their waste, the restaurants burned. When she entered an inn, the inn collapsed. When she sat at a food stall, the owner got a heart's attack. No one allowed her to walk near them.

“Damn this curse, do you think that silly thing can stop this future king of the three realms!” The young man shouted angrily. “If I can't give food to this girl, how can I kill the gods and trample the demons! Never look down on me! Just a thousand souls' curse, F**k. I am going to kill millions and billions of souls to unite the universe under my foot. I want to see what will happen at that time!”

Crazy young man...

The young man's body shone for second and Li Yin felt something changed with her body. The young man smirked happily. "Now, you can eat everything you want, tell me what you want to eat! This handsome daddy is paying!"

Go away...

"You are twelve years old but your body is so small like a 8-9 years old girl. I'm sure you were not eating healthy. Come, come to this old man." The young man showed his perverted face and grabbed Li Yin's hand. Hungry and with lost power, Li Yin couldn't resist and was easily dragged by the young man to one of the nearest restaurant. "Ahhh, your body is so small and light! You must eat a lot this time."

You will die by a jinx, let me go!

Entering the restaurant, people inside the restaurant saw Li Yin coming and screamed in panic. In a hurry all of them quickly ran out leaving their food. Children were crying and adult rushed out without caring about anything in front. Some people hurried jumped out from the windows and stairs.

"Young master!" The manager of the restaurant hurried came to stop Li Yin. "Please don't bring this little jinx inside my restaurant. It will cause trouble, please I am begging you. My ancestor restaurant will collapse."

The young man sneered and took out a bank card. "Inside this bank card there is enough money to pay for your entire restaurant hundred times. I am paying for all the food that people left behind. If people wanted to eat with me, I am paying all they eat. Even if your restaurant collapses; I still have enough money to pay you twenty times its worth. So I hope your restaurant collapses now. Quickly bring out the best food of this restaurant.”

The manager raised his head and commanded his entire chef to bring out the best food. He didn't care about his ancestor restaurant anymore. He suddenly felt his restaurant needed a modern touch and a bigger kitchen.

I hope this restaurant quickly collapses now.

Both Li Yin and the young man sat in the middle of the restaurant. The food was served in high-speed and their table were full in minutes. “Little girl, my name is Jaime, once I was just an orphan and fought with hunger and cold every day and night. You are an orphan too, it makes me your big brother and you are my little sister. So go on and eat till your stomach hurts.”

Li Yin eyes had turned so big and her mouth started drooling. Her surviving instinct forcefully took control of her body, her two hands grabbed food on the table and put into her mouth.

“Hey, hey, eat slowly, no one will take it from you! You will choke...”

Li Yin did choke and her face turned pale.

“See what I told you!” Jaime hit her back and used his inner energy to forcefully push down the food to her stomach. “Eat slowly girl! You are not getting bad luck for at least one month ahead, I cleared one or two months of the curse for you. Drink the soup slowly.”

After drinking the soup, Li Yin’s eyes filled with tears stared at Jaime. “You promise there will be no bad luck?”

Please tell me, I am free, even it’s just a lie...

“Yeah for one month or two months at best. Eat slowly, I will prepare a take away for you.” Jaime winked at Li Yin. “It will be enough for you to eat for one month.” Jaime hit the table and called the manager.

“Yes, what can I do for you?” The manager hurried came. Just now, he was picking an axe, thinking to hit one of the restaurant’s pillar.

“I see no one willing to join us to eat; I want you to fill all tables here with the best food you can serve. I will take it all and pay for it all.” Jaime threw five spiritual stones at the manager.

The manager grinned ear to ear and bowed deeply. “We will empty our kitchen right now!” For him five spiritual stones equaled to five kilograms of gold or 500 taels of gold. It was more than enough to buy all the food in the kitchen and even more. The chef and servants rushed to the kitchen and prepared the food. In a few minutes all kind of foods fill the empty tables. Goat meat, roasted chicken, demonic beast meat and much more.

“I can’t eat all of this food.” Li Yin glanced towards the tables.

“Don’t worry, your big brother will show you magic.” Jaime used one storage pouch to collect all of the food from table to table. “Inside this pouch, all the food will stay fresh.”

“But I didn’t eat enough.” Li Yin sadly saw her empty table.

“This storage pouch is for you.” Jaime gave the storage pouch. “I will teach you how to open the pouch even without cultivation.” He touched Li Yi’s middle eyes brow and transferred the information. “Now try it.” He gave the space storage pouch and one spiritual stone.

Li Yin held the storage pouch and the spiritual stone on the left hand. As she tried to concentrate, the spiritual energy from the spiritual stone channeled to the space storage pouch and gave her mind a view inside the storage pouch. She could see every food inside and moved her right hand to grab which one she likes.

“I can take it out!” Li Yin happily announced as one butter chicken appeared at her hand.

“Now, will you eat slowly? No one will steal your food anymore.”

Li Yin shakes her head. “Now people will think of how to steal my storage pouch!”

Jaime laughed, “You are smart. Put your left hand on the table; I will make a space storage which no one will be able to steal from you.”

Li Yin let her small hand out. Jaime took out one jade porcelain and silver needle. “Inside of the storage pouch there is a drawing of a complicated formation. When the formation touches spiritual energy, it will open a storage space. I will draw the formation on the back of your hand, I mean tattoo it. This will be hurt a little, are you scared?”

“No.” Li Yin added. “Can I eat the chicken while you are working?”

“Good girl, just do what you like.”

Li Yin smiled and hurried ate.

Jaime used the silver needle with black ink from the jade porcelain to tattoo Li Yin back hand. “This ink is made by the King Chameleon’s blood and core. The black color will change to your skin’s color; no one will be able to detect it.” He worked slowly and gracefully.

Finished with the formation, the black ink formation immediately change its color and seemed to disappear. Jaime touched Li Yin’s middle eyes brow again. “I give you the Phoenix cultivation. Go cultivate it when you have time. With help of one spiritual stone, you should be able to reach early Elementary Realm. Once you reach that realm, you can easily access your storage space without a spiritual stone needed.”

“Take these spiritual stones and pills for reaching the Junior Realm, Senior Realm and True Human Realms. Remember, that curse of your is just a piece of shit, an enemy of you. You must grow stronger and beat your enemy. After that you can use it for your advantage!”

“Really?” Kuang Li Yin’s eyes locked on Jaime, wishing for hope.

“I will tell you, the most kindest creatures are not angels, but humans. Because humans can sacrifice themselves to help their loved ones. Angels can’t sacrifice themselves without God’s commands. The worst creatures are not devils, but humans. Because humans are willing to die with their enemy, even with their souls as payment. Devils won’t ever be that reckless, they are selfish to the core.”

“Your curse is not so bad. When you are strong enough, you can use it as your weapon to rob or threaten even the king of a country. Think positive, you are a jinx bringer. You can get a lot of money with it!” Jaime laughed thinking to take Kuang Li Yin to war, both sides would surely pay everything to let her get out from the war or she would cause destruction to their side. “Your curse, is not incurable. I had exchanged some of my spiritual energies to stop your curse for one month or two month at best. Use this time to reach the Senior Realm or True Human Realm. After that, when you like to eat, you can steal from everyone you like. The curse won’t be able to do much to you! Instead it will protect you from them.”

“Your curse will only kill you when you reach 14 years old. It is because the curse binds by the law not to kill children, before that we will find a solution to purify the curse.”

“Can it be cured?”

“Yes, with some purified formation.” Jaime sighed. “But your cultivation is needed to be at least Elder Realm or Patriarch Realm to handle the painful purifying process.”

“Why do you help me?” asked Kuang Li Yin suddenly.

“Because you.... I am your big brother.” Jaime smiled warmly. “And I am a man sent by God to spread love to this universe.”

Kuang Li Yin stared at Jaime, she wasn't satisfied with the answer. “Will you sell me to some perverted old man?”

“Maybe,” Jaime raised his shoulder. “If you are worth money, but with your skinny body, I think even a pedophile won't take a glance. You are totally too ugly!”

“I thought you were falling for me!” Li Yin cross her arms and leaned on the back of the chair. She lapsed into a sullen silence.

Jaime laughed hard. “You, little brat, are moving too fast!”

“...” Li Yin said nothing and looked to another place.

Jaime sighed. “The truth is, you made me remember my past. I didn't have parents and lived in the street since I was five. Hungry and cold was my best friend. Till one day, a girl came to my life and gave me a warm food and a comfy place to stay.”

“Who is she?” asked Li Yin quickly.

“Her name is Ye Xiu, she is an angel and your sister-in-law. My wife, one and the only one.” Jaime smiled.

“Where is she? Can I meet her?” Li Yin seem happy.

“She is somewhere where my hand can’t reach, but God already promised me if I conquer three realms in 100 years, God will allow me to meet her.” Jaime’s eyes became teary.

Ye Xiu, where are you?

“Are you okay?”

“Well, you will meet your sister-in-law soon, she is the kindness person you will ever meet. And she will be happy to meet you too.” Jaime wiped his eyes and looked around. “Manager, the tables are already empty, where is the food!”

“Yes! Yes!” said the manager in a hurryd. Just now he was busying destroying one pillar of the restaurant.

After storing more food which was enough for two months for Li Yin, they went back to the Treasure Thousand Pavilion. Nothing happen to the restaurant, which caused the owner to be sad.

“Where will you go?” asked Li Yin sullen.

“This big brother of yours is taking a kingdom, to make it as my second troops, to conquer this continent.”

“Will you come back?”

“I will try to come back in one month or two at most. Please take care of yourself.”

“Big brother!” Xu Tie speedy ran to Jaime. “We were looking for you, where have you been?”

“Why were you looking for me?”

“The princess needs you.” Xu Tie glanced at Kuang Li Yin shocked, he quickly moved back and fell hardly. “Li Yin!”

“Brother Xu Tie, she is your new little sister.” Jaime took him to one corner and whispered. “She is okay for now, you can get close to her and help her. I did something to her curse.”

“Big brother, you could clean Li Yin’s curse! You are simply a god!” Xu Tie mouth opened in awe.

“It is only for one or two month at best. After one month you must totally ignore her. Her curse will be back. Brother, take this storage pouch and bank card, inside there are still one million, I want you and your wife to secretly buy General Kuang’s resident.”

“Are you sure?” asked Xu tie in shock.

“Absolutely!”

“A Niu! I am looking for you, quickly come with me.” Chu Mie dove from sky with her beast. She held Jaime’s hand and pulled it into Golden Lion Hawk Beast.

“Where will you take me?”

“My kingdom! We must hurry.”

“Why do I have to follow you?”

“You are my friend, don’t you think friends must help each other when in need?”

Jaime looked at Xu Tie and Kuang Li Yin. “I will soon return, Brother Xu Tie will help you in one month, after that, you must take care of yourself, I will return at the time.”

Kuang Li Yin burst in tears and nodded, “I will wait for you. Please return quickly!”

Princess Chu Mie quickly raised the beast into the sky and they flew away from the city wall.

“Please wait!” said Jaime outside the city wall. “Don’t you think those are the five guys from the Kingdom of Liberty? Your lovely enemy?”

Chu Mie looked at Jaime pointed place, there were five people naked and tightly bond on a tree with rope.

Chapter 38: Fated One

To glory you live
To war you die
For country you live
For loved one you die

Two people dive into war
Crushing each dream to live dream
Kill a father to save a son
Take one soul to live a soul

We are living in hell
Burning everything we touch
Thinking we are making heaven
For loved one to sleep in peace

When this war will end
When love will bear fruit
When heaven come to the earth
Will I stay alive to see that time...

-People of Deserted Kingdom

“Hold the gate! We will survive today!” A Captain, dragging his broken leg and let his blood spill along the road, his hands forcefully brought a boulder to hold the shaking gate. “Don’t lose your spirit before you lose your life! Keep moving, don’t let fear consume you! Consume your fear and kill your enemy!”

One little young man with tattered armor was crying miserably, with an arrow penetrated through his legs from the front to the back. The Captain grabbed his clothes and dragged him back to the wall. “Rise my son, you are my only son. Go to the war, and die with dignity! When this gate breaks, your wife, your mother and your sister will be raped and killed. Don’t let that one tiny arrow stop you! Take a bow and arrow, keep shooting to at you enemy! Return the arrow to them.”

The young man with shaking hands, held a bow and shot an arrow to the sky. His eyes full of tears and his body couldn’t stop trembling. “What I want is only a little land to grow wheat and hug my love! Why is it so hard...”

***

A few hours ago, Jaime charged into five people from Kingdom of Liberty. “Brothers! Wait for me, I am thinking to raid you clean, what do you think about it? Will you let me you do it? Let us sit and talk in peace! Please don’t be in a hurry!”

“Who are you!” A person in the Elder realm locked his eyes with Jaime.

“I am your future king!” Jaime flew in front of them and stopped their demonic beast’s movement. “Go down and kneel to your grand daddy!”

“He was the man with Princess Chu Mie at the auction house, our enemy!” Two of them took their sword out. “Kill him!”

“People with culture will talk with their mouths and logic, not swords and blood. Since you love to talk with swords, I will company you!” Jaime smirked and wagged his pointed finger.

“Just at the Elementary Realm and you want to talk...” Suddenly an aura of Patriarch Realm smacked them. Their face turned pale, their bodies couldn’t move, caused by the terrific aura. Jaime easily flashed around them and hit some of their body’s meridians with his pointed finger. That finger attack did not only lock and blocked their nerve movement through the brain, but also sealed their meridians and caused stiffness to their muscles and bones.

Their bodies stopped in their various poses. They couldn’t even move a

“I will not be the one to decide your lives.” Jaime waved his hand and found two storage pouches from the Elder Realm’s person. Inside the storage pouch, there were around five hundred thousand spiritual stones, one green bow and some useless stuff. “This green bow is at least on grade five, truly a treasure.”

Jaime took their stuff and put it on back of his left hand. A storage pouch’s formation on his left hand shone and swallowed the items. As for the five demonic beasts they rode, Jaime used the back of his right hand to swallow them. Jaime’s right hand storage space was created for living beings. Both the formation were written with King Chameleon’s blood and core, it was undetectable and untraceable.

With Chu Mie, Jaime returned to the place where he left them and scratched his head in confusion.

I didn’t rob them clean, I let them have their clothes and let them posed coolly on the side of the street. Their meridian must be locked for a day. How can they be tied on the tree naked?

Chu Mie swung her sword to the neck of her mortal enemy. “Tell me where did you get the Sword of Mother Earth. It was always with my father! Speak or I am going to kill you.”

“Brother, you should tell her or she will kill you.” Jaime patted them and without Chu Mie’s knowing, he released their talking meridian.

The man smiled with a mocking face. “Do you think I will talk? Do you think I am scared of you? You can kill me but you get nothing from me.”

Jaime touched Chu Mie’s shoulder. “I don’t want to disturbed your beautiful reunion. Giving my opinion if you want to interrogate someone, then you must remember, never talk to the one with big balls!”

“Big balls?” asked Chu Mie in confusion.

“You know the bigger the balls, the bravest he is. So choose the smallest balls.”

“How do I know if they are brave or not without...!” Jaime stopped Chu Mie’s reply and pointed to the balls.

“They are naked, you can see their balls.” Jaime pointed to one person and showed his pinky finger. “He has the smallest gutsy, go interrogate him.”

Chu Mie swung his sword to that guy.

“No, no...!” the guy was shaken and his balls started to sink even smaller and suddenly hot water leaked out. “I will talk, I will talk, don’t kill me.”

“Then talk!”

“What do you want to know?”

“Who are you? How did my father’s sword come with you and where my father is?”

“Your father, I don’t know. The sword? We get it from Black Hawk Guild.”

“What is Black Hawk Guild?” Chu Mie asked.

“They are a merchant guild used to transport items using hawk and storage pouch on its leg. They have their branches from Kingdom of Liberty to White Eagle City. Our Lord usually uses their service to transfer item for us.”

“Why does your lord send you the item? Who are you?”

“We are here to represent our lord and our kingdom, we have been staying here for three years and sold the item that our lord gave us, then transfer back its money to our lord. Sometimes we bought stuff that our lord needed and sent it to Black Hawk guild to transport it to our lord.” The unlucky guy kept talking with a trembling body. “This time, we got commanded to sell that sword and buy rations enough for hundred thousand soldiers, as what it is for, I really don’t know.”

Chu Mie moved her sword and near that guy's balls. "Talk! What do you know about what those rations are for! Or I cut you manliness now."

"I don't know, really don't know. Please don't kill me I am still a virgin, I never touch a woman even once, please don't let me die in agony." The young man crying sadly.

"Hahahaha..." Person on Elder Realm laughed. "Our lord has moved all of our soldiers to attack Deserted Forest! Your father had fallen when he tried to stop us with his army. Right now, all of your people are like chickens hiding behind the city wall to avoid a hundred thousand wolves. While we are talking, maybe your kingdom is gone and all of your people already died or are being sold as slaves! Hahaha... release us so we may let you flee."

Chu Mie's eyes turned red, without talking anymore, her sword moved and cut the Elder Realm's person neck, causing blood to spurt from the space where his head used to be. Like spring water.

"Owner less energy!" Jaime hurried to suck the energy from the dead body of an Elder Realm. Yet his level was still stuck at level 68. Elder Realm's energy didn't give much effect for him on the Patriarch Realm.

Chu Mie immediately threw her sword away, she looked on in shock and her face turned pale.

One person suddenly rushed to Chu Mie, "Miss, miss, please don't kill them. I beg you, please! They are my future!"

“Who are you!” Jaime locked his eyes on a young man with dirty clothes. A few minutes ago, he jumped from a horse cart and rushed to them and kneeling. He was just a normal human without any cultivation. Typical lowly peasant.

“Young master please don’t kill me, the men you want to kill is mines.”

“How can they be yours?” Jaime felt something wrong here.

“Today my grandfather met them on the road, stiff and unable to move, so he stole their boots and went to tell my father. Then, my father came here and stole their clothes, and went to tell my big brother.”

“My big brother came and stole their pants and everything he could take. Only after that, he told me.” The young man said sadly.

“So you get nothing?”

The young man shook his head. “I think I got the best from all of them, so I tied them to the tree and went to borrow house cart from Uncle Che.”

“What will you do to them?”

The young man grinned, “I am taking them to the slave market!”

“You are really smart! You can sell them!” Anyway Jaime never liked to kill people, selling them as slaves may be the best way. “They are cultivators and dangerous. Their meridians will opened tomorrow, you better sell them quickly and let the slave master to give them poison for binding them.”

“Thank you Young master. Thank you Young Master!” The young man hurriedly took the four guys to the horse cart and moved away. Leaving the one without a head hanging on the tree.

“Chu Mie, are you going to your kingdom or not?” Chu Mie still knelt in shock. “If you don’t like to kill, then don’t kill. Or use your other hand to kill.”

Jaime sighed.

“I am sorry.” Jaime walked to Chu Mie’s back and hit her neck, causing her to faint. Gracefully, Jaime brought her to the flying beast. “Fly quickly, we are running out of time. Hope we will have enough time to save the Deserted Forest Kingdom. Or... the Kingdom of Liberty will be my new troops! Ah... which one it is, I don’t care. However I am determined to take them both since the beginning.”

***

“General! What will we do?” A major with clean armor bowed in front of one old general. “We only have ten thousand troops and only five thousand can fight. Our enemy has at least one hundred thousand troops surrounding us. We can’t fight this war! Our king has fallen and lost his sword. Please give a signal to surrender.”

The old general grabbed the neck of his major and threw him out from the wall. This cause the entire soldiers to be shocked. “Three days of fighting in a dire situation and his armor has no blood neither his skin was cut! Just simply a coward!”

“All of you listen!” The general stood with blood on his armor. “As long as this old corpse is still breathing, I will never surrender! I better die to meet my ancestor rather than selling my own people!”

“All of you! Open your ear! Kingdom of Liberty is never willing to take us and protect us even when we surrender. They will turn us into slaves and sell our family for money! Have any of you wanted your daughter and wife be a sex slave and your son to eat like an animal!”

“We only have one way to survive! It is to protect this city wall from them to enter!”

One major knelt. “But General, till when will we protect this wall, we can’t protect it forever! And we have no allies to help us. We are all alone waiting to die.” His eyes burst in silent tears.

The old general sneered. “We will wait till they moved back and leave us alone, or till every one of us die!”

“General, some of the tribes have started to rebel and wanted to open the gate to surrender. Since the sword of Mother Earth is gone, they don’t like to work with us anymore.”

The old general sighed. “Then we will kill our enemy and kill our own people till heaven kill us!”

Suddenly inside the city there was a big commotion.

The old general waved his hand. “Go find out what is happening there! Why they are making ruckus. Prepare the soldier if they want to rebel!”

Before any of them moved, one soldiers rushed to the old general in ecstasy and crying. “General, the leader of Wood Tribe, the Witch of the Wood, has said her prophecy just now!”

“What is the prophecy?” asked the old general with shaken body. He was waiting for it for so long already, to hear the Witch of the Wood prophecy.

“She said, the Sword of Mother Earth had safely reached the hands of our future king.” The soldier was shaken and cried, yet he still yelled with all his breath. “Our future king is making his move to save us in a hurry! If we are able to hold this city for one week, the fated king of three realms will come to save us. He will take our country to the sky and heaven. Bring prosperity to our kingdom, where all children will eat till their fullest and all families can smile at the night without worry.”

“Good! Good! Very Good!” The old general laughed loudly. “Then it is more reason for us to hold this city for one week. Let us welcome our future king, the fated one to be king of three realms!”

Chapter 39: Chu Mie's Dungeon Heart

You are the chosen one, you are fated to be the king and dragon among men, which is only born in one million years. You are fated to be the richest man in the universe. You will have power to build a harem! Will you accept your amazing fate? And believe in fate? Good! Because there are some following fates, you are fated to marry with the ugliest person in the whole universe, ugliest heart, ugliest attitude and ugliest body! You are also fated to have premature ejaculate or can't even have an erection in front of a thousand beauties from the universe! So accept your fate!!

As for Jaime, he believed everything in life was fated. Just like he knew from the deepest part of his heart, today was the fated day. Where he will lose his virginity for the first time of this life. His little brother was on fire and stood real hard at attention. Chu Mie was totally naked and deliberately letting Jaime see everything of her.

Am I just having wet dream with a dark-skinned beautiful girl, who looked incredibly sexy, with a perfect curve in three parts of her body. Erected breasts, slim waist, and amazing buttocks! Heavens, is she the goddess of beauty? No she is the goddess of sexy!

Jaime was drooling and the wolf inside of his body was ravishing for a touch.

“A Niu, tonight please embrace me and give me your love. I don't want to think anymore, just hug me and make love to me!” Chu Mie made her way next to Jaime. “Will you?”

Jaime got a terrible shock and quickly nodded stupidly with his eyes locked on Chu Mie.

At last, the goddess of fortune laid her eyes on me! After chasing girls for a hundred years; persistently, bloodily, and painstakingly but never ever succeeding to pushed down even one of them. Today a girl will push me down! Aye...Aye ... Ma'am ... please push me down and treat me kindly, this is my first time!

Chu Mie hugged Jaime, with his bare hands she let Jaime feel her naked skin.

Heaven, you create the masterpiece of all arts, woman!

How could this heaven shaking event occur?

At the night, after they left White Eagle City and moved to the west of the continent, Jaime made a fire camp in a jungle and cooked demonic beast meat. He threw the meat to the flying beast for its dinner and looked at the million stars in the sky.

Chu Mie woke up, walked out from her tent and looked around. "Where are we?"

"We are one day closer to your home town."

“I want to wash my body.”

Jaime could see dry blood on her clothes and face. He lightly smiled. “Fifty steps to the north, you will find a river. I am going to sleep first! I am too tired after driving your flying beast.” Jaime stood and entered his tent. “Don’t play too long in the water in the middle of the night, or you will catch cold. Eat quickly and tomorrow we will have a long journey to your home town.”

Chu Mie nodded in silence.

In the middle of his sleep, Jaime awoke from a drop of water on his face. “Chu Mie?” He saw that girl sitting beside him with wet hair. His new talisman at the corner of his tent was shining brightly, letting him see Chu Mie’s face completely.

“What are you doing here?”

“A Niu, do you love me?”

“Love?” Jaime was slightly confused. “What do you mean about love? Like I love demonic beast’s meat? Love myself or like I love money? Well, telling the truth, I love you when you are sleeping, you didn’t annoy me much at that time.”

Surprisingly, Chu Mie hugged Jaime. “Today I killed a man.”

“I know it, I saw the neck without a head and the blood pouring.”

She shook her head fiercely, wishing to forget that memory. “I don’t want to go back to my kingdom, please help me.”

“What?” Jaime surprised. “I don’t understand what you mean.”

“Deserted Forest Kingdom consists of five tribes, my father is from the Earth Tribe and had been trusted from generation to generation for taking care the Sword of Mother Earth. When we lost the sword, especially to our enemy, we had already failed to do our responsibility. As for the punishment, we will be banned from the Kingdom. That was the agreement between tribes. I have lost my rights as a princess; my father must be dead right now, because no way my father will stay alive and let our treasure fall to the enemy. I am no one. Please tell me what to do!”

“Hei, don’t be sad.” Jaime caressed Chu Mie’s head. “We don’t really know what happen to your father, the most important thing is to see your kingdom and decide what to do after that.”

“A Niu, what if the kingdom is already gone, what if my father and all of my families are already gone, what if...” Chu Mie started to cry. She was freaking scared. “I don’t want to see it, I don’t want to lose anything anymore. I killed a human, I am a bad girl. I am not a princess, I am no one! A Niu promise me you will not leave me. I need you. Please...”

“I...” Jaime secretly moved his hand on Chu Mie’s back, he was going to make that princess faints again. It is much better if this paranoid princess sleeps . Before Jaime moved his hand, Chu Mie immediately stood and took off her clothes.

“A Niu, I love you. You will be with me forever. I am willing to give you my everything, just don’t leave me. Make love with me now!” Chu Mie knelt beside Jaime and forcefully opened Jaime’s clothes. “Please make me forget everything!”

Suddenly Jaime stood quickly and pushed Chu Mie aside. “Who do you think I am! I am a man of honor, I am not moved by love nor sex! I am only moved by money! You want my service, you have to pay me.”

Chu Mie glanced at Jaime with teary eyes filled with dejection.

“For you, my friend, Since this is the first time you are using my service, I will give you free charge! I will be the one who push you down and give you satisfaction so you will forget all of your sadness!” Jaime moved to embrace Chu Mie.

No crocodile will refuse a dead chicken .

Jaime’s lip slowly closed on Chu Mie’s lips. She smiled lightly and closed her eyes waiting for Jaime to embrace her. She will let Jaime do whatever he likes so she can run away from everything.

As Jaime kissed Chu Mie, or he thought he did, he suddenly found himself on a very large desert. The sun shone so bright, the temperature was so hot, and there were only sand everywhere.

“Damn! I already knew my luck would not be that good!” Jaime looked around and sighed. “Chu Mie’s Dungeon heart!”

He continued to made his way and after a few hours of walking in the middle of the desert, he found a big city wall. It was made by yellow stone, like the color of sand.

“Chu Mie,” he shouted at the gate. “Don’t hide anymore, I am here to give you service. Please open the door for me.”

“I am not allowing you to enter my heart!” One sexy girl appeared at the top of city wall. She was Chu Mie with sexy clothes.

“Why don’t you let me enter? You know, you were willing to sleep with me, to let me take your first time. We have passed the shy moments, lovely dopey moments, and went straight to the bed moments. Please just open it, I am so thirsty!” Jaime shook his head.

“I gave you my body. That doesn’t mean I am willing to let you have my heart!”

“What do you mean?” Jaime was confused. “You told me you love me, you want to be with me, never going to leave me, and seduced me. Now you are going to ignore it and dump me! At least let me have your first time before you dump me! This is simply not fair! Girl make up your mind.”

“I won’t open it for you!”

He sat in the sand and sighed. “I know one story. A woman told her servant, ‘Today, a handsome man will come to repair the electricity. If you heard me shouting, ‘Stop, don’t do it. Help me...’, it means you have a day off. So the servant let the repairman enter the room with her miss. Suddenly after a few minutes, her miss shouted, ‘Stop, please don’t do it. Help me...’ The servant walked out of the house and had a day off.”

“You woman, what is inside your mind? Your kind is really confusing? I am going crazy!”

Chu Mie laughed, “I forced you to enter this dungeon heart because I don’t want you to dirty me! If you want to win my heart and walk out from here, then you must fulfill the requirements to win my heart!”

“What requirements?”

Chu Mie watched the blue sky and sands in the horizon. “Since I was small, I have known my destiny; to protect my people and be a good princess. So I can marry a knight in shining armor!”

“Knight in shining armor?” Jaime sneered. “This is a Wuxia story, girl! You are playing in the wrong story. Find some western story and come back later.”

“I don’t care, you have to wear a shining armor, save my country from a dire situation, win the war, win my father and my family’s heart and kiss me when you finished all of that!” Chu Mie went back behind the wall. “My body will sleep forever and only can be awakened by the kiss of a knight in shining armor after killing the dragon.”

“You are too selfish, girl!” Jaime protested.

“I don’t care! I have chosen you! Don’t make me regret!”

“Then, choose another!”

“Too late, I have taken a liking to you since the first!” Chu Mie let her head appeared. “Please conquer me. Win a kingdom to win my heart! Or I will kill myself!”

Jaime opened his eyes widely. “Easy to say! I better choose to buy a handbag and some jewelry to win a heart then win a kingdom for a girl!” Surprisingly, he already went back to the camp and found Chu Mie’s naked body in his embrace. Chu Mie didn’t move one inch, no matter how Jaime called her.

“Looks like I really have to conquer a kingdom for this selfish girl.”

He hastily rushed to continue his journey, using Chu Mie’s flying beast and his own flying beast—which he got from stealing from General Long’s resident—as substitute. Jaime began his journey before sunrise and continued his journey through the darkness—if the weather was suitable for a journey.

He slept and rest on the flying beast’s back. The journey of one week was slashed into four days.

As Jaime reached the destination, there were one hundred thousand soldiers surrounding a city wall. The city wall was hanging in a very dire situation. One city wall had broken and only need a few hours to penetrate inside.

Jaime took out one big map with a golden cover and opened it. Only a blank page could be seen. He injected his spiritual energy into it and the map gave a wave-like sonar radiation to its surrounding. After ten breaths and twenty waves, the blank page starting to glow and some pictures and colors appeared slowly.

There was a complete map of the Deserted Forest Kingdom. Inside the map, the city wall was color in black, and all of the soldiers in red dots could be seen.

“It is time for me to shine!”

***

“General! We can’t hold it any more, the east gate will be penetrated soon!”

“Move three hundreds soldiers to intercept it.” The old general shouted.

“We don’t have any soldiers to move anymore!”

“I will go there.” The old general quickly made his way to the east gate. There were one thousand enemies rushing madly and only one or two hundred soldiers waiting there to blocked them. The old general hardened his grip on his big halberd and charged the enemy. “Today is the good day for me to die, company me through one thousand battles and follow me to heaven, my enemies!”

Chapter 40: The Old General's Wish

Once I was a skinny boy
In the deserted and poor land
Dream for glory and well living
Hastily traded my life in war

Through blood, sword, and hardship
Found brothers by exchanging wine and soul
To glory we together
To hell we accompany

Rampaging every war
Glory came, wife presented
Brothers, less and lesser
I still stay with the world

Back from war,
Son barely stood
Back from the next war,
Son had wearing armor, entered the war

War ignited
Brothers lesser and lesser
Sons never return to home
I still stay with the world

Time passed quickly
War never ceases
Glory I don't need anymore
Brothers I don't have anymore

Only Halberd accompany me
Know my heart and real me
I miss my son
I miss drinking with my brothers

Brothers,
This old bone can't hold anymore
I have taking care of your son and grandson
Like I promised you before you left

Now, free me
Let me meet you guys
To glory we together
To hell we accompany

– The Old General Huang

The Old General without fear, smiled lightly and breached through one thousand soldiers alone. He swung his halberd in the middle of enemies. His big body was full of blood and his armor tattered. Yet, he felt happiness inside. His body was so light, it feel like he was young again. Suddenly a shadow of his long lost brothers appeared, one by one with him in the field.

They smiled at him and said things they used to in past. “Little Huang, we will cover your back. Let us return together and drink Uncle Liang’s wine. No one will leave before they’re drunk!”

The old general smiled and tears blurred his vision. He was still rampaging through the enemies.

One handsome young man suddenly appeared next to him. “Huang, thanks for taking care my son, Xiou Hu. You are my best little brother.”

“Big Brother Xiou!” The old general voice shook and surprisingly started to laugh; so hard. “I live and I die with my brothers! To glory we go together, to hell we accompany!” He continued to fight till his last breath.

A big dark cloud suddenly was hanging on the top of Deserted Forest Kingdom’s sky and rain pour down heavily. The rain washed the blood and blurred the vision.

After a long fight, the old general could feel his strength losing quickly. He lightly smiled and shouted loudly, “Future king of Deserted Forest Kingdom, if you can hear me, please takes care our families! Let them eat to their fullest and let them sleep soundly in the night. Let war disappear from the world. This old body can’t stay any longer...”

One of the soldier's spear head penetrated the old general stomach and stopped the old lion's movement. Tens of sharp spear head moved to stab the old general.

"I have no regrets!" shouted old general proudly and closed his eyes.

"But I will regret if you die!" A young man emerged from the heavy rains and seized the old man back to the city wall. Before the old general could open his eyes, a hit on his back caused him to faint.

Since the rain fell heavily, the attack from both sides ceased. There was an old belief for people on Deserted Forest and Liberty. When the rain pours heavily, all activity must be stopped and everyone must go in seclusion for praying.

Their homes once was a heavy forest with a lot of rainfall. But hundreds of years ago, everything started to change. The rain began to fall rarely and the forest turned into a savannah.

A savannah that had turned into cracked dry land. The leaders and witches of many tribes at that time told their people that was all happening because they was not feeling gratitude for the rain and made the rain goddess angry. To satisfy and win over the rain goddess's heart, they would offer a naked dance when the rain was falling and stop all activities. It was to show their joy and gratitude, hoping the rain would keep coming to them.

As the time passed, the rain became rarer and rarest. People would dance to ask for the rain to fall. It was called the rain calling's dance, performed by a naked and pretty rain dancer. After that hard time, rain still rarely fell for them, but the tradition of not to do anything when the rain fell, especially when there was heavy rain fall, kept them doing it to respect the rain goddess.

***

Kingdom of Liberty General's Camp

Tu Xi, the General of Liberty hit the table angrily, "Why did you stop attacking? The city wall was broken, send people to penetrate the city!"

"General, no soldier dares to do any activity in heavy rain. They are scared to be cursed by the rain goddess," answered one of his majors, Kok Ji.

"Bullshit, if none of the soldiers are ready to make their move, all of them will be beheaded! Go relay my command!" Tu Xi looked at his subordinates. They were stuck in their spot, not willing to make a move. "All of you don't want to move too! Enough I will lead the soldiers to break the city now! After this war is finished all of you will wait for military punishment at the capital!"

Tu Xi walked out from the command tent and disappeared. No one will ever see him again after that day.

***

The heavy rains continued through the night. All of the people and soldiers were hiding themselves inside their homes and tents. No one dared to walk outside. Soldiers were hugging their wives, not knowing what will happen tomorrow, after the rain stopped.

For them, after knowing the east city's wall has broken, they knew their lives will never be the same any more. Tomorrow will be a fight to the death. Some people were wishing for the rain to never stop. Wives and mothers prayed continuously, men, soldiers drinks with their brothers, laughed and cried, preparing their journey to the next life.

One person was silently working hard like a busy ant recycling the city wall. His hair and clothes were wet, yet he didn't stop and worked till sunrise.

As the first sunlight touched the ground, a drum sounds rumbling through the city. The rain had stopped. The soldiers ran to their position on the wall, and about one thousand soldiers assembled at the east city wall, waiting for the enemies.

The old general stood between them, he didn't understand how he was still alive and found himself slept on the road last night. His wound on his stomach had been treated nicely and didn't harm his life anymore. He didn't have time to think about it, since fifty thousand soldiers were stationed outside the east city wall, ready to charge inside.

The only thing that was ringing in his ear was the message from the Witch of Wood this morning. That witch sent his trusted servant to relay a secret message.

"The future king has entered the city."

***

One Major named Kok Ji, asked his friends, “Have any of you found General Tu Xi?”

The other two majors shook their head.

“Well, since the general missing, we can only proceed accordingly. We will win this war and go back to the capital and give the report to the king.” Kok Ji checked their enemies through the broken wall. “Only about one thousand soldiers, this war will finish before lunch. All soldiers attack!”

Fifty thousand soldiers marched forward to attack one thousand soldiers.

From all ten thousand soldiers of Deserted Forest, there was only one thousands left who could fight. This time the old general knew, he didn’t have much choice. If the enemies successfully penetrate through the wall, the kingdom will be no more.

The Old general raised his voice. “Soldiers! Raise your shields! We will survive this war together!” He looked at the soldiers behind him. A thousand peasants with shovels, wood sticks, spears, and useless weapons assembled with trembling bodies. They will be the last hold line.

***

Kok Ji rode a horse and lead the soldiers to move closer and closer to the city wall. As the city wall started to look bigger he saw something that shocked him to the core. There was a big cross right beside the cracking wall and the one person they were looking for was tied on the cross; naked with only pants.

“General? It is our general. Save our general! All soldier attack!” Kok Ji pushed his horse to run faster, being tailed by fast running soldiers.

“The enemies are coming!” The old general eyes shone. “Prepare! Hold the line!”

Seeing fifty thousand soldiers rushed at them was just like watching a high tsunami moving to erase them. Young soldiers were shaken and trembling, some wet their pants. Some already started to cry.

Senior soldiers laughed. “Come, come tonight we will eat in heaven! Come!”

As for the peasants, some already had ran away.

***

Kok Ji and his soldiers, at one meter near the General Tu Xi, suddenly bumped into an invisible thick wall. The ones in front were jammed by the rushing people from behind. Thousands of soldiers clamped together.

“There is a transparent wall!”

“Moved back, argghhh ... I am breathless!”

“Move back, quickly move back!”

“Arghh, your spear stabbing me!”

“Don’t push me, arrrrghh, my legs broken!”

“My teeth!”

The old general didn’t know what just happened.

He and his soldiers were waiting for the impact but no one came. His mouth was opened in awe as he saw thousands of soldiers clamped together on some kind of transparent wall. This was the first time he watch this kind of scene. Hardening his spirit, he carefully walked out the east city’s wall.

“General. It is dangerous to walk alone.” A Major hurried tailed the old general with some soldiers. As the Major and soldiers stepped out, they were shocking beyond belief. Thousands of enemy soldiers only could look at them with angry faces, separated by an invisible wall.

“What is that!? Transparent wall!?” One soldier tried to check.

“Isn’t he the Great General Tu Xi?” One Captain following the Major found a cross with a person tied on it.

“There is an open tent beside the cross!” As the found it, the old general stood there to observe the tent. Inside the tent there was a young man sleeping soundly without bothering them at all.

They assembled behind the old general. “General, who is he?”

The young man suddenly awoke and looked at them boringly. He yawned, stood, and stepped to the invisible wall. In front of thousands of enemies, he opened his pants and let his little brother out.

He peed while yawning at the same time, ignoring the thousands of eyes looking at him angrily behind the wall. “What? Never looked at something this big?”

He stopped, pulled up his pants and went back to the tent, “I worked all night, please don’t disturb me.” He slept again.

The old general was dumbstruck. He saw thousands of angry enemies only three meter from the tent and the young man ignoring them.

“General do you think the young man is our enemy?” asked the major.

Old general shook his head. “We don’t know, but don’t disturb him.”

The young man suddenly spoke. “In the next tent, you can find people of your own kind. Go take her to her family.”

The old general opened the next tent and was shocked. “Princess. What has happened to her?”

“She is a drama queen, becoming a sleeping beauty. Having an egoist princess sickness. If you put a young handsome man with shining armor and kiss her, maybe she will awake.” Jaime yawned again.

“Who are you?” asked the old general.

“Don’t disturb me, I am busy trying to sleep and don’t bother with the enemy. The wall can hold for one month under heavy attack. Just go back to the city and everything will be okay.”

Chapter 41: Witch of Wood

Fights are not always won by who was the strongest, but always by who is the smartest. Conquering a kingdom does not always need millions in an army. Just find the right person, to do the right job, at the right time and direct it to have a right result. Like using a beauty to kill a king, using a beauty to cause internal fights between a king and a general or prince with prince, or use the right person to poison the king.

There was a story about a big hotel which was having an electric problem. They check for two days and couldn't find what was the problem, so they call an electrician expert. The expert come in a couple hours, checking the hotel in three minutes and walked to one electric box. He opened the box, use a screwdriver and rotated it three times. Viola, the electricity turn on. The expert asked for payment, 10,000 Dollars. This gave a big shock to the manager. "Why is it so expensive just to rotate the loose screw!" The expert smiled. "It only cost 1 dollar to rotate the screw, but cost 9,999 dollars to know which screw to rotate!"

"Fu*k! Hell has broken loose! One of the ugliest creatures in the seventh layers of hell escaped here!" Jaime was in great horror. At the time he awoke, he saw the ugliest creature ever in front of him, smiling with only two teeth hanging.

"Filthy animal, who did you say was the ugliest creature! I am the most beautiful Witch of Wood!" The witch hit her staff on Jaime's head. "Filthy animal, filthy animal..." The witch kept hitting Jaime's head.

"Stop hitting me!"

“Do you know who I am?” ask the witch.

“No! And I don’t want to!” Jaime protested.

“I am the most beautiful witch under heaven two hundred years ago!” The witch was only one meter high and crooked. “At that time, three handsome kings fought over me and hundreds of thousands of soldiers died because of me.”

Jaime looked at her, face full of wrinkles and tousled hair. One of her eyes was white. “Sure, I can see that you were expired since long time ago and already have a smell of earth. Quickly, go back to where you belong! Don’t scare humans by being in this world.”

The witch used her staff to hit Jaime’s head again. “Go die first! I still want to live one thousand years!”

Jaime nodded, “Grandma, you have high spirit, I admire you. But please go away, don’t stay near me. With only your appearance, you are already a shattered beauty of my wuxia story and turning it into a horror story. With all respect, don’t let me see you again! I won’t escort you to your grave, please shoo there.”

“You! You are so... so... huhhh....” The Witch of Wood turned around and wanted to leave Jaime. “You have no respect to elders, you will get cursed!”

“Stop lying to me, I know who are you. Your age is just about 17 years old. Why do you need to have that appearance?” Jaime stood and found there were soldiers guarding his tent. The invisible wall seemed to be in good condition.

The Witch locked her eyes on Jaime and sat down. “You are truly a fated one to be a king of three realms, the man who is able to see everything.”

“You know me?”

“More than you know.” The Witch of wood laughed. “I also know there are four others who are fated to be the king of three realms. They will be your competitors and your enemies to reach the highest throne in the universe in one hundred years.”

“Who are they? And how do you know about this?” Jaime was surprised beyond belief. “And who are you? Ah before that, can you do something with your appearance? It is giving me goose pimples.”

“Sorry, can’t do that. This appearance follows me as the Witch of the Wood, better get used to it. As for who am I? I am from the Wood Tribe; our ancestor was the great tree of mother earth, the same first tree that spread first loves to all universes.” She found Jaime yawning. “To make a long story short, our tribe recorded a long history since the first creation till now. The history always repeats itself, from what has we record, we can predict the future.”

“Please go on!” Jaime made a fire and cooked demonic beast meat.

“Our tribe records for every time the universes are chaotic; there would be a struggle of all realms to reach the highest throne to calm the chaotic and bring prosperity to all universes for one thousand years. It usually happens once in a million years. There were kings of three realms in past like Maharaja Vali, The raksasa Ravana, and some oldest story that unknown to many people. The king of three realms could only be killed by God itself and none from the three realms could take them down.” The witch pointed to Jaime. “You are one of the fated ones.”

“Who are the others?” Jaime thought they will be his competitors, the sooner he knows them, the better his position.

“I will tell you but you must promise me one thing first!”

“What is that?” Jaime was biting the demonic meat. “If you are hungry, please just take the meat, there still a lot on the fire, one tael of gold each.”

“Not hungry!” The witch began to doubt her decision. “I want you to make me your witch.”

“No! Never! And don’t even dare to dream about it. My beautiful and elegant story will be ruined by your appearance.” Jaime hurried to refuse her. “I am the man of face!”

The witch stood, “Whatever you say, sooner or later you will find me. Even if you have the power to know everything, you don’t know what you don’t know. We, witches are prophets, knowing the future and what humans don’t know. Your competitors are not only from this realm, they are gods, demi gods, demons and half demons. They are powerful kings of their realm and have thousands of great witches and legendary soldiers with them. You will find trouble sooner or later when facing them.”

“Don’t worry,” Jaime laughed. “Today’s worry is enough for today, as for what will happen next, I don’t care.” The witch was gone and Jaime took out his map.

His map once again let a wave out and recorded its surrounding. “Now, Book of Karma give me the complete information about the soldiers of Liberty and where they put their supply depot.”

In the middle of the night, Jaime pulled out talismans for farming and called rain near the Liberty army’s camp. Using his spiritual energy, the talisman collected the humidity around and caused a dark cloud, in a few minutes heavy rain began to pour down.

***

Kok Ji was sitting with the other major generals in the camp, “Why do I have a feeling that rain will bring bad luck to us?”

“Just your imagination,” said another. “With this heavy rain, we can’t move and so can’t the enemy. With their invisible wall and us surrounding them, in this war, whoever have t patience will win. Sooner or later they will run out of food and need to go out. They are just rats inside cage.”

Kok Ji sighed, “Since our great general was captured by the enemy has gone public, the generals from other divisions have made their way to take our general position as field marshal and want our soldiers. We must finish this war quickly before we are dismissed by them.”

The others Major generals agree, “The other generals have envied our great general since the beginning. We must be careful with them.”

Inside one of their supply depot’s tent, four soldiers were fainted and one big rat was happily moving the rations into a storage pouch. “Good harvest, good harvest. Being a farmer needs to wait for a half a year. Being a merchant needs to buy and sell for profit, the best job is being a thief! No need for capital and earn profit instantly!”

***

The next morning, all of the soldiers turned into chaos! The Generals, Majors, and Captains of Liberty were found inside the invisible wall, tied on a big cross. There were a total of 5 Generals, 20 Major generals, 50 Colonel, and 100 Commandants. The soldiers were like a snake without it’s head, scattered along the invisible wall. They could only watch their leaders without doing anything. Well, they did at first, hitting the invisible wall for nothing for a few hours.

There were words written on the chest of their generals, major generals, and colonels.

“Your supply depot is already empty. Be a farmer and lead a good life!”

One hundred thousand soldiers turned into turmoil. Some of them stormed the supply depots only to cause bigger chaos!

Jaime, inside his tent, was looking at the soldiers and sighed. “This place really is deserted. Their General is only at the Elders Realm, one realm lower than a general at the big city. Their Major Generals and Colonels are at the True Human Realm and their Commanders on Senior realms. Don’t tell me their king is only at the Patriarch Realm. Simply too primitive.”

“Kill them!” The soldiers of Deserted Forest rushed out from city wall and encircle the crosses. They were aching to kill their mortal enemies.

“Stop it, don’t you dare kill them!” Jaime yawned, he pulled another all-nighter again.

“You! What is your right to stop me!” The soldiers furiously pointed his sword at Jaime. “This people kill my brothers.”

“What is my right?” Jaime yawned again. “I can throw any of you outside the wall and have you make friends with your enemies or I can take off this invisible wall and let them enter to make friends with you. Which one would you like to choose?”

The soldiers face turned pale. “Why are you helping enemy?”

“Enemy?” Jaime laughed, “They are mine! My people! Don’t you dare touch them. If you kill one person at the age of 20, I will need to wait 20 more years to have one of my soldiers. When you let them live, and they are hardworking enough to pregnant a woman every day, after 20 years, I can have about seven thousand new people to serve under me. So kill no one!”

The soldiers became dumbstruck.

The Old General got close to Jaime. “So they are yours? Are you their king?”

“Me?” Jaime closed his eyes. “I am their future king. I am just too tired to claim my throne for now. Maybe tomorrow I will go to my Kingdom of Liberty and take it when I feel like.”

The Old General laughed. “If you take the Kingdom of Liberty, the Kingdom of Deserted Forest will be yours too.”

“Please old man, I don’t want to put this kingdom into mine. Your people are too poor and lack of cultivation. The land is too dry and the only worth you people have here, are being sold as slaves. If I become your king, see how much money I will have to pay to tidy up everything?”

“Well, my future king. The Witch of Wood as the leader of the Wood Tribe had announced you as our future king! The Earth Tribe also agrees, since you have the Sword of Mother Earth, and I as the leader of Lion Tribe have agreed too. You are already our king.” The Old General knelt in front of Jaime.

“Oh come on, how do you know I have the sword of Mother Earth?”

“Witch of the Wood told all of us.”

“That Damn woman! Opening my secret to everyone. Now, after, you are here kissing my ass. Tell me, what do you want from me?” Jaime became glum for some reason. “I won’t give you back the sword, I bought it with a heavy price. It is mine.”

“I am here, not to ask the sword....” The Old General put on a sad face. “Our city has nothing to eat, if you may...”

Jaime threw twenty storage pouches to the old general. “There are rations inside, enough for your people to live for a month, but whoever gets one must pay ten in the future, think before you take it.”

The Old General lightly smiled. “This kind of thing, no need to think, you are our king! Sooner or later, what we have will be yours.”

“I knew you would say something like that! Since I won’t get payment, I want you to work for the rations. Take this jade information, I want you and all of your people do exactly like the jade information commands. You eat the rations and you have to work for me.” Jaime gave jade information to the Old General.

After reading inside the jade information, the old general face sullen. “To do like this jade information command, all of the soldiers will have to put down their weapons.”

“This kingdom doesn’t need to have soldiers. For your enemies, I will take care all of them in a week! Just do like the jade information asked. All of you must be farmers!” Jaime went back to sleep.

“By the way,” said the Old General. “Thanks for helping me and curing my stomach wound. What a great medicine you have there.”

“Don’t mention it.”

“Please give me more medicines to help the others.”

“Arrghhhh you are hurting me!”

In the middle of the night, Jaime used his flying beast to travel to the heart of Liberty Kingdom, City of Fire.

“This will be an easy task to take down a kingdom with the King in the Patriarch Realm!”

***

Kingdom of Liberty, City of Fire.

There was a dance of twenty witches in the middle of big fire. One old woman, the leader of the Witch of Fire, suddenly opened her eyes. “The enemy of our god has made his way to conquer our kingdom. Take one thousand slaves here to be sacrificed on fire to summon our God of Fire to kill him. The fated one to be the king of three realms is our mortal enemy!”

The king of Liberty beside the witch of fire sneered. “Only on the king realm, want to take my kingdom! You are thirty realms lower than our god! You will die without knowing what has hit you!”

Chapter 42: Human Fighting God

Her soul swooned slowly as she knew that the fated future king of three realms was moving majestically to conquer the universe and majestically trembling upon all the living and the dead.

“If I were younger, I would write the history of a human conquering heaven and hell; and I would let my story help destroy the universe as it is.” She sighed in her little world. “Oh my mighty king, in your gallantly chair, by your window dreaming, shall you long, alone. In your dreaming-chair, by your wisdom, shall you dream such happiness as you may never feel.”

“I shed no tears for my lost youth,” She raised her head to the silvery moonlight and was flooded by the memory of a dream to end all dreams. “It was a fine cry—loud and long—but it had no bottom and it had no top, just circles and circles of sorrow. I am soon borne away by the waves of sorrow and lost in darkness and distance, without one. King of three realms quickly come along, steal me to the moon and bring me along to all universes. Dance with the millions of stars and pleasantly sleep on your warm embrace.”

“Princess, you are the only successor of the Witch of Water, please don’t be sad and care about your health.” A beautiful servant gracefully made her way to the princess, “Before traveling to the moon and all universes, please finish your milk first.”

The princess glared angrily at her servant.

“What? You are just a nine years old brat trying to be a thousand years old witch, go to sleep or I will spank your butt!”

She pulled out her tongue and hurried to hide under animal fur blanket. “The fated one to conquer three realms, will soon face the god of fire, Agni. May you tell who will come to victory?”

“I don’t care.” The servant raised her shoulder.

“Argghhh...” The little princess hugged herself. “To calamities you survive, to my heart you win, fulfill the destiny before life, you and me together as one. Come my prince, quickly conquer my sorrowful dungeon heart, before I wither by age.”

The servant rolled her eyes, “Kids nowadays!”

“Hattchhii...” Jaime sneezed. “Who is talking behind me?”

After a two hours journey in the air, Jaime reached the City of Fire, the capital city of Kingdom of Liberty. It was still three hours before sun rise. “Alright, let’s have a briefing about our plan.”

Jaime was talking to himself. “To kill the king is easy, to conquer the country won’t be easy. Because when the king dies, his successor will take the throne. So, before taking down the king, it is better to capture his generals and ministers.”

“Most of his generals and ministers are the tribe’s leaders. Kingdom of Liberty has a total of ten tribes. Hmm... the idea is sneaking and attacking them one by one and use a soul contract to make them docile in one week. After that, I will take down the king and have the kingdom with their support. Perfect plan, perfect plan, I am the smartest person alive.”

Jaime’s level now was 71 in the King Realm. Two days ago his level was still on 68 and he exchange 3 levels to get one of the coolest martial arts techniques.

[ The art of tiny fairy. Tiny fairy has a secret technique which was only passed down for their own kind. It is an eating energy’s technique and was created because they don’t like to kill. When they take down their enemy, they let them live, but sucking their cultivation energy dry.

Exchange with 30 levels (normal) and 3000 mental energies. Or 3 levels when in the Patriarch Realm and 3000 mental energies.]

Jaime starting to understand, Book of Karma exchange was not based on the level, but with the spiritual energy that raised his level. Imagine, to reach level 30, a normal person needs about 3,000,000 points of spiritual energies and in the Patriarch Realm, 3,000,000 points of spiritual energies only can raise 3 levels. Because the higher the level the harder it is to level up. The Book of Karma will only deduce that 3,000,000 points to exchange it with information. It is for stabilizing the accounting of karma in the universe.

When he kidnapped the Great General Tu Xi, Jaime used this technique to hit his dantian ( one-two inch below the naval, it is place where cultivators confine spiritual energy inside their body ). When Jaime's attack hit the general Tu Xi's dantian, his dantian shattered and Jaime sucked all of his spiritual energy into his body and raised his level again.

Well, he raised his level to 71 after kidnapping the other generals, major generals and other free energy pouches.

“City of Fire, welcome your future king to your kingdom. Huahahaha...” Jaime snickered, with a lot of bad ideas in his mind about how to kidnap each tribe's leader. As he snuck into the City of Fire in the middle of the night, suddenly the top of wall lit up. Hundreds of torchlights appeared and thousands of soldiers had bows and fire arrows aiming at him.

“Shoot!” The general commanded to attack.

Thousands of fire arrows flew at Jaime. In a millisecond, Jaime's movement stopped. His mind recorded his surrounding and move real fast to find a way out from this catastrophe. Since his mind move faster than real-time, it seems like everything froze.

After three to four simulations in his mind, Jaime found the best way to protect his lovely flying beast. He quickly let the flying beast enter his storage space on the back of his right hand and faced the thousand arrows alone.

“I was thinking to use my flying beast to cover me and use its back as stepping to fly higher on the sky, but my lovely bird would die because all of you.” Jaime was boiling with rage. “It is a thousand times better to lose my arm than losing my property!”

A hail of fire arrows ascended from the walls and towers aimed at Jaime. The arrowheads burning with fire, had small pouches hanging on it. The arrows shot fast. When it was one meter away from Jaime, one old Witch of Fire hit her staff to the ground and screamed loudly. “Explode!”

The thousand arrowheads detonated together. A huge flame was exploded, blazing the dark sky. Jaime found himself immediately surrounded by raging blue fire and a thousand explosion attack. The flame’s heat crazily hit Jaime from all directions, leave him no way out.

King of Liberty, Dong Gi, harden his fist and smiled. “Even if you are on the King realm, you won’t easily get out without injuries. That fire can easily melt metal and carried a poison! Fated king of three realms, you are just a cockroach in front of me.”

A black charcoal human body fell from the sky and crushed one house.

“Soldiers capture him!” shouted the general.

Hundreds of soldiers rushed to the broken house. Before reaching the house, one by one surprisingly knelt and fainted. One black body walked out from the broken house.

“Do you think I bought a complete set of high-grade armor at heart-attacking prices for nothing?” Jaime moved difficultly, his body swayed and blood was on his lips. There was the Sword of Mother Earth in his hand. Even if his armor could hold the flame, the exploded waves had hit his body hard and there were about a thousand waves that rammed his body spontaneously.

“Prepare the arrows! He will die with the second attack.”

Jaime stabbed the sword to the ground and let his King Realm aura spread further. The low-level soldiers couldn't resist the aura and knelt. “I am your king! Kneel at my presence!” Jaime was holding a rage inside his body and tried to control it. His aura really was terrific and caused some witches to scam far away.

Dong Gi, King of Liberty, the strongest person in the kingdom and leader of Fire Tribe, jumped high and used his long spear to hit Jaime.

“Die you insect!”

“A mere Patriarch Realm dares to show your face at me!” Jaime released his rage and swung widely his sword. He launched an attack at Dong Gi without caring for his own life. The King of Liberty was surprised, he was brave enough to launched attack because he thought Jaime was fatally injured and poisoned. What he met was a furious wounded Lion. Dong Gi rapidly shifted his spear for defense.

If he continued attack, they would hit each other and of course with Jaime's armor and his attack as a King Realm martial artist; Dong Gi will perish in millisecond.

The Sword of Mother Earth met Dong Gi's spear with a loud bang.

Dong Gi's feet sank a few centimeters to the ground, his hand's bones broke and his spear bent like a bow; the edge of sword cut his shoulder and caused his back to be crushed to the ground. Dong Gi vomited a lot of blood, he was fatally injured just by one attack. He never thought that he would face such a tremendous power.

“You think I don't have rage inside me! I almost had killed twenty people when I was young. But that caused Ye Xiu to cry painfully. So I hid my anger this long!” Jaime's king aura exploded again and hit the other generals who wanted to save their king. The generals pushed back without being able to do anything. A lot of them vomited blood and felt their breath become heavy. A death shadow hanging on their face. “I am going to massacre all of you right now!”

Suddenly an image of Ye Xiu crying flashed in his mind. Jaime's eyes which were full of anger suddenly abate. He quickly controlled himself and simmered down his killing intent. Letting the people around him feel free from the pressure.

“Die For me!” Jaime moved at high-speed and punched Dong Gi's dantian. Dong Gi screamed out loud, he felt like all of his cultivation shattered in millions of pieces and were gone in the thin air. As for Jaime, he roared as his level rose to level 75. His aura had become more majestically and no one could stand in front of him anymore. His hand speedy stole Dong Gi's space ring.

“Kneel in front of your king or die!” Jaime roared again and the surrounding houses broke by his sound wave. All of the soldiers were shaken to their bones, some willingly and fully laid down on the ground, begging for their lives.

Some witches far away had thrown the last one thousand slave into a big fire. “Our mighty god of fire, come and save your descendant from misfortune!”

***

“It is starting!” The little princess screamed happily, Witch of Water sat on her bed. Her both eyes shone brightly in blue color. “Oh my bravest knight, walk the hardest path to be the king, under millions stars convene the god of fire to win over my heart. Arrghhh.... you are melting my heart ~”

The position of the Water Kingdom was hundred thousand miles from Jaime’s place. Yet, she could see everything in front of her blue eyes.

***

“You a mere human want me to kneel to you!” A very loud voice caused the earth to shaken. Its roar was a hundred times stronger than Jaime’s. Even Jaime in the King Realm vomited blood, caused by the voice’s aura and wave.

A five meter giant of fire made its way to Jaime. Houses and barns in a one hundred meters radius of the giant fire, suddenly blaze up in flame. The fire surrounded Jaime and the giant fire. Some soldiers burned and scream miserably. Everything quickly turned into total chaos. The city became a sea of fire.

“My name is Agni, the god of fire!” The giant stopped closer to Jaime. “I am the king of all fire!”

Jaime locked his eyes and was shocked reading its status.

[ Agni, the god of fire, level 405 God Realm. The Witch of Fire were direct descendant of Agni. They have a secret ceremony method to call over the God of Fire to the universe, exchanged with one thousand souls under fire. The only way to return Agni to its realm is to extinguished all of the fire in one kilometer radius of Agni.]

The giant’s body radiated a very high heat and the fire was burning on its body incredibly. “Little human, are you the one threatening my descendant? A mere insect in my presence, kneel now!” Its god aura spread like a hurricane, houses around him crushed into pieces and flew to the sky. The fire exploded and rampaged wildly.

Jaime felt his knees trembling and a mighty force was strongly pushing him to kneel. “F*ck you! I only kneel in front of rich people who give me money and the Creator. A mere god like you!” Jaime hardened his feet and his fists “Little Agni! Kneel in presence of your king! Or you will regret it forever.”

Agni launched a tornado flame to the sky and roared. He rushed at Jaime and made his big fist attack Jaime. “Die Human!!!!”

Jaime also swung his Sword of Mother Earth to meet Agni’s big Fist. “Die little god!!!”

Chapter 43: Farewell

Zhuang Zi was a butterfly, he flew around flowers happily. He flew up, flew down, dancing in the flower field carried by the autumn wind. As he was tired, he descended upon a flower and slept. When he awoke, he found himself laid down on his bed inside his house. Then he asked himself, “Am I Zhuang Zi who dreamed to be a butterfly, or am I a butterfly who dreamed to be a Zhuang Zi.”

What is this life?

Are we dreaming to be humans in a universe created by The Mighty Creator and playing a drama with others while thinking its real? Maybe our true selves, the real us, are somewhere staying in the Kingdom of Creator. We never went away from Creator. Or there was no creator and we just appeared from nowhere and when we die, we will have no memories, no us, nothing. Then what is life? So why are we afraid to die?

The answer was very simple, as long as we live, good thing will happen to us sooner or later. So please don't die, don't suicide, but if you must suicide, please do a few good things before you die! Take all of your stuff and give it to people in need, or do a good deed for a week before you suicide. It will give you a good amount of good karma and will help you to reincarnate to be a better human.

But... if you really... really want to suicide and don't really care where you will be after you die, please do one last good deed. Take whoever bullied you or hurt you with you. At least, you will clean out one bad person* from this world. (*need parent supervision before doing whatever you think right about suicide, so asked your parents how to do a good suicide, like having a life insurance three months before suicide, or how to make it NOT like suicide and blame someone.)

Jaime understood, he doesn't have any chance to win this fight. He was only focusing on how to take Agni, god of fire, to accompany him to the hell! Level 75 fighting a level 405, it was simply suicide. Yet he didn't want to die alone.

Agni, the five meter giant swung his big fist at Jaime

“You want to kill me! We will die together!” Jaime rushed at Agni's fist and swung his sword. Suddenly he jumped high to target Agni's head with the sword of Mother Earth. The sword shone brightly in yellow color and looked alive, answering Jaime's spirit.

***

A few minutes ago.

In the City of Fire's prison, one old man opened his eyes. “The Sword of Mother Earth is coming here! The earth will be shaken and the world must accept his destiny as the fated king of three realms from the human race!”

Inside the prison there were ten people. One old man heard it and said. “King of Deserted Forest, Chu Wan, leader of Earth Tribe, are you telling the truth?”

“Leader of Sand Tribe, Ghu Ra, I won't lie to you. Even if I had lost my cultivation; my affinity to the earth hasn't gone. I came to your kingdom, to present The Sword of Mother Earth to your king, in hopes of your king taking care of my people like his tribes on his kingdom. Yet he refused it."

"Of course he will refuse it." One old woman suddenly appeared in front of the jail and opened the iron bar door.

"Witch of fire, Elder Xun," Ghu Ra was surprised to see that important person come to the jail. "What are you doing here?"

"Chu Wan, don't tell me your Witch of Wood didn't tell you about the prophecy!" Elder Xun sighed, "Your kingdom has the same fate with my kingdom, the fated one of three realms will have The Sword of Mother Earth and Heart of Agni. He will unite our kingdoms and be the king of us. He will bring us to prosperity and prepare war with demons and gods. Your plan, by coming here alone was to make the prophecy become true. By putting the Sword of Mother Earth near the Heart of Agni, to welcome the fated one."

Elder Xun sat by the prison. "Our king knew your plan so he moved the sword far far away from here, to a kingdom who doesn't believe in prophecy and the witch. Who can believe the sword is now here with the fated one, he will soon to take the Heart of Agni. Everything has been written. Not many people can run from their fate."

Chu Wan stood enthusiastically. "If he is already here, why don't you people just give him the Heart of Agni and welcome the prophecy! The future king will lead us to glory and prosperity!"

Elder Xun shook her head. "You know why the Leader of Sand Tribe and other leaders of our tribes are prisoned here with you? Because Dong Gi, our king, never wanted to let down his position! With some Witches of Fire, he has prepared to summon God of Fire Agni with the Heart of Agni. Our god will kill the fated one!”

“It can’t happen!” Chu Wan frustrated. “He is our king, the fated one. He must not be killed! He must lead us humans!”

“All of you get out from here. The fated one had wasted Dong Gi with one moved. As for his fight with Agni, we will see together, is the prophecy true or will Agni trample it.” Elder Xun walked away from the prison, followed by the entire prisoners. They ran out from the prison and rushed to the place where Agni and The fated one fought. The houses and building in their surroundings burned wildly, fire could be seen everywhere.

At that time they were watching a young man jumped to attack Agni’s head with the shining Sword of Mother Earth.

Chu Wan hardens his fist. “Our fated king will kill Agni and grab his heart. The Heart of Agni, together with the sword, he will lead us and bring our kingdoms to prosperity!”

***

“You want to attack me, human?” Agni’s fist movement changed direction from below to up, aiming at Jaime in the sky. “Die!!!

Jaime’s intention was clearly to cut Agni’s head, yet The Sword of Mother Earth unexpectedly vanishing from Jaime's hand. His face suddenly showed a cunning smile. As Agni's fist closed in on Jaime, he raised his foot to accept the fist.

"Go die!" roared Agni releasing all his might, determined to destroy Jaime to pieces with one hit.

Jaime's Boots of Wing broke into pieces by the attack. Jaime could feel the shock from his foot transmitted all over his body and he vomited blood. Clearly his legs bones were broken, yet Jaime used the momentum of Agni fist's attack and kicked the Agni's fist hard and shot into the dark sky.

"Ciaoooo Agni! Nice to meet you!"

Agni saw his enemy's body shot away like a bullet into the dark sky, even if he wanted to chase, everything was already too late. He had helped his enemy escape in high-speed.

The Witch of Fires was astonished by seeing Jaime leave the City of Fire so easily, even after they had difficulty summoning the mighty powerful God of Fire.

Chu Wan, Elder Xun, Ghu Ra and the other prisoners also became dumbstruck. The fated one, the one they thought of as their future king, ran away in the first fight and completely destroyed their hope.

Jaime soared into the dark sky while laughing. He rapidly channels the movement of wind to fly higher. From up in the sky he looked down and observed The City of Fire. It really didn't put its name into shame. Everything inside the city, building, house, barn, soldiers, peasants and children were burning in fire.

Hanging himself on the air, watching mothers and children crying caused Jaime to be angry. "How dare you burn innocent people! They are mine; they haven't paid their taxes to me, or work for me, yet you had been burning them alive! They are worth something only alive!"

He took out twenty calling rain talismans and a lot of spiritual stones. He had used almost all his spiritual energy and needed help from the spiritual stones to activate the talismans. "Go full power and cause a super ultra-heavy rain on the City of Fire!"

Spiritual stones crumble into dust after their energy moved to the talismans. The calling rain's talismans tremble and floated into the air, together they cause a violent storm with very strong wind. The dark clouds speedy assemble and the thunders were getting louder and louder.

A super ultra-heavy rain—twenty times the normal rain—was pouring down heavily to the City of Fire. Feeling satisfy, Jaime wanted to continue his escape when he saw a big fire speedy rush at him.

"Eat this!" Agni shot at Jaime and hit him real hard.

Jaime ate Agni's attack raw, his ultra-high grade and expensive armor shatter into pieces, his body launched higher into the dark sky. He felt everything spinning around and couldn't balance his body. He pushed his mind to work in maximum speed to find a way out.

Save life! Armor! Fire!

“Book of Karma, give me all information about items inside King of Liberty’s storage ring!” Jaime was hoping the king will have some armor to protect him from fire. He doesn’t have much time to check one by one as Agni has shot to attack him again from below.

“Heavy rains do nothing to me; my fire is burned by one thousand souls, you can’t make it die!” Agni speedily rushed at Jaime.

The information from the Book of Karma quickly took his mental energy and gave him complete information.

“Today, will you die or I die!” Jaime felt his ribs broken in many places. This will be his last act. He pulled out a big barrel from his storage ring and shot it down at Agni with all his strength, and quickly repeated it. There were a total of eight barrels shot at Agni. “Eat those!”

Jaime hastily turned his body into the dark sky and flew higher with his last strength.

Agni glared at the barrels, sneered and lightly tossed it away. The moment the barrel touch Agni’s flame, it exploded with big blue flame. The explosion contacted the other barrels and a detonated chain explosions activated. A deafening booming’s sound vibrated through the sky, shaking the people in the City of Fire. When they looked up into the sky, for a second, the sky was already filled with an ultra-huge explosion, the huge blue flame was blazing in the dark sky and burned everything in the sky in radius one kilometers. It lit up the night.

The explosion's wave on the sky hit them real hard and caused them to fall back.

“What happening?” asked Chu Wan.

Elder Xun, the Witch of Fire, looked in shocked. “It is a special mixture powder made by a Fire Tribe expert. A little amount that blue flame powder may cause a big explosion and poison its surrounding. The fated one detonated more than seven barrels, those were more than enough to destroy two cities!”

The explosion showed a huge blue flame rampaging. Chu Wan and the others were already more than ten kilometers from the explosion but the heat still burning their skin.

Jaime completely engulfed by the blue flame was totally burnt, his skin and his hair. “Arggghhhhh!”

As fast as the fire exploded, the blue flame was also gone by a millisecond. The sky completely darken and not even one tiny fire could be found.

Jaime's body fell from the sky. His body was charcoal black and burned to a crisp, his hair was totally gone and he couldn't move even one of his fingers. His lip were smiling.

“Fight fire with fire, the ultra-huge blue flame explosions ate all the oxygen in the sky and made a vacuum around Agni for a millisecond and that was enough to put off all of the fire around Agni and that little god can't find another fire to escape around one kilometer. Eat that simple science little god! Dare to fight a human!"

Agni vanished into thin air and left only one fire orb. The orb was its core to summon Agni and the highest secret treasure of Kingdom of Liberty, the Heart of Agni. It fell into the middle of thick forest.

Jaime also free fell into the forest. Since he could do nothing, his energy totally clean, he smiled and sighed. "Ye Xiu, I am sorry."

World, again and again You gave me hardship Yet, I faced it again and again

This one fought hard and won Have no regret meets Creator Cause this one did his best

Farewell world I hate you like you hate me But I forgive you

So let me sleep beneath you Join me with my lover's bone Farewell... may we meet again old friend

His body pounded to the ground from high sky. His bones broke again and Jaime lost his consciousness. His lip drip a black blood, his body has poisoned by blue flame. That flame slowly consumed his bone and meat by time. Jaime had resisted it with his cultivation all along, now the poison broke loose and ravished inside his body.

THE END

Thanks for reading this story...

[ CONTINUE ] [ EXIT ]

“Of course continue! Like hell I am going to exit like this. This handsome one had only conquered one princess! Where is my harem! Where are the other 999 girls?” Jaime sighed. “There was a time where there wasn’t any personal game player’s machine, like Spica, Nintendo, Sega, Play station, X-Box, etc. People on that time must play on arcade machine and the words ‘continue’ always meant insert another coin.”

“Since this ‘continue’ need no money or insert coin, of course I will hit it till I win all games or the machine breaks.”

“It just like living in this world, as long as you are alive, you can do everything you want. Never push ‘reset’ button, but always push the ‘continue’ button, till you win the game or the world kicks you out, because you are too cool and too handsome, stubbornly staying alive! Even the world and everyone wants you to die!”

“Doing wrong things are normal for being human. Facing hardship and trouble is normal for being alive. Forcefully pushing the reset button is not normal. Because there are a lot of happiness still waiting for you in advance, always remember whatever didn’t kill you will only make you stronger! So my friends, never die, keep being stronger and stronger. Happiness will come to you soon or later.”

***

Jaime, as he was falling from the sky, before he hit the ground, he accessed the Book of Karma and said one thing. “Book of karma, I need information about the best cultivation to eject poison, to heal my body in the fastest way and need only about 75 levels of mine. Choose the best and execute it even when I am unconscious.”

Even Jaime fell hard and unconscious, Book of Karma choose the best cultivation for him. The number one cultivation in three realms,

[The Cultivation of King Rakhsasa ( Titan ). The Main God Brahma gave a boon to a rakhsasa named Ravana after his meditation for 10,000 years.

That boon was the cultivation of King Rakhsasa, which was used by the king of three realms previously, Maharaja Vali. Maharaja Vali was known as King of three realms, also the killer of god Indra, the king of all god and goddess. He controlled three realms for a thousand years until Main God Vishnu took him away.

Ravana, King of Asura, used this cultivation to trample god's realm. Removed god Indra from the throne and became the king of three realms. He only could be killed by the Main God Visnu as Rama.

Exchanged with : 10,000 levels and 100,000 mental energy.

There are 100 chapters of this cultivation. The first chapter of this cultivation will be exchanged with 75 levels

First Chapter = The Body of Rakhsasa

The body of Rakhsasa was known as the toughest body in the three realms even more than god. Rakhsasa was also known as Titan, the father of god. Their bodies heal fast and are invulnerable to poison.]

[Book of karma taking 75 levels from host body, leave the main host body on level 0]

[Book of Karma begins to change the information of main host's DNA, changing it into the information of Rakhsasa's DNA]

Inside Jaime's body, a massive change took place. Things like a silk worm appeared from inside his body and covered him like a cocoon. The cocoon has a blue color and full of poison.

[The Rakhsasa/ Titan was oldest Almighty creature, they gave birth to god and the ancestor of asura (demon), their bloodline would always be the king of Asura.]

Chapter 44: The First Time Love Born

What was the most important thing inside the universe?

Jaime was warm, safe, and in deep slumber inside his cocoon. His heart beat slowly and memories of his past gave him a smile. He felt warm and loved, just like a baby inside a womb. He was remembering a time when Ye Xiu smiled lovingly to him and softly hugged him on a white big bed with a soft blanket.

They were watching a modern city scenery from their apartment window, doing nothing for a whole day. Just hugging each other and feeling each other warmth. They were not rich but they never lacked of anything. They just led a simple life and were grateful with everything they had.

Jaime smiling said, “I am feeling loved by you. Your love makes me want to sleep for an eternity in your embrace. May this moment be an eternity.”

Ye Xiu replied mellifluously, “Do you know what love is and where it came from?”

He shook his head and answered, “I don’t, but now that I have the Book of Karma I can ask, it knows everything and records everything. Wait a second, I will tell you.”

The Book of Karma shone brightly and Jaime lost his consciousness.

By the time he awoke, he was a soldier fighting for glory and power. The universe was controlled by the power and the strongest will of the king of everything. Jaime was craving for power and eagerly willing to give his everything to reach the top of the throne. He fought hard, became a general, then fought hard to be a king. He conquered his world and followed deities/deva/gods to learn about their power. He was a smart soul and learned the fastest among anyone and was always focus. After thousands of years, he began to conquer the gods and demons, making him the top of everything. He had tremendous power; no one in three realms could take him down. He led the three realms for five thousand years and his soldiers had gone farther and farther to the end of the universe to conquer the infinity universe.

Once he was craving for power, now he didn't know what he really wanted anymore. One day he shouted to God. "I want to be stronger but I can't find someone stronger than me. God, if you are stronger than me then fight with me!"

God came, "What do you want? Inside the universe everything is yours but why don't you look happy?"

"God, I want to know, who is the strongest inside the universe?"

God waved his hand and Jaime saw an illusion of a mother taking care of his babies.

"They are tiny creature, they have no power."

"Can you see the light between them and the bright bond between them? That bond is the strongest of everything. Even your power will not be worth a dust in front of it.”

Jaime was angry and tried to hit the light with all his power, yet the light between them kept getting stronger and stronger.” Jaime backed away and said, “God, I admit. It is stronger than everything, how can I have it? I want it, what it is called?”

“It is called love, the strongest power ever. It is at the very top of all power.”

“Where can I find it?”

God disappeared without giving an answer. So Jaime went undercover. He went to one world and became a lonely shepherd. He went to a mountain and knocked on a house. A mother opened the door. “Who are you? What are you doing here?”

“I am a shepherd, I heard you have a little son. Do you have love? I need it.”

“What is love?” asked the Mother. “I don’t have that thing. Go away.”

“It is like a bond between mother and son or daughter.” Jaime didn’t know what love was until God showed him love. “It is something warm, light and caring about your son. Don’t you have it?”

“No!” said the mother, “Why must I have it?”

“Then why are you raising them, if you don’t have love?”

The mother pushed the shepherd away. “I gave birth to a baby, so he can work for me. When he is an adult, he will protect me from bad things and I want him to give me a lot of money.”

The shepherd shook his head. “You don’t have love; you are raising a slave. What kind of mother you are!” Jaime killed them all and destroyed the whole village.

Then he went to a city near sea. He went undercover as a poor person. He sat on the road and asked for money. People laughed at him. Even as he sat there for three years and millions of people had passed him, no one ever gave him something.

Because people struggled to live, they hardly fight. They used power to get everything they wanted, they never gave anything! Jaime’s tears fell. He suddenly felt so sad. The memories of a mother, son, and a warm bright light made him suffer and feel empty at the same time. He kind of wanted that thing called love.

He saw a son dragged his old mother to the street and threw her fiercely. “When I was young, you could force me! Now, I am old enough to fight back. Do you think you can control me! I am your boss now. If you don’t follow me, not do what I command you, what use are you for me? You can die now.”

People on the street looked at the old mother and said. “Yeah, she is old already, you should kill her faster. She will only waste your food.”

“Yeah, I had killed my mother when I could raise a sword.”

“Me, I poison my mother and freed myself.”

The old mother screamed and raised a short knife to stab her son. “I still have the power to kill you!”

The crowd surrounded the mother and son’s fight and cheered loudly. The son hit his mother face again and again, causing his mother to bleed. Yet, people cheering louder for the fight. Jaime sighed, this place really had no love. Power was the most important thing. So he didn’t need this place. Jaime raised his stick and caused the whole city to be destroyed by a tsunami. Talking about power, he was at the top of everyone and everything. Yet, he had nothing.

He continued his journey to find love; the more he wanted to find love, the thirstier his soul. The more he walked through his universe, the more he knew all of those things were useless. He destroyed some universes, some planets, and even slowly destroyed his own soul. The desire to be strong once led him to the king of thee realms. Now it had caused a lot of pain for him. The yearning to find love.

His journey, five thousand years into every corner of the universes gave him nothing. He had asked his soldiers to find love, but no one ever knew it, so they never found it. Jaime felt tired and didn’t know what to do anymore. His life had changed at the time he knew about love. If he never knew about love, he would not be like this. Once he knew, he couldn’t get away from it. Because he had known of the thing that greater than power. It made him look down on power. Power was worth nothing.

Yet, he couldn't find where love was although he knew it. Madly chasing something the universe didn't have.

In his tiring soul and body, he ended up destroying the whole planet, causing the entire plant to become deserted. "God! You lied to me! There is no love in the entire three realms, I had searched thoroughly and I found nothing! What really is the thing you showed me? Why is my heart always longing for it. TELL ME!"

But he got no one to answer his question. With a lonely, painful, and shattered soul, he bowed his head in defeat. At that time he looked at his feet, between his feet, there was one tiny plant with three leaves struggling to survive. This tiny plant survived because its position under his body, but its surrounding had turned into a desert.

"Power is all you need to survive, little plant. In this whole planet with only you alone, how can you survive in this deserted planet?" He sat weakly beside the small little plant. "You know, power is the most important. With power you can grow big and dominate this whole planet."

Jaime stared blankly at the desert and sighed." I used my whole life to fight for power. But I feel alone in this universe. Don't you think me and you are the same?" Jaime tears fell slowly. "Having the greatest power with me, no one can be with me. And you who have no power, no one can be with you. I am tired of this life, but one of us must survive, I will give my power to you, so grow big. I need nothing from you, just survive."

Jaime had great power; he created rain and controled the rain so it will fall on the little plant periodically. He touched the leaf and let his power flow into the little plant. "Grow big tiny plant, I don't have anything except my power...”

At that time he saw the bright light again for the first time, the bright light with a warm feeling. Jaime laughed and cried at the same time.

“Little plant,” said Jaime to the plant. “This all long, God had passed the seed of love inside my heart, yet, I never sow it. I looked for love, but how can love bloom, if I never sow it. I give you my power without wanting anything for you, that create love and it shared from me to you. I will give you everything I have. So you will have the seed of love. I just hope you will sow the seed of love to everywhere and grow bigger to spread the love to all universes.”

“In here, there are not only you and me, but there are three of us, me, you and love. All of us are alone and can’t live without each other. Love is my dream, love is your brother. It is like you, small, alone, and can’t do anything. But it will grow with you and take its first journey to the universe from you. I gave you my power, my life, and this love to you. Don’t let love die with you. It is the only one in this whole universe.”

Jaime died as all his power passed to the little tree. Time quickly passed by. The little plant grew bigger and bigger. The rain gave life and the wind spread its seeds to everywhere. Life occurred from the sea, creature by creatures walked out slowly. Time passed rapidly.

The tree let birds make their nest between its branches. One bird asked it confused. “Why do you want to help us? You are a talking tree. Usually, we force trees to let us make nests on them, and they become angry.”

“Little bird,” said the tree, “Once I was little, a king of three realms gave me his life to protect me and let me grow with my brother. What I share with you is my brother, love.”

“Tree, what is love?”

“Love is the strongest power under the universe. It will shine brightly. It is like when you protect your little babies.”

“Why must I protect them? They can grow by themselves. I won’t protect them for nothing.”

“When they are weak, you protect them with love and care for them. Not using power to force them, you give them love and then someday they will give you back their love when you are weak. So they won’t use power to force you.”

One human below the tree listen to the conversation and said. “Tree, when I was hungry, I didn’t even have power to climb you and take your fruit. You deliberately let your fruit fall beside me and saved my life. Aren’t you scared that when I am strong enough, I will cut you down?”

“I gave you fruit is to share love. It is my brother wish. As for what you will do next is your business, I won’t regret it. Because one of the greatest man under the universe had gave me this life and love together.”

“Tree, if I love my son, show him love and kindness, not power, someday when I grow old and weak he will show his kindness and love to me, not power? Like you did to me when I am weak?”

“Human,” said the tree. “If you never change, if you never share love, nothing will change. When you sow the love and kindness, you can hope for its fruit later. Why don’t you try it first?” The tree let a few fruits fall beside him. “Take it with love, my brother, share it to anyone you find. Let my brother start its journey.”

The human nodded, he took the fruits and moved out from the tree. The tree kept giving its love to birds, little animals, bees and every creature. The animals also showed love between them. After long years passed, a human came back to the tree and brought his family.

“Tree, I think love is the greatest than power. I can’t live at my tribe anymore, please protect me and my family here. Let us live inside love.” The family kept getting bigger and bigger. They shared love with each other and grew as the Tribe of Wood. The little tree grew to become the greatest tree ever on the planet, as big as a little mountain. It shared its body, fruits, and everything it had to spread love to the sky, earth, and every creature inside.

The tribe shared love to everyone of them and after thousands of years, the love spread from that planet to all universes and fill it with its seeds.

After millions of years, people easily found love, but if they didn’t sow love and only want to take it without giving it. Someday love will vanish from all universes again.

“Ye Xiu that was the story of the first-born love. It was just like when the first time you took me in when I am alone and hungry. You showed me love for the first time.” Jaime smiled. “Without that, I would have never known what love is. I will become a bad guy wanting for power... Ye Xiu... Ye Xiu...”

Jaime suddenly realized Ye Xiu had gone. He cried, then rushed to the darkness and struggled. “Bring back my Ye Xiu... God, please bring her back! I will do everything! Don’t take out my only light in this life! You will only leave me in the darkness without her!”

Jaime awoke and checked his surroundings in confusion. He found himself naked in a forest. A not really great or fertile forest. It was a dry forest hanging on its last breath. Jaime found a broken blue cocoon below him.

“Where am I?” Jaime tried to remember everything. “I fought with the god of Fire, Agni and...” He quickly checked his body. His skin was smooth like a baby. His body had transformed into a built body which only Hollywood’s sexiest actors have. Jaime touched his head; there were hairs. He touched his chin and his face. Jaime nodded, he never doubt that he had a face like a Tom Cruise from Hollywood. That he had a romantic feeling like Shah Rukh Khan from Bollywood, and had a good personality like Jackie Chan from Mandarin film.

Ahhh... if I add more, maybe I will make the biggest sin to all humanity.

Jaime saw the tattoo of his space storage still on the back of his hand, but the color has dimmed. As he tried to channel his energy, he realized that he had no spiritual energy.

“Book of Karma, what is my status?”

[Jaime, level 0, human, has a body of rahksasa.]

Suddenly an arrow flew and stabbed Jaime's thigh. It entered 10 centimeter into his thigh!

“Animal!”

“Fu*K, can't you see this super handsome guy in front of you!”

The big person rushed quickly at Jaime and moved his short knife to stab him.

Chapter 45: Primitive Man

Saying love was forbidden was the same as saying it was forbidden to be a girl. Saying fighting was forbidden was the same as saying it was forbidden to be a boy. Saying arrogance was forbidden was the same as saying it was forbidden to be a god. Saying freedom was forbidden was the same as saying it was forbidden to be a demon. Saying hate was forbidden was the same as saying it was forbidden to be a human! You can hit me and I can't hit you. What kind of logic is that!

The logic of humanity was when you stab me once; I will stab you ten times! I will give bonus kicks and spit too!

Jaime glared angrily at the big guy. Even if his level was a big zero, in his past life, he had learned something like Aikido, using no force to move a big force, using no strength to conquer great strength. With the right movement he can easily waste a big guy with knife.

He waited for the big guy to come closer and grab the right timing to...

Jaime's eyes became focus as the big guy got closer. As the timing got nearer, Jaime moved his legs and quickly knelt.

"Don't kill me, please don't kill me, let me survive, you can make me your slave or sell me as a slave too, just don't kill me."

The big guy stopped his movement and scratched his head. "You know, I didn't aim at you. I am a hunter in this place, when I saw you, I thought you were an animal. So I shot an arrow. I am so sorry. I am rushing with my knife to take the arrow out from you, because it is poisoned. I must quickly take it out or you will....”

He checked Jaime, who showed no poisoning signs. “Are you okay?”

“Of course not, you see that arrow stabbing my thigh!”

The big guy scratched his head. “That poison is supposed to paralyze you... But you still are active like a haughty animal.”

“Do you have any medicine?” protested Jaime checking the arrow on his thigh and blood flew out.

The big guy checked if Jaime was okay, no sign of poisoned. “You are a man and have big balls, can’t you hold the pain?”

Jaime sighed sadly. “What are you talking about? Even if ten arrows stabbed me, I still can run for a day. It just, this one, if it is not cured soon, it will leave a scar and cause my wife to be angry and kill me. You know, my skin is merchandise. If it has a scar, it will lower its value. I usually rent per hour.”

“I don’t know what you are talking about,” The big guy gave Jaime two leaves.

“What are these?” asked Jaime in confusion.

“Your medicine, you chew it and put on your wound.”

“No pill or something like ointment?”

“I don’t have something expensive like that!” The big guy looked around and sighed. “Night will come, I don’t have any animal with me, little brother, as an apology, please let me take you to our tribe.”

Jaime nodded and agreed. He didn’t know about this place and the Book of Karma gave no response after he had used his last mental energy. He didn’t have a level, spiritual, or mental energies. He tied his thighs tightly with a dried root and put the chewed leaf on the wound. Randomly get a stick to hold his body and he was ready to travel with the big guy.

“My name is Do Mu, what is your name?” asked the big guy with a stupid face.

“I am A Niu,” said Jaime to hide his identity. He didn’t know from which tribe this Do Mu come and need to be careful. They walked near an hour through a dry forest before Do Mu stopped and said proudly. “Welcome to our tribe.”

Jaime saw a very small village on the savanna. There were twenty tents and girls that don’t have clothes on the top. They only covered their lower bodies with some leaf or animal skins. The guys were the same as Do Mu, only wearing pants and unknown worthless jewelry on their necks. They looked like a nomad tribe.

Do Mu brought Jaime to one very old man. “Tribe head, I found a primitive human in the forest.”

“Primitive?” asked the Tribe head and Jaime at the same time.

Jaime never before saw anyone more primitive than this tribe, yet he was more primitive?

“Tribe head, city people have clothes, they are modern, we are normal. We have pants, this one has nothing, and is far more primitive than us.”

Jaime nodded his head. “Tribe head, the truth is I am a rich person. Bandits robbed me clean. If you can borrow for me, one spiritual stone, I will repay you 100 times.” Jaime could open his space storage if he had a spiritual stone to channel the spiritual energy.

The eyes of the tribe head opened wide like a big ball. “Spiritual stones, that legendary item!? We don’t have even if we collect all of our tribe’s properties. It won’t reach one spiritual stones!”

‘How poor can this tribe be!’

“Then I need you to take me to the nearest village, I will pay you one spiritual stone if you can take me to the rich people there.” Jaime believed once he had a spiritual stone, he could take out everything, millions of spiritual stones from his space storage.

“One spiritual stone?” The tribe head looked in awe, he never got such a profitable business like this before.

“Two spiritual stones if you do it now.”

“But it is already dark, you should wait for one more night, tomorrow we can move to the nearest city.”

Jaime didn't know where the nearest city was, but he didn't want to be here any longer. What he really wanted was to open his storage space, take his flying beast and fly back to White Lion City.

“Four spiritual stones, I will give it to you. My life is the guarantee.”

“Ouuuooouuuooouuu!!!” The tribe head suddenly yelled loudly and used an animal's horn to blow a high sound. All of the tribe members looked shocked. They quickly assembled to the Tribe head. “The rich guy want us to escort him to the city and will give us four spiritual stones! What do you think?”

“What does the shaman say?” asked one person.

“Find the old shaman.” said the tribe head.

“I am here, no need to find me.” A small old woman full of wrinkles made her way through the crowd.

“Great shaman, what do you think about this young guy.”

“He is handsome,” said the shaman shyly and glanced to Jaime. She gave a smile with only one hanging tooth.

The head tribe spoke hastily. “He asked us to escort him to the nearest village or city, he will give us four spiritual stones. What does great shaman think?”

As the many people heard four spiritual stones, they quickly became happy and talked to each other with great enthusiasm.

The great shaman checked Jaime carefully, her eyes were slowly crawling his body from up to the middle, her eyes locked on Jaime’s bird. “He has a big one, he can pregnant many women and gives healthy babies. I think it is profitable to follow him. He will bring our tribe to prosperity!”

“Hurray, The Great Shaman has spoken! We will escort him. Escort him!”

Jaime really wanted to move his hands to cover his lower body, but that lower body had saved him.

“We will follow!”

“We will escort him.”

“Yeah, we will.” The crowd scattered and back at their tents, quickly took down and packed their tents. They worked really fast, or simply, because they didn’t have many things to be packed.

At first, Jaime surprisingly looked at the one hundred forty people finishpacking their stuff, put it on their backs, and moved with the Tribe head to him. “Little rich guy, all of us will escort you to the city. Since your thigh is bleeding, please ascend to the carriage, we will take you to the city.”

Jaime climbed to one flat carriage and eight people raised the carriage on their shoulder. One whole tribe, moved out to escort Jaime.

“Wait!” Jaime shouted immediately.

“What is it!” asked the tribe head.

“Don’t you think you are suppose to give me some pants or clothes to cover my big balls? Your tribe women have looked at mine hungrily. I still love my balls!”

The Tribe head laughed. “Oh rich young master. Don’t be shy, if you have any woman you like from our tribe please tell, I will let them serve you.”

“No need,” said Jaime quickly.

“Why?”

“I don’t like women.”

The Tribe head was shocked but soon recovered and nodded. He replied with a low voice, “We have guys too!”

“I don’t swing that way too.”

“So what do you like?”

“I only love myself, I am too handsome!”

“So, your tribe can’t help me. No one from your tribe is more handsome than me and they are poor.”

The Tribe head nodded. “Yeah I think so.”

Hundreds of people moved quickly as the night started to come. They lit up a fire torch and escorted Jaime to a very big city.

“Brother!” Do Mu suddenly walked close to Jaime. “You know this one really apologizes for what I have done.”

“Don’t mention it.” Jaime checked his wound, it appeared to be regenerating at high-speed. The Titan’s body effect was really awesome.

Do Mu spoke in a low voice. “ Brother, this one has one stuff I kept secret from the tribe. I think it is very special, would you like to buy it for one spiritual stone?” Do Mu took out one red orb.

“What is this thing?” Jaime checked the orb and didn’t know anything, without the Book of Karma, he was really blind for now.

“I don’t know too. I found it in the forest while hunting. The bushes around the orb were burned out. It is a red beautiful stone. Will you buy it? Half spiritual stone is okay too. So I can buy some animals to marry Yu Na.”

Jaime looked at the orb and felt nothing, he looked at Do Mu, this guy already help him so much. He won’t treat people good to him in the worst way. “When we reach the city, I will give you a spiritual stone. If this orb worth more, I will add it later.”

“Thank you brother, you really are a good guy.” said Do Mu happily.

Jaime kept it on his pants. Not long after that, they came to cross a city.

“I think I know this city.” Jaime stared at the city. “What is this city named?”

“City of Fire!” The Head tribe said. “The biggest city here.”

As they moved closer suddenly three thousand soldiers appeared from nowhere and quickly surrounded them. They lit up torches and made the night bright like day.

From the city gate, twenty Witches of Fire came out and faced the whole tribe.

“Young master,” said the tribe head, shocked with a trembling body. “I never knew you would be this famous. They welcome you with a very high honor ceremony.”

Jaime nodded and replied “I never thought that I will be this famous too. So, we must quickly turn around, maybe they are waiting for other people, and we are just trapped in the middle.”

“Good idea,” said the Tribe head and tried to turn around with all of his tribe’s people, but the soldiers looking at them with angry faces. They wouldn’t let them move even a step.

“Where are you going in a hurry?” asked one general.

Jaime checked where the voice came, he saw a guy and recognizes this general well, General Tu Xi, but how can this general be freed from the Kingdom of Deserted Forest. As Jaime looked carefully all of the soldiers looked like soldiers that attacked Deserted Forest Kingdom.

When he was gone, he had made sure the invisible wall would still hang for at least one month, but how long has he been sleeping in the cocoon, more than a month? So the general can free himself?”

“General Tu Xi,” called Jaime bowed politely. “Long time no see. May I know what happen to the Kingdom of Deserted Forest?”

General Tu Xi laughed loudly and sneered. “There is no more Kingdom of Deserted Forest! People already long forget its name! There is only a Kingdom of Liberty now.”

Jaime shocked, seems like he has been sleeping too long, maybe years? What about Chu Mie? Did she find her knight in shining armor?

Chapter 46: No More Single

Think...

I am getting too old to Dream

But

Not old enough to not dream.

Think...

I'm going to wither before bloom

So take my honey before time rapes me Heart and age wait no more

Love, if the one forgets

Will you still remember us?

Once you bind us together

In perfection of love

Time scratch wrinkles on me

Eyes see no more,

Together with love,

I still wait for you,

The one I have entrusted my heart

Do you still remember me?

The one you stole a kiss

The one you promised to come back

Body has moved no more

Will you come before my time?

Will you still love me...?

And hug me like you used to

I am not pretty anymore
Wrinkle takes my beauty
Yet my heart still young
Like the first time you take me to meet love

Prettiest then everything you said,
Will you still see it?
Heart that longing for you eternity
Heart which stolen by your deep eyes

I am the one
Who dream to be one
With you the only one
In time of eternality one written by Nie Sa, The witch of water ( 9 years old )

“The king will return to his throne, escorted by a thousand people. Claim his throne and lead the people of his country to prosperity, which no one has ever see in a thousand years.” Nie Sa sat on her bed and her eyes shone with a bright blue color. “That country will be just a small little land than what he will rule and conquer. He will fight, he will strive for glory and I, his wife will be together with him, riding a dragon and phoenix across the universe. He will see me deeply and kiss me with great passion, he will tear my clothes and...Aucchhh!” Nie Sa glared at her servant. “Why did you hit me! It is hurt!”

Twenty witches of fire launched their fire attack at Jaime, twenty fire balls shot from their sticks to Jaime in terrific speed. Before Jaime could react, the fire balls reached a step from his face.

Yet, before Jaime even blink the fireballs suddenly disappeared without any trace. The face of the witches turned shock. One of them immediately said to the guard, “Ring the alarm, quickly! The enemy of Agni has appeared!”

Before Jaime and the tribe’s people could understand what was going on, the whole City of Fire had turned into chaos. Thousands of soldiers were running and stood at the top of wall with high alert, the torch lit up quickly and made the whole city bright like a sun in the night.

The Tribe head near Jaime spoke in awe, “If one man can cause the whole big city to be in chaos, he can die without regret! He can call himself a hero and he is truly a dragon among men.”

Jaime shook his head, “A dead person is just a dead person, who needs nothing and is worth nothing. If one man can turn the whole big city in chaos, surviving and escaping from the chaos and live to brag his deed to others, then he can call himself a hero, because he is truly a dragon among men.”

“So what should we do?” asked the Tribe head agreed with Jaime.

The Tribe head nodded. Suddenly, from the city gate, thousands of soldiers were rushing out with fifteen people as their leaders.

The Tribe head’s face turned pale and said, “No need to be dragon, I think a living worm is much better than dead dragon.”

“I think so too,” said Jaime in agreement.

“So what we do?”

“Do what we supposed to do then.”

Jaime exchanged a glimpse and nodded, seem like they have known each other for a long time and had understood each other.

As the big armies were rushing nearer and nearer, both groups stared at each other full of intense and one witch of fires looked at Jaime and shouted, “No mistaken, he was the one who fought god of Agni!”

The Tribe head quickly raised his voice in a high pitch to warn his people. The witch of fire also raised her voice and yelled out a strange voice.

Suddenly both group knelt in unison. Everyone there was kneeling on the ground including the soldiers.

“Don’t kill us! We surrender!” shouted the Tribe Head.

“Please forgive me!” yelled Jaime in hurried.

An awkward silence followed and fell over the whole place. They looked at Jaime with dumb faces. All of them were kneeling and it was all very confusing. The witch of fire and the other leaders began to doubt their hasty action. Jaime caught that doubt from their eyes and quickly stood.

Be the first one who was standing in the confusing situation.

He knew, in chaos and confusing time, who was able to be the first one to make a move will be the winner. Jaime totally knew it and forced his mind to grab the slim chance.

He raised his voice and hit his chest. He yelled, “Indeed I am your king, the only one and the mighty one! Meet god, I kill the god! Meet demon, I trample the demon! Meet humans, they bow under my awesomeness. I am the future king of three realms! Never doubt me! I am your Great king! Believe in me.”

Jaime secretly watching the leaders of the soldiers eyes. He completely didn't know who they were referring to as 'our king'. But how can Jaime let go of this chance? His motto was always take everything free and if it is not good, it is never too late to throw it away . For now, he will gratefully answer the call to be their king! If next time they realize he was a liar, he will be already far away from them.

The leaders regained their trust and a relief smile hanging on their face, yet some leaders still in doubt. Jaime understood that and said, “Just now, I asked forgiveness from all of you.”

“It is deep from my heart,” Jaime touched his heart and looked at them with great pain in his face. “Please forgive me for being so late to come, and let all of you suffering in harsh condition. But I promise you, as I am your king, I will bring all of you into prosperity! Everyone will eat to their fullest, everyone will own a big home, everyone will have a steed and the most important thing is, everyone will be a couple and married! No one will be left single anymore! The harsh days of being alone is no more!”

“Ah! My time has finally come!”

“Woman! I need woman!”

“It has been forty years since a woman ever smiled to me!” He cried.

“All hail our new king!”

Jaime nodded and felt really proud. ‘Eat my bullshit! It is free. I colored your life with hope and dreams and I will never be the one who is responsible for the pain of an unfulfilled dream.’

The leader of the fire witch stood and raised both her hand. “We never doubt you are our king, please granted us a sight of The Heart of Agni! The prove of our king!”

The soldiers were cheered loudly and wildly enthusiastic.

Jaime blinked at the witch, astonished. *‘What the f*ck is the heart of Agni!’*

The witch of fire felt Jaime didn’t want to show up the heart of Agni and continued her speech. “The heart of Agni is a symbol of our king. The red orb represents the wild-fire to conquer the enemies! The ball shape of the orb represents the universe. Whoever has the heart of Agni will have the power to conquer the whole universe! The heart of Agni itself is the king of all fire, no fire will be able to show its mighty in front of the heart of Agni, they will bow and dismiss themselves.”

Jaime nodded, ‘So it is only a red orb, luckily I have one with me.’

He took out a red orb from his pants and raised it into the sky. “This is the heart of Agni you are looking for, the almighty king of all fire!”

All witches of fire bowed deeply and soldiers cheered louder and louder.

Do Mu shocked and closed to Jaime and whispered. "It is the real Heart of Agni?"

Jaime kept his smile and raising the orb. He replied in low voice. "I don't know, they want a red orb and I have one, why? Do you want me to return the orb?"

"No," said Do Mu hastily. "The thing has been bought, cannot be returned."

"So what?"

"I was just thinking, that stuff has a lot of function. I want to raise its price to ten spiritual stones!"

Jaime painfully kept his smile. "Do you know what I want to do now?"

"What?"

"I want to smack this orb on your head!"

"Well, it will cost you 100 spiritual stones!" Do Mu slowly moved his body away.

One old woman step forward and shouted, “We also want to see The Sword of Mother Earth!”

Jaime checked the old woman and recognized her. “Oh witch of wood, it is a long time since we meet, please come closer.”

The witch of wood made her way to Jaime and bowed, “What does the king want to ask for.”

Jaime whispered to her, “You want to see the Sword of Mother Earth right?”

“Yes!”

“Then give me one spiritual stone, no, ten spiritual stones.”

“But,” The witch of wood protested.

“No but, you want to see, then you have to pay!”

The witch of wood looked at her surroundings, if Jaime couldn't show the sword, she will be put to shame too. In agony, she took out three spiritual stones and gave it to Jaime.

“Only three!” Jaime looked in disdain.

“Only three you said, it is already all my tribe's possession!”

Jaime shook his head, “How poorer all of you can be?” with spiritual stones in his hand, he channeled the spiritual energy from the stone into the back of hand, his space storage pouch’s symbol. He easily took out one big and yellow sword and raised it into the sky.

“It is The Sword or Mother Earth!”

“He has The Sword of Mother Earth and The Heart of Agni, He is the chosen one, our great king.”

“The witches’ prophecy was right!”

“He came to unite the kingdom!”

The leader of the witch of fire and nine leaders bowed and shouted in unison, “The ex-kingdom of Liberty and its ten tribes swear its loyalty to our king!”

The witch of wood and the four leaders bowed and shouted in unison, “The ex-kingdom of Deserted Forest and its five tribes swear its loyalty to our king!”

“The Enemy attack!” The panic sound of one soldier quickly turned everyone into alert.

All leaders and soldiers looked at the source of sound and they got a terrible shock when they saw thousands of soldiers walking out from the dark forest. They wore complete sets of armors and brought weapons. Their face appeared tired.

The old woman said, “They are the sworn enemy of Kingdom of Liberty. In this place there are three powerful small kingdoms that are supported by the surrounding tribes, Kingdom of Liberty, Kingdom of Deserted Forest and Kingdom of...”

Before the witch finished her words, one of the leaders of the enemy, very big guy, was riding a horned demonic beast. He yelled in deep and loud voice, “We are coming here to kill the king! Who dare to stop us will die, who help the king will be killed. Surrender your king to us now or we will massacre all of you!”

Chapter 47: The Great Fire Essence Formation

There was a wild cat, very skinny and sharp-looking. It was sometimes hanging out at the back of my house, searching through my garbage. Sometimes the cat jumped to my open window and tried to steal any food in my kitchen. Every time I walked out, the cat would always run away. I started to feed the cat and gave it small house. It took a half-year to make the wild cat willing to come and let my hand touched its body.

I saw the cat's tail starting to decay, there was an old wound and it caused the tail to be smelly and suppurated. I put the best medicine I had on the tail, but it was getting worst day by day. At some point, the tail started to turn black because of the infection. I was thinking to cut a little part of the tail, throwing the worst part away, so the cat would only have two inches of tail rather than five inches of its original.

I didn't think to bring it to an animal doctor because there was none around for 200 kilometers. Anyway, it was not a cute cat, totally not an expensive cat, and not fluffy at all. When you bring it to a doctor, maybe he/she will laugh at you! It was a kind of smelly wild cat and dog which usually died on the road without anyone to care. So I prepared the medicine and sharp scissors. I touched the cat carefully and determined to cut the tail and quickly put the medicine on it to stop the bleeding. So its tail will have a clean-cut.

As I started to cut, the cat shrieked in pain, and the tail was only successfully cut in half, I think. The cat had run away with an angry face, looking at me. I gave the cat food but the cat didn't want to come near me again. Whenever the cat looked at me, it runs away. I looked at the blood and thought, did I do wrong? Was I supposed to let the cat's tail rot? Will it suffer more with it's tail cut in half? I really regretted what I did...

especially when I saw the cat walked painfully and didn't let me give the medicine.

Sometimes, I think I was doing the right thing but turned out a disaster and everything that had happened left only regret. What can we humans do? We can't turn back time even if we really want it. We can only harden ourselves and keep moving. Like it or not, to live we must go on. I really regret it. I am sorry, cat. Will you forgive me? God please forgive me.

I promise to give the best cat's food I have from now on. Please don't be angry at me.

Now I am started to think when we unintentionally hurt someone we care and love, they are hurt and in pain. That will leave a scar on their body, mind, or heart. No matter what we do, it will never be gone. The best is to not to start one. Never hurt the one we love, hurting is hurt, no matter how you sugar coat it.

Jaime looked at the people who wanted his head and stood. "I am their king what do you want from me! Don't hurt anyone here, I am going with you!"

He maybe just a coward who was keen on protecting himself from danger and afraid of fighting and blood, but sometimes he would think about his surroundings. If the soldiers here wanted to protect himself, a war would break out and people will kill each other, just for him. How could he live with that burden? No one will get hurt if he surrenders himself to the enemy. No need to cause harm to others because of him.

Like hell I am going to surrender, I will run away as soon as I am near the enemy and fly away .

Jaime greedily sucked the spiritual energy from the spiritual stones in his hand. He was raising his level quickly. He understood, as long as he has spiritual energy, no one will be able to catch him. He can easily take out the flying beast and escape!

The big guy looked at Jaime and shook his head “You are not the king we are looking for. We are here for Dong Gi, where is that monkey!”

The witch of fire’s leader stepped forward, “I am Xun Yao, The leader of the Fire Tribe. The Dong Gi you asked for has been prisoned. If you want him, I will ask my subordinates to take him to you.” Xun Yao waved her hand and ten soldiers moved back to the city.

The big guy was confused for a while and called, “Feng Xi, come forward!”

One skinny girl rushed to the big guy, “Feng Xi here. What does my lord need from me?”

“Has the prophecy from the witch of water changed?” The big guy looked around. “Dong Gi has been prisoned. Why were we sent to kill the Dong Gi to avoid a catastrophe in hurry?”

Feng Xi bowed, a little panicking. “As the servant of witch of water, our lady sent the message to us two months ago, the fated one, the future king of three realms would come to take his throne on the west continent, The Kingdom of Deserted Forest, The Kingdom of Liberty and our kingdom, The Kingdom of Water. The future king will take us into prosperity and glory, but King Dong Gi will prevent it from happening. He will call Agni, the god of fire, to kill the future king. The second time the future king returns to take his throne of Kingdom of Liberty, King Dong Gi will cause a catastrophe to all of the west continent, all of the kingdoms will perish. We must stop King Dong Gi, whatever it takes.”

“How a person in prison can cause a catastrophe?” asked the big guy in confusion.

“Elder Xun, Elder Xun.” One soldier rushed to Xun Yao with horror on his face. “King Dong Gi has disappeared from the prison! All of the prison guards had been killed by fire. Look like some witches of fire helped him out!”

“Disaster, it is truly disaster!” said the big guy. “Dong Gi will cause a catastrophe to the west continent. We must find him quickly! Feng Xi, you are also a witch of water, where is Dong Gi? Can you detect where he is?”

Feng Xi hurriedly took out her crystal orb. She concentrated for a while, sweat pouring from her face. The crystal orb showed a cloudy mist and exploded. She shook his head. “The power of other witches prevents his location from being detected. We can’t locate him as long as he is around witches.”

“If you can’t locate him, then no other witch can!” The big guy moved his beast. “Everyone we must search him! Do whatever it takes to find him!”

“Ban Ba!” Feng Xi grabbed the big guy hand. “I am sorry, my lord.”

“What?”

“Our lady told me that the future king of three realms is able to understand everything and has full knowledge. He can help us locate where Dong Gi is.”

Ban Ba locked his eyes on Jaime far away. He moved his horned beast with his soldiers and passed through the thousand soldiers to arrived in front of Jaime.

Jaime stared at the soldiers who gave them to pass.

I understand you are just following my saying, that I will give myself to him, but can't just let your enemy passed so easy like that? Show your loyalty to your king at least.

“Future king of three realms!” shouted Ban Ba. “I am the lord of Kingdom of Water. Well, I mean the branch of the Kingdom of Water. My place is supposed to be yours if I follow the prophecy, but Dong Gi will destroy all our places. Please tell us where is he. We must stop him.”

Jaime's level had reached level 5. He had enough spiritual and mental energies to use the Book of Karma.

“Alright, I will tell you where Dong Gi is and I hope you can go away after that.”

Ban Ba nodded.

“Let see, Dong Gi is ..” Jaime used The Book of Karma. “About 100 kilometers from here, on the east, he is on the little temple, named The Temple of Fire Essence. Twenty witches of fire are with him. They are activating a big formation, named The Great Fire Essence’s Formation...”

As Jaime finished his talk, Elder Xun face turned in horror.

“What is The Great Fire Essence’s Formation stuff?” asked Ban Ba. He didn’t know anything about it.

“Well, I am not a stingy person so you don’t need to pay for asking more questions. I will answer you for free.” Jaime asked the Book of Karma. “The Great Fire Essence’s Formation is a great formation to create a fire essence which is very advantages for fire cultivators or witches of fire. It will suck the spiritual vein in the ground and changed it into fire essence.”

“Who created that formation?” asked Ban Ba still didn’t understand.

“The Great Fire Essence’s Formation was created by the fire tribe. They have placed it on the west continent for hundreds of years. The formation has been sucking the Essence of Dearth from the earth spiritual’s veins and changed it into fire essence. It is the main cause of why the whole climate changed. Rain rarely falls here, and the land became dry. Since the fire formation has slowly been eating the earth essence and turned it into fire essence, it caused the fire tribe to become stronger and stronger. More than the other tribes.”

The other tribes were shocked and looked at the fire tribe with angry faces. The witches of fire assembled themselves into one circle with Elder Xun in the middle.

As Jaime was reading the information and speaking at the same time, he slowly became to understand. “To create the Great Fire Essence Formation, a lot of lives must be sacrificed, using the Ying energy to change the balance of the energy.”

Jaime nodded. “And to support the main formation, there must be twenty-one small formations created around the great formation. The small formations will suck the Earth Essences from the spiritual veins on the ground and send it into the Great Formation to turn into Fire Essence.”

“That was why the kingdom of Liberty leaded by fire tribe, destroy a lot of villages, killed many people to create the small formation to support The Great Fire Essence Formation. If this formation is activated, it will change the whole west continent into a desert and everything around it will be destroyed. But the Fire essence will be everywhere and will make fire cultivators and witches of fire stronger.”

A stunned silence greeted Jaime announcement.

“Elder Xun!” Chu Wan, the King of Deserted Forest, the leader of Earth tribe, was staring angrily at the Witch of Fire. “Tell us about this, your tribe of fire is the main reason of this deserted land! This land was the very land of Kingdom of Earth! Our ancestor's land! And once it was a very very fertile land, lot of forest and animals! And your tribe destroyed it! All after we kindly accepted all of you here? This is how you reply us?" Other leaders of tribes also felt the same.

"Listen to me!" Elder Xun replied. "We are a big family of the fire tribe and not all of us have the same opinion about this formation. That formation was created by our ancestors. And like all of you know, our ancestors were runaways from the Kingdom of Fire from the South Continent. Me, myself was born on this land! I want to protect this place, half of the fire tribe also feels the same. But Dong Gi, and the other half of the tribe wanted to sacrifice this land. Turn it into a place to cultivate the fire essence. They think, if they do that, they can return to the Kingdom of Fire in the South!"

"Why would I believe in you?" asked Ban Ba to Elder Xun, "Maybe you are the culprit who let Dong Gi out from prison."

Elder Xun stepped forward. "Everyone here knew! Three weeks ago, as the God of Fire, Agni, lost to the future king, I command my people to captured Dong Gi and his followers! Put them in the prison. I asked all of the soldiers to be pulled back and stopped the war. I invited all of the leaders of the tribes and people from Kingdom of Deserted Forest to created peace and assimilated ourselves into one! I waited for the future king to return to his throne like the prophecy. I really want this land to be led to prosperity. Do you think if I want to destroy all of these places, I would do like what I did?"

"Sorry for this interruption," said Jaime suddenly. "If I didn't read wrong, we only have 30 minutes before The Great Fire Essence Formation is activated. Once it is activated, there will be no way to stop it!"

All of their eyes were wide with horror.

I think it is time for me to escape!

Hastily Jaime took out his flying beast, before he could jump to ride the beast; Ban Ba had jumped from his horned beast to the flying beast. Even though Jaime was closer to the beast, since his level was only 5 and Ban Ba's level was 57, on Elder Realm, Ban Ba reached the flying beast first. He commanded the beast to fly. At that time Elder Xun also jumped on Ban Ba's back.

"I will show you the way to the formation, we must stop Dong Gi," said Elder Xun. The Golden Lion Hawk beast speedy shot into the dark sky.

"That is my flying beast! My escape route!" cursed Jaime. He took out his last flying beast, well, Chu Mie's flying beast. This time he was smarter, as soon as the flying beast appeared, he has sat on its back. "Fly!" commanded Jaime in short. The flying beast speedy rose into the sky.

"My king, your safety is my responsibility. I will protect you with my life!"

Jaime turned his head around and to his dismay he found The Old General behind him. "Why are you following?"

"To protect the king and stop the catastrophe!" said the Old General with pride. "As the leader of the Lion Tribe, I must protect this land with my life!”

But I am not going to the formation; I am going the other way!

Jaime sighed heavily.

Well maybe I can go to the formation and drop this old man there. Maybe he can save this land. Sometimes, doing a little charity is good.

He changed the flying trajectory and flew to the Great Fire Essence Formation. In 15 minutes, they found the great formation. Jaime could see Ban Ba and Elder Xun were fighting with the witches of fire.

Ban Ba used his big sword to block the fire-ball from the enemy and slashed his enemy hands into two. Blood spilled and painful scream arose to the dark sky. Ban Ba didn't stop there; his sword quickly removed his enemy head. Making the blood spurt from an empty neck.

Jaime's body trembled by the horror. The Old General jumped down and pulled his bow, the arrow rapidly shoot to one witch of fire's neck and penetrated half its size. Elder Xun launched a big fire-ball and burned some witches of fire. In a short time, fifteen witches of fire were killed and left was only five witches.

“We can't hold them! Back to the core of the formation and protect Our Lord Dong Gi! We must active this formation at all cost!” Five witches rushed to the middle formation beside Dong Gi and took out one talisman. “We gave our souls to be burned for creating the unbreakable wall!”

A small crystal dome appeared and protected the Dong Gi and the five witches inside. Ban Ba, the Old General and Elder Xun launched their best attack to the dome, but nothing happened.

“Don’t hold your power, launched all you have! It will crumble soon!” shouted Ban Ba and they were together to rapidly launched everything they have. Explosion, sword attack, bow attack, everything slammed to the dome. The five witches inside the dome felt their soul burned in a very rapid speed. Their face became pale and paler.

“It is the time!” yelled Dong Gi loudly. The Great Fire Essence Formation light out with a very bright color.

“We are too late,” said Ban Ba exhausted.

“This time, no one can turn off the formation anymore.” Elder Xun eyes full of regret.

“We must escape from here!” The Old General searched for his king. He found that young man stood looking at Dong Gi with crossed hands and lightly smiled, like he didn’t care what would happen next.

Chapter 48: Unforgotten Song

A song is the very heart of its maker. What will you find inside your heart if you are sincere and earnest to face your own heart? What will your heart sing from deep inside it? Will it be a ‘I care about you’ or ‘I really love you’? Will you honestly love yourself and love people around you? Will you have forgiveness when somebody hurts your heart? Will you be able to face the large sky with a good conscious, saying ‘I have given all my best in this life’?

Dong Gi stared at Jaime and shouted angrily, “How dare you take my kingdom! If I can’t have it, no one can! This formation will turn everything on the west continent into a desert! You will make almost one million people suffer in the desert. It is all because of you!”

“Me?” asked Jaime. He looked perplexed. “It was you who create a one kilometer great formation, arrange 21 mini formations and you are the one who activated it! Don’t blame me with what you have done by yourself. I am not involved!”

“You pushed me to do this!” Dong Gi yelled angrily. “You must be the one who is responsible for the result of the west continent being destroyed.”

“Dong Gi, what do you want? Stop this madness. I will kneel to you and give back your throne, I don't want it!" Jaime knelt with tears in his eyes. "I am sorry, I am really sorry! Please stop the formation, stop hurting innocent people!"

Dong Gi saw Jaime knelt and crying regretfully, and he felt so good inside. "Too late! Once the formation is activated, no one can turn it off again."

The one kilometer circle formation shone bright. All of the symbols inside dazzled, causing all of them to blink against the dazzling lights. A concentrate light filled the symbols and formation. The symbols appeared up on the ground with many color illusions. All of them started moving in cycles, like a big gear, shining brilliantly. Suddenly the light from the formation shot into the dark sky. It caused the appearance of an one kilometer tower of light, straight to the dark sky.

Ban Ba, Old General and Elder Xun felt the earth and their bodies shaking wildly.

"Dong Gi, I am sorry please stop it. No need to do all of this, I promise to give you back the throne! I haven't even tasted it yet. Still intact like you left it!" Jaime was kneeling and begging Dong Gi desperately and miserably. "I regret it so deeply, please."

Dong Gi laughed satisfied. "Now you feel regret! But it is too late! The formation has been sucking all of the earth essence! It is turning it into fire essence and soon the fire essence will be ruler of this continent! No more rain, no more wet ground, everything will turn into a desert. Destroy everything huahahahaha...."

The dark sky was rumbling wildly and it seemed like hungry wolves devouring every essence releasing by the tower of light.

“I am sorry, I am really sorry!” yelled Jaime and cried in agony. “I never meant to hurt anyone, nor destroy everything! Please forgive me. God, please accept my repent and forswear.”

Big dark cloud appeared, thundering and caused a cold wind to blow on the earth.

“Something is not right,” said Elder Xun perplexed.

“What is that?” asked Ban Ba.

All of them got caught in the suddenness of a torrential downpour. The rain fell heavily causing them to be wet in a second.

Dong Gi was stunned, he had no idea how the rain could fall. Because the fire essence or fire formation has already been activated. Elder Xun, Ban Ba and The old general were also stunned.

“Huahahaha!” Only Jaime laughed loudly. He touched his stomach and kept laughing till it was hurt. “Did you guys see Dong Gi’s face? Did you see it? Just now he laughed so hard and felt like he was winning. Now he is like a stupid monkey looking at his wife being raped by a baboon!”

Jaime laid down his back on the ground and felt the rainfall, there was a smile hanging on his face. “I think I can win an Oscar with my act.”

“What have you done? What have you done to the formation?” Dong Gi stared madly at Jaime. His body’s shaken hard with anger. He vomited blood and breathed heavily. “You! You!...”

The five witches of fire fell down because their souls had been consumed by the talisman. Leaving only the weak Dong Gi knealing in the center of the formation. His hairs turned white and his eyes were empty.

***

The Witch of the Wood saw the very bright light tower shoot to the dark sky and illuminate everything. Her body shook, “Assemble all the wood tribe’s people. We must quickly return to our ancestor great formation! Hurry!”

They rode the fastest demonic beasts and rushed through the darkness.

The Witch of Wood suddenly remembered everything her grandmother had told her when she was six years old.

“An Li, come here!” An old Witch of Wood smiled at a little girl.

“What it is Granny?” A little girl with a naughty smile rushed to the old Witch of Wood side.

“Sit here. I want to tell you a prophecy left by our ancestor a hundred years ago.” The old granny patted An Li’s head. “Someday the fated one, king of three realms will appear on this continent. He will bring prosperity and glory to us and three realms.”

“I have heard it a thousand times granny, don’t you have another prophecy?” An Li showed a bored face. “They keep repeating the prophecy and we don’t know when it will be happening!”

“I will tell you a secret!” The old granny smile warmly.

“Yayyy!! I love secrets, what it is granny!” Her little eyes shone brightly.

“The future king will come in your time, you will meet him when you are seventeen.”

“Really?” An Li jumped happily.

The old Granny nodded. “Here you must listen. When the king takes his throne in this kingdom, the big tower of light will appear. It will pierce the dark sky and illuminate everything. That time you must remember to collect all wood tribe’s people and rushed to the ancient formation we have created for a hundred years.”

“What will we do in the formation granny?”

The old granny took out one small seed and gave it to An Li. “You must plant this seed in the middle of the formation. You and all the tribe people will sing the unforgotten song at that time.”

“What is the unforgotten song?”

The old granny smiled warmly. “It is the song from long, long time ago, from the first ancient tree. We have waiting for this moment for millions of years and we will still be loyal to our promise to the Ancient tree. To give its last messages to the first king who gave power and love to the ancient tree. Promise me you will do it!”

“I will do it!” said An Li brightly smiled.

“I have always wished since I was young that I can live to see that moment, but it is not my fate.” The Old Granny sighed. The next day, she died peacefully.

“Granny!” whispered the Witch of Wood, An Li, on her way to the ancient wood formation. “The time has come!” Her eyes were teary.

***

“King! What have you done to the formation?” asked the Old General, followed by Elder Xun and Ban Ba.

“I will tell you a story.” Jaime giggled. “One company has a broken photocopy's machine. So they called the factory to send a repairman. As the repairman came, the company called the factory and said, 'Please send an older repairman, the one you sent is too young.' But the factory replied, 'Please use that young man, he was the one who found and created the photocopy's machine.'"

Old general, Elder Xun and Ban Ba looked in confuse, they didn't know what was a machine, photocopy, factory or company.

Jaime waved his hand, "Forget what I have told you. What I mean is, never show a shitty skill in front of an expert. When all of you were fighting with the enemy and they protected Dong Gi, I was busy changing a few parts of the Great Fire Essence Formation."

"You changed it?" ask Elder Xun.

"I knew this Formation, like I was the creator itself. It insists of three parts formation. The first part is for guiding or sucking the Earth Essence from its vein. Second part is for changing the Earth Essence into Fire Essence. And the third part is guiding the Fire Essence and throws it into the sky." Jaime smiled lightly, all of this because of Book of Karma. "I remove a few symbols on the second part, so the Earth Essence won't turn into Fire Essence. What you saw as the light tower is the Earth Essence consumed by the hungry sky."

"After all this time, the balance between the sky and earth had been destroyed by the fire essence. Now, as they sky meets again with earth essence, it greedily sucked all the earth essence and wanted to return the balance of this place once again. The rain water is filled with earth essence and will spread to all places in the west continent. This rain will nurture the dry land and grow the forest again."

“No,” said Jaime. He walked into the center of the formation and forcefully removed Dong Gi from his spot. He took out the Sword of Mother Earth and stabbed it in the middle of formation. The sword shone brightly and gave a golden color. Suddenly it turned the entire formations light into white golden light and shot into the sky. “This will double or triple the glory of its past!”

***

Chu Wan and the entire Earth Tribe’s people could feel the essence of earth getting stronger and stronger. The land was filled with earth essence and started to be alive again.

***

In the middle of the 10 kilometers of the Great Wood Formation built by the Ancestor of Wood Tribe, An Li put the seed into the middle of the formation. Four thousand people of the Wood Tribe made layers of a big circle in the middle of formation. They joined hand to hand, old and young, all of them started singing under the heavy rain.

Unforgotten Song

Never forget kindness you accept

Never forget love you left

I grow big together with love

Till time never able to forget love

Love has journeyed to infinity

Promise with you I have fulfilled

The king who gave me the power and love

Even you have forgotten me, this one never forget you

I live millions of years,

Saw your soul reincarnate again and again

You rise to your throne again and again

Became the king of three realms again and again

Dream to accompany you through your struggling

I prayed my whole life to Mighty Creator

Be your hand, be your feet, be your everything
Almighty One finally answered

At the time I will company you
You will again be the king of three realms
That will be time when all living being know
Who they are and where they are from

You will enlighten them about their self
Because once you have sworn
You will never back
Before all living being back to the Creator

You are the last
You are the king
What you and everyone have forgotten
You were the first one

Chapter 49: Selling Chu Mie for a lamb

The world was a very amazing place. You could create yourself and your dream at this place. You can also sell your dreams or buy your dreams. But what was the real point of being alive? To find Who create us? To find why we are here? To fulfill our dreams? Or just live to be ourselves?

There was a simple saying, 'Wish for nothing and demand of nothing, then everything will be enough and wonderful. You will be happy being whatever you are. Wish for everything and demand of everything, then nothing will be enough and you will be a miserable person in the world.'

Reaching that state will give you joy and fullness, so learn to achieve it. And please remember at the time you have needed nothing, please donate everything you have to me. I am still in need of everything.

An Li and the wood tribe's people joined hands to sing forgotten song. The seed slowly regain its memories by the song and began to sprouting a tiny leaves, fighting through the earth.

The Great Wood formation, supported by nine mini formations, were hungrily sucking the earth essence from the rain and converted it into wood essence. As the nine mini formations shone brightly, they transferred the wood essence to the Great Wood Formation.

The Great Wood Formation began to shine with green color, with the seed in the center, the symbols inside the Great Wood Formation started to shine with a bright green color. They were moving like gears, cycling faster and faster. Suddenly, the green light shot from the Great Wood Formation into the dark sky. It became the second great light tower piercing the night. The green light filled with wood essence and it mixed with the earth essence in the sky and the rain. Together they fell down to the ground.

The forest and plants were speedy sucking the earth and wood essences. Things those had long gone for a long time. New leaves were sprouting from the trees and all plants. The seed in the middle of Great Wood Formation quickly grew in a very frightening speed. Only needed a few minutes and it had grown into a very big tree and kept growing bigger and bigger.

While bathing in the green light, An Li's body and wrinkles started to change into a smooth , pretty skin. Her total appearance changed into a very pretty girl with soft white glittering skin.

Not long after that, the third light tower appeared in a far away land, a light blue color shot into the dark sky.

Ban Ba looked at the blue light tower and said with proud. "That is The Great Water Formation, left by our ancestor. It will spread the water essence into the sky, rain and everywhere, it will help to clear the fire essence in the ground, plants, and air. It will purify everything."

The Old general was staring intensely at the three towers of lights, illuminate through the darkness. One yellow, blue and green colors. Rain was watering down his white hairs and chin. "Earth, Wood, and Water essences fill this west continent; there will be only prosperity wait for us ahead."

At that time, all of the people from the west continent saw the three towers of lights from everywhere. They ran out from their hiding, bashing into the rain and were dazzled by the beauties of the towers light. Their hearts felt warm by the color and their eyes burst into tears. The rain which fell on them brought a miracle, to the ground, plants, and even living beings. The dry land started to change into a fertile soil, the plants grew bigger and healthier. The animals cured from many diseases and people were cured from their sickness. Many heads of small nomad tribes were looking the lights, with a deep longing of something big and made the same decision at the same time.

They were whispering with hope and deep relief, “Our king has come!”

***

Three days after that night, Jaime sat together with Chu Wan, Elder Xun, the Old general, Ban Ba and the fifty six heads of big and small tribes. The tribe heads rushed to the City of Earth—ex-City of Fire—to pledge their loyalty.

“Therefore the Three Former Kingdoms and fifty six tribes announced to join the new kingdom, The Kingdom of Chu Mie,” said Jaime with proud expression.

“I refuse!” said Ban Ba quickly. “The name is so ugly!”

“Me too, refuse it!” said other head tribes. Almost all the tribe heads didn’t agree.

“Then come up with a better one!” protested Jaime. “You were the one who gave me freedom to choose a new name for my kingdom! But now all of you protested! Like I care about the name,”

All of the tribe heads hastily started a warm discussion, which turned into a hot debate and advance to breaking bone voting with a lot of screams and blood. At the time Jaime awoke from his napping, they have agreed at one name. With black and blue on their faces.

Kingdom of Earth.

“Why?” asked Jaime.

Elder Xun explained. “The truth is, this place, west continent, belongs to The Kingdom of Earth since a long time ago. Wood tribe, Fire Tribe, Water tribe and some other tribes here, were not originally from here. Our ancestor migrated here from our own kingdom of faraway. The Kingdom of Fire are located at the south continent, Kingdom of Water are on North East continent, as for Wood tribe, they live everywhere on this continent except south continent.”

Jaime nodded; even they sound cool and great with the name Kingdom of Earth, Kingdom of Fire, Kingdom of Water etc. They are just a small kingdom in front of three great kingdoms on the Dragon and Phoenix continent. They can only be categorized as a big clan in front of the great kingdom. And they are always being the outlanders.

“Well it is good if we agreed with the name Kingdom of Earth. Now,” Jaime took out twenty jades’ information. “Inside of these jades, there will be information about what all of you must do in twenty years, but I will come to check every five years.”

“Twenty years?” asked Chu Wan and Ban Ba in confusion.

“Twenty years is a time all of you need to restore our kingdom and make it into the best kingdom in this continent. You know what we lack to take a great kingdom down?” Jaime asked them.

“What?”

“Soldiers!” Jaime sighed. “Our Kingdom, only has two millions people at most and a few hundred thousand soldiers. Great kingdoms have more than a hundred millions of people and a few millions of soldiers. We can’t conquer any great kingdom in this continent with our current situation.”

“So what will we do in twenty years?” asked Ban Ba.

Jaime happily shared his great idea. “First, we will do farming to ensure we would have enough food for our next generation. Second, we must encourage every woman to born a baby every years, by the time twenty years pass, we will have hundreds millions of people and few millions of soldiers to take over the great kingdom!”

Some head tribes stood and gave standing applause. “Great Idea, brilliant Idea! Truly a great king! How could we never hear one before? All we need are just to pregnant women. I like the idea, love it!”

Elder Xun and other female head tribes face turned ugly looked at Jaime with killing intent.

“Oh well,” Jaime coughed a little. “Inside the jades information also some information about metal and gold mining location, good land to open farms and many more, please used it well.”

“We have a gold mine here?” ask one of the tribe heads.

“Sure we have.” Book of Karma totally showed a complete map of it.

“But we do not have enough tools to open a mine,” said the other tribe heads. They began to discuss between them.

Jaime coughed to get the attention. “I will give you money so you can buy tools you need for farming, mining and etc. Every tribe head will have ten thousand spiritual stones for the tribe.”

When the tribe head heard about that much money, their eyes opened wide and they mouth couldn't be closed. They were shocked beyond belief.

“Also, I will give every family one spiritual stone, so they can start working and buying stuff they need to start farming. I also left about three millions spiritual stones in the kingdom's treasury. You can use it when you need.”

One of the tribe heads suddenly knelt and shouted. “You are our king, the best king ever! You brought prosperity to this land, you brought glory to our kingdom and you gave us moneys. Truly a father of us, we can't do anything for you, yet you already give us everything. We will show our deep loyalty to our king!”

One by one the tribe heads knelt and bowed to Jaime, they shout very pleasant words to be heard.

“I truly regret this!” said one old tribe head suddenly and caused the people to be shocked.

“What did you regret?” asked Jaime politely to one old man.

“I regret that you came too late. If you came faster when I am still young, I would be more than willing to accompany you to heaven and hell! Now, I am 75, what can these old bones do anymore?”

“Don’t worry, you will live longer than you think. Inside the jade, there are cultivation arts. As the earth essence has return, the spiritual energy around this kingdom will be denser. If you cultivate diligently, I think you can live to two hundred years!” Jaime whispered at him. “At that time you can also have a young wife, seventeen or twenty!”

All the tribe heads shouted in unison, “You are the greatest king we ever had!”

Jaime laughed and stood at the table with both hands on the waist. “Good, Good, Kiss my ass, when I am happy, I am going to give you more! Muahahahaha! I will tell you three steps of being loyal followers to your king!”

“We are listening!” said the head tribes.

“When a king asks you to take a beautiful lady for him, as loyal follower you must fulfill that request.”

“Yes we acknowledge. It’s My King, we will bring the most beautiful lady from our tribe for you right away.”

“Not one! But three!” said Jaime looked down to them. “You have to take the three most beautiful ladies to your king!”

“Please enlighten us, our great king.”

“First one is to show you are obedient as a loyal follower. Second one is to show your loyalty and the third is...” Jaime hit his chest proudly, “to kiss MY ASS! Muahahaha! Always remember those steps!”

“We will put it into our heart!”

Jaime hit his chest proudly, “Now, tell me what is your king’s name?”

“Jaime The Great!” shouted all tribe heads in unison.

“What is my title!” Jaime shouted.

“The King of Three Realms!”

“What will I do!”

“Killing the gods, trampling the demons, be the emperor of the universe!”

“Huahahaha, I am the almighty Jaime!”

***

Chu Wan suddenly said, “King, I did a little math. Even if every women born a baby every year, there will be no way to reach hundred millions in twenty years.”

“I am The King, you know what is the great thing about being the king?” Jaime replied.

“I don’t know.”

“It is because King only needs to command and his followers will use everything to fulfill his command. As to how they do it, I don’t care. Maybe I will need to ask every woman to give birth to twin or triplet every year! You will think of how to do it.”

Chu Wan face turned pale.

Jaime patted his shoulder, trying to comfort him. “Don’t worry, many tribes are still on their way to join our kingdom. They will bring more people to us. Just think to give prosperity to our people and them who come to us, it will attract more people to come here. If you think that still won't be enough." Jaime smirked. "Go conquer the smallest kingdom around and make them ours!"

***

The next day, Jaime went to one room of the palace to check Chu Mie. That girl was still sleeping like nothing had happened. "You my dear friend, you need a knight in shining armor and a white horse. I will fulfill your wish, because I am a really good friend of yours."

Jaime walked out from the room and made his way to the palace field. He stood on one of the prepared stage. "Thank you all, for being willing to come here, the greatest soldiers of Kingdom of Earth. All of you are the chosen ones, the most handsome and the strongest, son of the tribe heads, dragon among men."

"Like all of you have heard, Chu Mie, the only princess of Chu Wan and the most beautiful princess in the Kingdom of Earth, is looking for her knight in shining armor, who rides a white horse. So may the knight and prince kiss to cure her sickness. Maybe that lucky guy is you, who can cure her and be her prince!"

"Aooooouuu!" shouted hundreds of young people like a hungry wolves.

"I don't want to make a short story long, Chu Mie the sleeping princess is sleeping inside that room," Jaime pointed at one room. "Everyone of you will have to queue to try your luck. Since all of you are so poor and have no spiritual stone, one person only needs to pay one lamb. And don't worry about the shining armor and the white horse."

Jaime pointed to one stage where a shining armor and white horse waiting. “It is rented for everyone. You will wear that armor, ride the horse to room and enter to kiss Chu Mie. May luck be with you! Who want to be the first!”

“Meeee!”

“Meee!”

“It is mee!” Ban Ba threw one big lamb on the stage. No one could hold his aura and stepped back. Giving him a way to the stage.

“Ban Ba, I think you are not young anymore,” said Jaime to that big guy.

“My King, I am always seventeen in my heart. I want to have Chu Mie as my sixteen wives. Can I try it?”

Jaime patted the big lamb in front of him. “You have paid, you can do it. Anyway you are handsome, Chu Mie will like you! Just put the shining armor, ride the white house and go kiss her.”

Ban Ba laughed and wore a shining armor, he rode the white horse and went inside the room.

Chapter 50: End of Faraway Kingdom

Sometimes human can only understand the worth of thing when they have lost it. I know a person who had a very good job—good payment, easy work, lot of bonuses—for a few years. One day he changed his job because he thought his last job at the hotel was too boring. But he only worked for the his new job for one month, because of the unhealthy location and condition. Then he became jobless. He tried to apply for a job for years and recieved none. He then led a harsh life, sold his big motorcycle, and today I heard he just got into an accident.

Desires always leads you into the worst path of life. One from a thousand can get a better life with their desire. It was just simply luck. Feel gratitude with everything you have, and move forward without throwing what has become your foundation. What I hate about motivators are, they create a condition that you are powerful, smart, better than anyone, and you can be everything you want.

What they kept away from you was, even if you are super smart, if no one give you a place for you to shoot, you are just empty talk. One from hundreds attended motivations seminars, become rich because of luck, and their family background, and many other things, like chance. You'll learn to play basketball so millions of people could pay you but no one can be like Michael Jordan. Because he has his own muscle, bone, height, body, and his luck. Even if you are so good a playing ball, if no one gives you a chance to enter the arena and shoot. You will be no one.

If everything was about luck, how can I be rich? The answer my friend, don't think to become rich, think how to lead a happy life. How can you become happy with love, friendship, care, gratitude, grateful and other free things? Warming your heart, not becoming money oriented. Open your eyes, open your heart! Living is not that bad, unless you need to fight it every day. Smile...

If you keep having a harsh life then pray, only God can help you. Don't ask me, because I am all talk.

Jaime smiled widely as he was counting hundred of lambs, the payment to kiss Chu Mie. "Come try your luck! One lamb and maybe you can get one princess for you."

"My King," said one young man who stood nervously, wearing overly large clothes. Maybe it was his ancestor's clothes. "It is already my turn, but how can Lord Ban Ba take so long just for a kiss; don't you think he will dare to do more than just a kiss?"

"Damn!" Jaime hit his head and ran fast to Chu Mie's room. "How can I forget? That wicked guy! If he wants to do more than a kiss, he must pay for more!" He quickly made his way to enter Chu Mie's room. Then he saw that Ban Ba was lying down on the floor, fainted, and Chu Mie's body suddenly shone.

"How dare you do this to me!" shouted an angry voice, a body rushed quickly and pounced on Jaime to the ground. Jaime's body was pinned down and that slim body sat on his chest.

"Oh, Hei Chu Mie, you have awoken?" Jaime looked at the desert sand and dry air. "Or not, Dungeon heart?"

Shit, I am trapped again!

“How dare you sell me to those wolves!” protested Chu Mie hitting Jaime’s chest.

“Ckckckc...” Jaime swung his point finger in front of Chu Mie’s face. “I am helping you to create a Reverse Harem. You know, many people are aiming for a harem ending. It is the best ending ever created. For you, my dear friend, you can have a reverse harem by just sleeping. You should thank me. I worked hard for you. I chose the most handsome and strongest man for you!”

“But I want the best and richest person. I want you!” Chu Mie locked his angry eyes on Jaime. “You are their King!”

“Well, if you want me, you have to conquer me!” protested Jaime. “You should conquer my dungeon heart!”

“Pardon me?” Chu Mie blinked with an empty expression. “Did I listen wrong?”

“You think I am this cheap? I am expensive, girl! Don’t you see how handsome I am? How cool I am? I took down three kingdoms and conquer fifty-six tribes in one month. Girls are queuing for me.” Jaime protested. “What makes you think you are special? What make you think I am going to push myself to beg for you? What is your value? I am the king of Earth Kingdom.”

He pushed Chu Mie aside and stood looking at Chu Mie's Dungeon heart. A city wall in the desert. Jaime had to think of a smart way of conquering this dungeon heart.

"You don't want to conquer my dungeon heart?" Chu Mie gave him a disbelieving look.

"What? You said I need to conquer your kingdom and your enemy kingdoms, I have done it." Jaime sighed sadly. "You know I like you and am willing to die for you. I conquered kingdoms for you. At that time I suddenly realized something."

"What?"

"Let me tell you one story from a famous author Anthony De Mello and his book The Prayer of the Frog."

"When Robert, a fourteen-year-old lad fell in love with his fourteen-year-old neighbor, he sold off everything he had and even took on odd jobs to earn enough money to buy his sweetheart the expensive watch she wanted. His parents were dismayed but decided it was best to say nothing.

The day for the purchase arrived and Robert returned from his shopping expedition without spending his money. This is the explanation he gave: "I took her to the watch shop and she said she didn't want the watch after all. She fancied other things more, like a bracelet, a necklace, a gold ring. So I took her to the jeweler's.

“While she was moving around the shop making up her mind about a bracelet, necklace or gold ring, I tried to help her to choose the best one. At that time I remembered what our teacher once told us, that before getting something we must ask ourselves do we really need it. I checked the bracelet, ask myself the same question, as well as with the necklace and a gold ring. Then I looked at her. That’s when I realized that I did not really need her after all, so I walked out of the shop and came home.”

Jaime stared at Chu Mie. “Do you understand? You have no value to me and I won’t get fraud by you anymore.”

“Me? Fraud?” asked Chu Mie in disbelief.

“You know how many people in this entire world are stupidly tricked by girls? The girls are being nice, polite, pretending to be a good girlfriend. Just to trick guys, grab the money and run away. They are using facebook, BBM and chat services. Some guys even pretend to be girls to trick a guy!”

“Facebook? BBM? Chat service?” Chu Mie was confused.

“Forget them, what I mean is, you asked me to conquer a kingdom, I have done it. Now you can’t ask anything from me anymore before you show me that you really love me! If you show me nothing, I will think that you are just trying to scam me out. You want to trick my love to you, my kindness and my fragile heart.”

“What do you want from me so you believe I really love you?” ask Chu Mie with teary eyes, she was hurt that Jaime thought she scammed him.

Chu Mie threw a pink colored ball to Jaime. “I love you of course I will give you everything, even my heart.”

Jaime smiled as the Book of Karma responded.

[Congratulation Chu Mie’s Dungeon Heart conquered, nine hundred ninety-eight more to go, please work hard. You can perform the secret of heart.]

His face became relieved.

Chu Mie looked at Jaime’s relieved face and shout. “So you tricked me!”

“I didn’t trick you!” protested Jaime in a hurry.

Chu Mie stomped her legs on the ground. “I should have known! Once you are inside my Dungeon Heart, you won’t be able to escape. I must ask you to do more things before I let you win my heart! I am supposed to make you promise me to have only me as your wife! Or let me follow you wherever you go! Now I don’t have any more chances.”

Jaime pulled out his tongue and wave his hand, “Good bye!” His body vanished from Chu Mie’s Dungeon Heart, once he gained the key, he knew every secret of Chu Mie’s heart.

He went back to Chu Mie’s room and sighed. “It was dangerous, I was so afraid she will ask me to conquer the whole universe before she wanted to wake up. Girls are scary, especially a drama queen. Good grief I had a good idea to force her. I am truly a smart guy!”

A week after Chu Mie kissed Jaime.

Jaime was detained by the City Lord of White Eagle City. He was staying inside a small and bad smelly prison with hundreds of other ugly prisoners.

“Brother!” Xu Tie, the guard of Thousand Treasure Pavilion was inside the prison with him. His face was full of black and blue. His body was so skinny, dirty and trembling by fear. “Will we be killed?”

“Don’t be afraid!” said Jaime. “We are not guilty.” Jaime’s level was only 15 at the moment, with a lot of guards, it seemed like he wouldn’t be able to escape.

“Brother, they said you stole from General Long’s residence.”

“They are accusing the wrong person.” Jaime’s heart beat became faster.

No way could they know it!”

“But they said they have proof!” Xu Tie explained in fear. “That was how they could convince the City Lord to catch you at the first sight. We will be dead.”

Jaime left the Kingdom of Earth after giving the tribes everything he had, especially General Long’s stuff. Since he won’t be able to use it in White Eagle City. Chu Mie didn’t follow him back to the city; she wanted to learn to be a good princess and the Witch of Earth. She wanted to bring prosperity to the Kingdom of Earth.

He took six days to journey back to the White Eagle City and as soon as he arrived, hundreds of soldiers quickly grab him and threw him into prison.

“Jaime and his crew, Xu Tie, and his wife Su An, It is time for your trial! Get out now!” One soldier yelled to them.

Jaime saw Su An was in a very bad condition, wearing white clothes like them, and her hair was in mess.

The three of them were pushed into one court room, at that place there was General Long Chang, his son Long Yu and Lao Du with no legs.

As Jaime entered the court room, Long Yu stood and pointed to Jaime. “It is him! The beggar and the one who robbed us!”
